Choose the ARGUS C-3

There are good reasons why more people own an Argus C-3 than any other 35mm camera.

One reason is the luxury features built right into each C-3: color-corrected f/3.5 Cinotar lens, precision gear-controlled shutter with speeds up to 1/500th second, lens-coupled rangefinder, color-matic lens settings and plug-in flashgun.

The other reasons are the complete utility and adaptability of the C-3 resulting from these features. Whether you are a beginner or an advanced amateur, you'll find the Argus C-3 covers every picture-taking situation with ease.

Let us show you the popular Argus C-3 now... in time for making this year's vacation color slides!

- FORT STORY TELLINGS -

NEW COMMANDER

FORT STORY, Va.—Lt. Col. Frederick G. Ward has assumed the command of Fort Story in the absence of Col. George E. Woods, Jr. Colonel Woods, who underwent surgery last week, is convalescing in Portsmouth Naval Hospital.

Lieutenant Colonel Ward has been deputy post commander for the past three years. Lt. Col. E. A. P. McCarthy will be acting deputy post commander during Colonel Wood's absence.

VISITORS

Members of the 16-man Transportation Corps Advisory Panel held their weekly meeting at Fort Story last Friday morning. The panel, composed of top civilian leaders in the transportation field, advises Major General Paul F. Yount, Chief of the U. S. Army Transportation Corps.

The group, accompanied by General Yount, Major General Rush B. Lincoln, Jr., commanding general of the U. S. Army Transportation Training Command, and Brigadier General Morton E. Townes, acting assistant Chief of Transportation for Traffic, observed amphibious training here.

They watched demonstrations of the DUKW, the Army's famous amphibious truck, and two mammoth pieces of amphibious equipment—the 98-ton Barge, Amphibious, Resupply, Cargo (BARC) and the Landing Craft Retriever.

Following a luncheon at the Ft. Story Officers' Open Mess the group had an opportunity to attend the Jamestown Festival Pageant at near-by Seashore State Park.

RECEPTION

A reception at the Fort Story Officers' Open Mess Tuesday evening (April 23), honored Lt. Col. Bryan Griffith, and Major Alfred Campbell, Colonel Griffith, who's retiring after more than 28 years active service, was the post Provost Marshall. Major Campbell, commanding officer of the 14th Transportation Battalion, is retiring with more than 24 years of service.

WHALES

The Norfolk Tallow Company was the only winner, and two misguided whales were the losers at Ft. Story last week. A herd of nine pilot whales swam up on the beach here, and resisted all efforts of Ft. Story soldiers to tow them back into the surf with DUKW's.

Finally seven of the recalcitrant critters gave up and went back out to sea. Two stayed on the beach and died. The tallow company hauled one, who's estimated weight was 1,500 pounds, off for rendering. The other unlucky beast disappeared.

TOURISTS

A combination of fine spring weather, the Jamestown Festival, and the 350th anniversary of the landing of the first colonists on historic Cape Henry brought crowds of visitors to this tiny Transportation Corps post last week.

Visitors in Virginia for the Jamestown Festival took advantage of the fine weather to tour the historic Cape Henry grounds. Crowds of visitors to this tiny Transportation Corps post last week.

Services Sunday, conducted by the Order of Cape Henry 1607, at the granite cross that marks the site of the first landing, were well attended.

BASEBALL

The Fort Story DUKW's, behind the five-hit pitching of John McPherson, downed the Portsmouth Marines 8-4 in Portsmouth Tuesday, April 23, only to fall before Jimmy Dean and the Norfolk Navy Tars three days later. The Tars capitalized on Story errors to triumph 12-6.

The DUKW's, now sporting a

3 won - 2 lost record in 5th Naval District Interservice League competition, were scheduled to meet Little Creek Naval Amphibious Base and the Norfolk Naval Air Station Flyers in encounters this week. The DUKW's defeated the Flyers, Navy's defending eastern champions, in their season opener 4-4.

Fort Story hitting was one heartening aspect of last week's campaign. The DUKW's collected 9 hits off of Marine pitcher Bob Beebe in their victory, and garnered 10 hits from three Navy pitchers in their losing effort Friday. John Nisco's homer in the sixth inning of the latter contest was the longest Story rap of the day.

The losing pitcher in the Norfolk contest was Richard Kops, who gave up 13 hits and was hampered by 7 DUKW miscues.

CONCLAVE

Fort Story will be host to more than 350 members of the National Sojourners as the organization holds its annual Virginia Regional Conclave here this weekend (May 3-5).

The National Sojourners, a Masonic military group, members among its members many famous military personnel, both active and retired. Expected for the three day conference, to be held here at the Fort Story Officers' Open Mess, in the National President of the Sojourners, Colonel Dallas Knolls, USAF (Ret). Representatives from all 11 Virginia chapters will be on hand for the gathering.

Lakeland Civic League Holds Monthly Meeting

The April meeting of the Lakeland Civic League, Inc., was held at Christ Lutheran Church, Military Highway, on April 20, 1957 at 8:00 P.M.

The President appointed Mrs. Wesley W. Maynard, 8501 Bell Avenue, (LO 3-8711) as Chairman, Nominating Committee in accordance with the provisions contained in Art. III, Section 3 of the By-Laws. At this, the April meeting, two members were named by the President and two members elected by the League. The Nominating Committee report at the May meeting. Nominations may also be made from the floor. ANY member in good standing was eligible to hold office. The Election of Officers will be held at Annual Meeting in June, as specified in 1 (d) of the Charter. The officers to be elected are President, 1st Vice-Pres., 2nd Vice-Pres., Secretary, Treasurer, Chairman and Sergeant-at-Arms. A Board of Directors in addition to the Elected Officers and the Chairman of the Nominating Committee shall consist of members provided for in the Charter. There shall be a Board of Directors, of not more than 16 members nor less than five members.

The MAY meeting will be held on May 15, 1957 at 8:00 P.M., at the Christ Lutheran Church. Mrs. George A. Reif, has arranged an interesting program for this meeting.

Art. VI, Sec. 1 of the By-Laws provides: "The fiscal year of the League shall begin July 1. Dues shall be $1.00 for one person or $1.50 for both husband and wife, annually." (Let's encourage husbands and wives to participate in the coming year.)

The 26 street lights were requested and paid for on April 11. Installation is expected shortly.

Art. II, Sec. 4 provides: "Term: Officers shall serve for one year only, EXCEPT Secretary and Treasurer, who may succeed themselves for one additional term. Give serious consideration to the forthcoming election and continue your personal effort to perpetuate the work of the League. There is much to be accomplished in the next few months and to our mutual benefit."

The Treasurer has indicated that he will be subject to official

Permanent Plan GI Insurance
Of the 5 million W. W. II veterans holding GI insurance policies, more than 3 million are still holding term insurance, a type of coverage which gets more expensive the older they become.

The longer they wait to convert to a permanent plan, the greater the costs. One of these days they may find it too expensive to convert to a permanent plan. The remedy is to convert to permanent insurance while they are still young enough to benefit from low rates, which will never increase as time goes on. W. W. II veterans are close to the inevitable line that marks middle age. If the insurance a W. W. II veteran carries is term insurance, the older he gets the more it will cost him to pay his premiums - each 5 year term the premium goes up.

At age 40 term insurance for 10 thousand dollars costs $8.50 a month. At 45 it jumps to $9.90, at 50 it goes up to $12.70, and at 60 the cost is $26 for the same coverage.

It does cost more at the beginning to convert to permanent insurance but permanent policy premiums never advance one cent higher than at the time of converting. There are extra values too, such as the right to borrow after the permanent plan has been in effect one year. In addition to the borrowing privilege, the accumulated cash reserve can be used for paid-up insurance, extended term insurance, or for cash surrender.

Take tip from the W. W. II veteran who converted his GI insurance early. He now has it all paid up, or is in position to quit paying at any time and still have a substantial part of it paid up for the rest of his life.

EDITORIAL SPEAKING

Bond Issue May 16

The Circuit Court of Princess Anne County has set May 16 as the date for the voters of the City of Virginia Beach to express themselves at the polls on a $250,000 bond issue to provide funds to pay off obligations incurred in 1927 when the city issued bonds to cover the financing of the walkway.

A bond issue is necessary to meet this obligation which falls due on July 1 since there was no provision for retirement of the bonds 30 years ago. The matter is actually a refinancing of the 30 year old bond issue.

The bond issue on May 16 will mark the second bond issue to come before the electorate this year. Last month the voters approved a $720,000 bond issue which included in its provision the construction of a convention hall, major improvement to Pacific Avenue and other improvements. This was a new issue and differs in that respect from the bond issue set for vote on May 16.

The May 16 bond issue in the amount of $250,000 will not add to the city's bonded indebtedness, but will place the city in the position of meeting its original 1927 obligation but extending the time in which to retire the bonds.

The original $250,000 bond issue in 1927 should have been issued in serial bonds and a form of retirement should have been planned at that time. Unlike the recent $720,000 bond issue the 1927 issue did not provide for a plan of retirement. All bond issues of recent years have been planned with a debt retirement program. If that had been done in 1927 the May 16 bond issue would not be necessary.

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING

Church Building Boom

Convincing evidence of the interest in religion, in the United States these days is the phenomenal church building boom.

It is startling to learn that more than $2 million is going into religious building construction in the United States every day. That represents 8 per cent of all residential construction.

Up until World War II the year 1926 was considered the greatest church construction year, with $419 million spent. Construction then lagged until after the war (the 1943 total was only $6 million, for example).

By 1947 the total had burgeoned to $126 million. But it is in the Fifties that the pace has really become terrific—$474 million in 1954, $734 million in 1955, and $773 million in 1956. And all this privately subscribed money with no tax revenue involved.

One other significant factor is emerging from the boom in church construction all over the United States. Contemporary architectural styles are more and more winning the preference battle.

Before the last war almost no "contemporary" buildings were constructed by American Protestants. By 1954 about 25 per cent of new churches were of modern design and the figure has now risen to 35 per cent.

In fact, when the National Council of Churches recently selected the 18 most significant churches built in the last 25 years, almost all were of modern design.

Civil Service Advises High School Students To Investigate Opportunities Near Home

Students graduating from high school this year should investigate "near home" opportunities to start careers in the Federal civil service, Stephen P. Ryder, Director of the U. S. Civil Service Commission's Third Regional Office, which serves this area, said today.

"Many graduates interested in careers in Government believe they must seek jobs in Washington, D. C., when in reality there are many opportunities closer to home," Mr. Ryder said. "In every state, there are Federal establishments employing a large number of people. Because of normal employment turnover, many of these agencies are extremely interested in selecting from this year's high school graduates, qualified people to fill job vacancies. Among their recruiting needs are office machine operators, clerks, draftsmen, stenographers, typists, technical aids, trade apprentices, and various jobs in the postal field service. Work experience is not necessary for these positions, which pay from $57 to $66 a week. Qualified applicants will be hired through regular civil service procedures which, incidentally, do not always include a written test."

Mr. Ryder also pointed out that, while there are many employment opportunities in the nation's capital, only about 10 percent of all Federal agencies are there. Except for a comparatively small number of Federal employees in foreign countries and U. S. Territories and possessions, the remainder are stationed throughout the United States. In the four states (Delaware, Maryland, Pennsylvania, and Virginia) in the Commission's Third Region, for example, there is a total of approximately 400 Federal establishments with 358,830 Federal employees, providing a broad field of employment opportunities. He emphasized that within this four state area Federal agencies are located in communities of all sizes, so that in addition to good possibilities of finding suitable employment, the qualified individual also has a good chance to choose the kind of community in which he would like to live, such as Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Wilmington, Baltimore, and Norfolk.

Mr. Ryder emphasized that persons who take Federal employment receive many job benefits, including paid vacation time and generous sick leave. The employee is offered low-cost group life insurance protection and he receives liberal retirement benefits. Promotional opportunities are good and, in addition, the nature of the work is vital and challenging.

Mr. Ryder said that many job opportunities also exist for qualified college graduates. He pointed out that in the Third Civil Service Region, college level people are hired in the following types of positions: Technical Librarian, Chemist, Physicist, Metallurgist, Electronic Scientist, Mathematician, Nurse, Engineer, Accountant (including Internal Revenue Agent), Illustrator, Aeronautical Sciences Editor, Technologist, Statistician, Psychologist, General Investigator, Recreation, Claims Examining, Organization and Methods Examining, Position Commodity Industry Analyst, Property and Stock Control, Employee Relations, Procurement, Salary and Wage Administration, Training Administration and Instruction, Contract Specialist, Construction, Education and Training Information, General Finance, Production Specialist, Preservation and Packing, Fiscal Assistant, and General Supply.

Additional information about Federal job opportunities in the Third Region, Mr. Ryder said, can be obtained by addressing an inquiry to the Third U. S. Civil Service Region, Customhouse, Philadelphia 6, Pennsylvania, or consulting Mr. Ansell, Civil Service Representative, at the Va. Beach Post Office.

Check Washability When Buying Fabrics

For women who sew, the early months of the year mean it's time to choose fabrics for their spring and summer wardrobes.

To be practical as well as chic, textile experts at American Institute of Laundering, research and educational center for the professional laundry industry, caution that seamstresses should be just as particular in the selection of fabric as they are in choosing a pattern and turning a fine seam. Hasty and unwise purchases can too easily result in shrunken, faded or discolored garments.

Because warm-weather wearing apparel will be laundered more frequently, washability standards should serve as a guiding factor in purchasing materials. Shoppers are advised to check the label on the bolt before making a purchase. These labels often carry the same information concerning shrinkage, colorfastness and laundering precautions which is available on hangtags of ready-made garments. However, certain terms, such as the word, "pre-shrunk," can be misleading, according to the A.I.L. technicians. Unless the manufacturer's specifications of maximum percent of shrinkage are listed, then "pre-shrunk" is not an absolute guarantee of non-shrinkage. One to two percent shrinkage is ordinary and acceptable. But, the percentage is not given, any amount of shrinkage may be expected.

When buying printed or striped cotton, search for the fabric which has the pattern woven into the material. If buying an ordinary printed fabric, check the back side to see whether the dye has penetrated through. Such fabrics are generally more colorfast than those which merely display surface prints.

White cotton fabrics sometimes have excess starch stings, which is a filler that gives body to loosely woven material. However, after laundering, when the sizing is washed out, the material becomes limp. To check for sizing, rub the material between the fingers. If a white powder appears, the material has too much sizing.

Certain white fabrics labeled, "crease resistant," should not be treated with chlorine bleach.

5000 Witnesses To Cape Henry Landing Friday

History was repeated last Friday afternoon when more than 5000 persons witnessed the "Cape Henry Story" at Seashore State park, the pageant that paid tribute to the first English settlers in America.

The pageant was written and directed by Byron Hatfield and included in its cast were members of the Virginia Beach Little Theatre.

The day was warm and clear and those who witnessed the drama were well rewarded. They viewed, many for the first time, the three small ships, the Susan Constant, Godspeed and Discovery.

Hatfield portrayed the English settlers very much like history has recorded the historic landing at Cape Henry. Captain John Smith was present as were other notable personalities of the original party who landed in 1607.

The United States Navy lent a helping hand to the affair with the band of the Commander-in-Chief, U.S. Atlantic Fleet playing appropriate music. The band started off with "Trumpet Voluntary," the official musical motif of the Jamestown Festival.

The Azalea queen, Lady Carey Coke, was presented by State Senator Edward L. Breeden, Jr. The Right Reverend Henry Knox Sherrill, presiding bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, delivered the principal message.

Virginia's Governor Thomas B. Stanley also spoke to the crowd who had come to see an enactment of the scene that took place many years ago.

Van Patten Dies Suddenly Wed.

F. A. Van Patten, 60, of Virginia Beach, died suddenly Wednesday afternoon while playing golf at the Princess Anne Country Club.

The factory finish on these fabrics will hold the chlorine. Because of this, damage may occur when the fabrics are pressed.

Though cotton still remains the all-around summer favorite, any fabrics are becoming more popular. Bureaus of nylon, Orion, Dacron, Dynel, Acrilan or Vicara should remember that these fabrics may require special care. For example, crystal acetate is often brittle. It may split or crack during sewing and the seams may pull apart easily during laundering. Many of the synthetics are susceptible to damage when they come in contact with high temperatures. They should be pressed at a low temperature.

Other materials which may require special handling are the creased fabrics and novelty materials such as the type on which the pattern is floored. A.I.L. technicians advise shoppers not to gamble when in doubt about a wash selection will result in a more practical and pleasing garment.

Scouts Lend Hand In Easter Event

When next Easter rolls around, some Chesapeake Beach Girl Scouts will still be remembering this year's egg hunt. A final check-up revealed that they had wrapped and heaped hide 1,100 eggs and that over 100 children had taken part in the hunt on Easter Monday sponsored by the Chesapeake Beach Woman's Club. Held in the adjoining yards of Mrs. E. A. Hudson and Mrs. W. B. Meekins on Lake Joyce, the hunt proved one of the most successful ever staged by the club. Children of the community now look forward to this annual event, in which prizes were won this year by Karen George, Christine Webber and Robert Martin.

Mrs. C. G. Falson was chairman in charge, assisted by Mrs. Meekins, Mrs. F. Harrington, Mrs. E. M. George and Mrs. R. E. Myer-hoffer.

The Carolina story could very well have been the Virginia Beach story if it had not been for the City and its civic leaders taking action during the late 1940's. As a result it can be said that Virginia Beach has arrested its erosion problem and now has the finest and beach in its history.

Virginia and Virginia Beach did something about its erosion problem and is a fine example of what cooperation and teamwork can accomplish, even in the face of Mother Nature.

A total of 116,631 Indian students, six to eight years old, were enrolled in public, private and mission schools in the U. S. and Alaska in 1955. This was an increase of almost 11 per cent over 1954.

Winners Announced Piano Recording

Local winners in the 1957 Biennial piano recording festival, sponsored by the National Guild of Piano Teachers, in which during the year 49,168 piano pupils from coast to coast have participated, were announced this week from national headquarters in Austin, Texas. This gigantic piano-playing event culminating in 1957 really was begun a year ago when the national piano-playing auditions were held in 553 music centers of the nation wherein 49,168 budding Rubinstein were entered to gain eligibility to send recordings of their playing for judgement against all throughout the country who qualified.

The principal rewards are first rating gold medals for all making 90 per cent or above, honorable mention medals for those achieving 80 per cent to 85 per cent and citation for courage medals for those falling below 85 per cent. Of the first rating gold medal winners the upper one-fourth (25 per cent) who rated highest are receiving cash prizes that range from $750 to $5, in all $97 cash prize checks totaling $16,000.

In 1930 the five largest U. S. cities were: New York (which had 123,700 people), Philadelphia (then a close second with 122,800) and three much smaller also-rans—Baltimore, Boston, New Orleans. In the 1950 census the top five were New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Los Angeles and Detroit.

Twelve Ships of Atlantic Amphib Force in Review June 12th

The headquarters of Admiral Jerald Wright, USN, Commander in Chief, U. S. Atlantic Fleet, announced today that 12 ships of the Atlantic Fleet Amphibious Force are scheduled to participate in the International Naval Review, in Hampton Roads June 12.

Heading the group will be the 5,500-ton amphibious command ship, USS PODDINO the flagship of Vice Admiral L. S. Rubin, USN, Commander Amphibious Force, U. S. Atlantic Fleet.

Other ships scheduled for the review include the attack transport USS CAMBERIA, flagship of Captain B. E. Lewellen, USN, Commander Transport Amphibious Squadron EIGHT; the attack cargo ship USS OGLETHORPE; the task landing ship USS PORT MANDAY, USS FLYMOUTH, ROCK and USS DONNER; the high speed transports USS LLOYD and USS BASSETT; and the tank landing ship USS WASHOE COUNTY, USS WASHINGTON CO., USS WESTCHESTER COUNTY and USS TALBOT COUNTY.

Several of these amphibious ships will also participate in a landing demonstration, one of the many events which will occur during Fleet Week, June 8-17. Naval and U. S. Marine forces will stage the demonstration at Camp Pendleton, Va., on June 14. The exercise will be witnessed by some 800 Royal Canadian Mounted Police and Royal Canadian Naval cadets as part of their summer training. The general public will also be invited.

The addition of the amphibious vessels to the list of U. S. ships scheduled for the review has brought the total to over 50, and present indications are that about 50 foreign nations will also send ships.

In addition to the amphibious ships, Admiral Wright has announced that four U. S. aircraft carriers, two battleships, two guided missile cruisers, three heavy cruisers and 25 destroyers—type ships have been scheduled for the review. These include the USS SARATOGA, second of the 60,000-ton FORRESTAL class attack carriers.

The International Naval Review first in U. S. waters in 50 years, is under the immediate direction of Vice Admiral Charles Welborn, Jr., USN, Commander SECOND Fleet.

position of such records he must show a legitimate purpose to be served thereby."

"I do not see in Section 58-910" the judge wrote, "any intention expressed by the legislature that any taxpayer has the absolute right to inspect all records at any time and for any purpose that suits him. Indeed, if this were the case, any taxpayer or taxpayer with improper or irresponsible motives could paralyze the functioning of the office of the treasurer by arbitrarily insisting upon the exhibition of the treasurer records to the prejudice of the work to be legitimately carried on in his office."

The judge also said that the statute in question did not unequivocally state that the records shall be open to inspection, but rather states that the records shall be kept ready for inspection.

"I am therefore of the opinion and so hold," the judge concluded, "that the petition for mandamus filed in this case is defective in that it does not set forth any legitimate purpose."

Little League
Held Saturday

The Princess Anne Little League held its second practice on Saturday, April 27th at Carey Field. Approximately 185 new boys have registered. Saturday, May 4th, will be the last day new registrations can be accepted. Practice hours are set for 9 a. m. for eight and nine-year-olds and 1 p. m. for 10, 11 and 12 year olds. Boys must check in at each practice.

Many fund-raising projects have been held to pay for the erection of flood lights. At present 8'x10' signs are being painted around the back fence and a candy sale is scheduled for this month.

The next meeting of the Princess Anne Little League will be held on Wednesday, May 8th, at 8 p. m. in the Lynnhaven Civic Hall. All parents are urged to attend.

Babe Ruth League to Meet
Wednesday

The Virginia Beach Babe Ruth League will hold its first meeting of the year next Wednesday night, May 8th at 8 p. m. at the Virginia Beach High School. B. M. Stanton, the first president of the league, has called the meeting for the purpose of electing officers and making plans for the 1957 season.

The Babe Ruth League got off to a wonderful start last year, and even greater interest is expected this year. Boys 13, 14 and 15 years old are eligible to play Babe Ruth baseball, if born between September 1, 1941 and Sept. 1, 1944. Parents of boys this age are especially requested to attend the meeting. The meeting will be for adults only, and all men interested in Babe Ruth baseball, whether as umpire, manager, coach, or league official, whether a father or not, are requested to attend this meeting. Stanton stated that the program this year will include activities for the mothers, and both mothers and fathers of eligible boys should be present at the meeting.

Other officers of the league for the first year, are John A. Tucker, vice president; and Miles L. Chapell, secretary-treasurer.

In 1955, Little League Baseball got started at Virginia Beach. Babe Ruth commenced in 1956 for those boys who graduated the previous year from Little League; and this year, the American Legion League will begin for those boys ages 16, 17 and 18.

All adults having an interest in Babe Ruth baseball, are requested to attend the meeting next Wednesday night. Spring practice for the boys will commence shortly after the organizational meeting. It is hoped that league play will begin around June 10th.

Clean - Up Poster Contest Judging
Completed by Garden Club Council

Judging of "Clean-up" posters submitted by area school children in the contest sponsored by the Council of Garden Clubs of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County is completed.

Members of the judging team appointed by the Virginia Beach Art Association were Mrs. M. B. Walker, Mrs. Alice Cranberry Parker and Mrs. John R. Anderson.

Members of the Clean-up Committee who filled their station wagons with the posters and took them to the judges exclaimed over the number of entries and stated flatly that they were glad not to have to choose between them. "As a matter of fact," Mrs. Walker said after the judging, "it was even difficult for us. So many of the posters showed talent that making a final choice took a good deal of time."

"The main yardstick in judging a poster in this contest was its effectiveness as a poster," Mrs. Walker added. They are to be used later all over Virginia Beach in connection with the Clean-up Campaign. Many posters had artistic merit but did not get the message across as effectively as others.

Winners of $5 awards were:
Group 1 (composed of grades 1, 2, and 3 all schools included), Wayne Simmons, third grade, W. T. Cooke School.

Group 2 (composed of grades 4, 5, and 6, all schools included), Michelle Charbonnet, sixth grade, W. T. Cooke School.

Group 3 (high school), Claudy Tucker, ninth grade, Virginia Beach High School.

Two theater tickets were offered for the winner in each grade of every school. Winners of theater tickets in W. T. Cooke School:

Second grade, Gail Granger; honorable mention, Stuart Bass.

Fourth grade, Chris Hudgins.

Sixth grade, Shirley Slagle; honorable mention, Elaine Zegan, Steve Tolsted, Connie Medas and Harvey Heckman.

Winners of theater tickets in Everett School: First grade, Susan Staley. Second grade, Andrea Potter. Third grade, Richard Hayward; honorable mention, Linda de Leon and Muffy Fulton.

Winners of theater tickets in Friends' School: Second grade, Pamela Fuller; honorable mention, Ron Bowley and Judy Broughton. Third grade, Christine Brown.

In Linkhorn School only the first grades competed in the poster contest although all grades competed in the essay contest also sponsored by the Council of Garden Clubs. Winners of the essay contest will be announced within the week. In Linkhorn School theatre tickets were awarded for the collective effort of Miss Johnson's class, first grade.

Are you
as wise
as you were in '47?

If you hold U. S. Series E Savings Bonds that mature this month you can give yourself a pat on the back for the wise buy you made. For every three dollars you invested in 1947, you have four dollars now. (And, had you spent that money 10 years ago, chances are whatever you bought would have been long since worn out.)

Today you can be even smarter. All you do is just hold onto those Bonds. Keep them for another ten years and you'll get $1.80 for every dollar you put into them. For example, a Bond you bought for $37.50 will pay you back $67.34! And the best part of it is you don't have to do anything but keep your Bonds. No papers to sign. Not even a visit to the bank is necessary.

Remember this, too! Savings Bonds are one of the safest investments you can make. Your principal is guaranteed safe up to any amount—and your rate of interest is guaranteed sure—by the United States Government.

So keep the Savings Bonds you have now and add to them either through Payroll Savings or by buying Bonds where you regularly bank.

Every Savings Bond you paid $75 for

By virtue of the terms of a certain deed of trust dated February 21, 1956, and recorded in the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Princess Anne County, Virginia, in Deed Book 444 at page 202, the undersigned Trustee, having been notified of default in the payment of the said debt therein secured, and having been requested by the creditors thereby secured, and having been requested by the creditors thereby secured, will offer for sale, at Public Auction, to the highest bidder in cash, in front of the City Hall of Virginia Beach, Virginia Beach, Virginia, on Friday, May 3, 1957, at 9:00 a.m. the following property, to-wit:

All of those certain lots, pieces or parcels of land, with the buildings and improvements thereon, situate, lying and being in the City of Virginia Beach, the State of Virginia, more particularly described as follows:

All of those two certain lots known as Lots 19 and 20 in Block 4, as shown upon Map Number one, the property of Pine Wood Park, Inc., made by J. H. Millholland, C. E., said plat being dated February 1926, and being recorded in Map Book 7, at page 132 in the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of Princess Anne County; reference being made to said plat for more particular description and location of the said land.

TERMS:
Cash. The successful bidder will be required to deposit ten percent (10%) of his bid at the time the property is knocked down to him, with the balance to be paid within ten days. Sale to be subject to all liens standing against the property.

VIRGINIA:
IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF PRINCESS ANNE COUNTY ON THE 16th DAY OF APRIL, 1957.
RE: CITY OF VIRGINIA BEACH, VIRGINIA, BONDS.
ORDER.

There having been presented to this Court a certified copy of the ordinance of the City of Virginia Beach, Virginia, entitled:

"AN ORDINANCE AUTHORIZING THE ISSUANCE, SUBJECT TO THE ELECTION HEREIN PROVIDED FOR, OF TWO HUNDRED FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS ($250,000.00) BONDS OF THE CITY OF VIRGINIA BEACH, VIRGINIA, FOR THE PURPOSE OF PROVIDING FUNDS FOR THE REPAYMENT OF TWO HUNDRED FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS ($250,000.00) BONDS OF THE CITY OF VIRGINIA BEACH, VIRGINIA, DATED JULY 1ST, 1927, AND BECOMING DUE JULY 1ST, 1957."

ON CONSIDERATION WHEREOF, it is adjudged and ordered that the proper election officers of the City of Virginia Beach, Virginia, take steps and prepare such means as may be necessary to submit to the qualified voters of said City at a special election to be held on the 18th day of May, 1957, the question whether bonds of said City shall be issued for the purposes specified in said Ordinance.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk of this Court post a copy of this Order not less than ten (10) days prior to said election at each voting place in the City of Virginia Beach, Virginia, and publish a copy of this Order once in the Virginia Beach Sun-News at least ten (10) days prior to said election, such posting and publication to constitute proper notice of said election.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION
The object of this suit is for the payment of delinquent taxes the following property, to-wit:

All of the following property, situated at Woodland, Princess Anne County, Virginia, and described on the Plat of Woodland, which said plat is duly of record in the Office of the Circuit Court of Princess Anne County, Virginia, in Map Book 7, page 96, as Lots Three (3) and Four (4) in Block 6, with improvements thereon, reference is made to the aforesaid plat for all dimensions of said lots.

An affidavit having been made and filed that the last known post office address of W. A. Shultice is Norfolk, Virginia, and that due diligence has been used by and on behalf of the complainant to ascertain in what County or Corporation the said W. A. Shultice is, without effect; and that there are or may be parties interested in the subject matter of this suit whose names are unknown and who may be more fully described as the consort of W. A. Shultice, if he be married; the heirs and devisees of the said W. A. Shultice, if he be dead; the consorts of any of said unknown heirs or devisees who are married; and any other persons who may have an interest in the subject matter of this suit whose names are unknown.

It is Ordered that the said W. A. Shultice and parties unknown do appear within ten days after due publication hereof and do what is necessary to protect their interests. It is further Ordered that this notice be published in the Virginia Beach Sun-News, a newspaper having general circulation in this City, once a week for two successive weeks.

Lieutenant Glidden, who is stationed at Kaneohe MCAS, is the son of Mrs. Burt R. Glidden of Lancaster, Pa.

Phi Beta Kappa

Miss Marion Elizabeth Hobek, above, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Hobek, of Virginia Beach, has been named to Phi Beta Kappa at the University of North Carolina. Miss Hobek is a senior at the University and has maintained a scholastic average of 94.50 during four years of college work. She is also a member of Phi Alpha Theta, national honorary historical society.

Sinks-Thompson Vows Exchanged

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Ann Sinks, of Virginia Beach, and Robert Norwood Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Nelson Thompson, Sr., of Norfolk, took place last Saturday at 4:30 p. m. at Fort Story Post Chapel, First Lt. William W. Owen, USA, (Ch.C.) performed the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by Leonidous B. Bateman of Norfolk. She wore a floor-length gown of chantilly lace and tulle over satin, made with a scalloped sobrina neckline, long lace sleeves and a basque bodice. The applied lace and tulle skirt ended in a chapel length train. Her finger-tip length veil was arranged in a cup of tulle and blue pearls. Her only ornament was a single strand pearl choker. She carried a white Bible topped with orchids, French carnations and streamers.

Miss Pearl Modlin of Virginia Beach was maid of honor. She wore a floor length, powder blue crystalettte gown, fashioned with a portrait neckline, full gathered skirt and a bow with streamers which fell to the hemline. She wore a matching picture hat and carried a cascade bouquet of pink carnations with a blue center and blue streamers.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Leonidous B. Bateman and Mrs. Carroll Hatchell Jr., sisters of the bridegroom. They wore gowns of pastel pink crystallettte and matching picture hats, styled like that of the honor attendant. They carried cascade bouquets of blue carnations with pink centers and pink streamers. All attendants wore a single strand of pearl chokers.

Paul Nelson Thompson was best man for his son. The groomsmen were Carroll Hatchell Jr. and Maurice E. Thompson, brother of the bridegroom, all of Norfolk. After the ceremony, a reception was held at the Non-commissioned Officers Club. Later the couple left for a wedding trip to Florida and upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will make their home on 16th Street, Virginia Beach.

Pontiac Takes Over Leadership in Field

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Pontiac has taken over leadership on sales for the medium priced field in Pontiac's Washington Zone, according to H. C. Theis, Zone Manager.

His statement is based on the latest registration figures compiled through February by a national statistical organization. The area covered is the District of Columbia, most of Maryland, Virginia, and sections of West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

"It has been a nip and tuck race in the medium priced field," Mr. Theis said, "with 11 makes of cars competing for the business so we are particularly pleased that Pontiac is out in front."

Apricot Pie Boasts of Few Calories

Calling all dieters: Here's the pie you may have been dreaming about! It's mouth-watering to look at, heavenly to eat, and most important, low, low in calories.

Make this luscious Apricot Glace Pie according to our special dieter's recipe, and you'll cut 64 unnecessary calories from every serving. The secret is a simple one. Instead of sweetening the pie with sugar, we've used the non-calorie sweetener, Sucaryl. This sweetener gives the pie a natural sugar-like taste, yet doesn't add a single calorie.

Learn how to be a calorie-cutting cook, and you'll be able to indulge in all sorts of delectable desserts. With the help of this non-calorie sweetener, it's easy to whittle calories from all of your cooking and baking.

Apricot Glace Pie

1 1/2 teaspoons unflavored gelatin
2 tablespoons cold water
1 cup dietetic apricot preserves
1/2 cup sherry
1 teaspoon Sucaryl solution or 5 tablets, crushed
Pinch of salt
2 1/2-pound cans dietetic apricots
1 8-inch baked pie shell

Soften gelatin in cold water. Combine preserves, sherry, Sucaryl and salt; bring to a boil. Remove from heat and stir in gelatin until dissolved. Cool until mixture begins to set. Drain apricots and place in pie shell, rounded side up. Cover with glaze. Let stand until set.

Makes 6 servings. Each serving, not including pastry, contains 78 CALORIES; 1.5 grams protein; .06 gram fat; 15.0 grams carbohydrate. If made with sugar, each serving would contain 142 CALORIES.

It seems that Calories have become quite a problem to many of us. Surely if they are causing you much concern - you'll be glad to have recipes for desserts that you'll enjoy but are low in calories.

A luscious dessert is a grand climax to a good meal and the Apricot Glace Pie sounds mighty good.

I have found Sucaryl, the non-nutritive sweetener the answer to my calorie counting. This sweetener contains no calories & is good in any recipe in which you'll need sugar. It's such a help to those on a diabetic or reducing diet.

When Abbott Laboratories sent me a sample of Sucaryl & some of their Kitchen tested recipes - I tried them & am happy to share the recipes with you. You'll find the equivalencies of Sucaryl & sugar on both the bottle of tablets & liquid solution of Sucaryl, and have no trouble in using it in the recipes. Here they are!

Apple Betty
10 Sucaryl tablets or 1 1/2 teaspoon solution
1/2 cup water
2 tablespoons lemon juice
2 cups soft coarse bread crumbs (2 slices bread)
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon salt
4 medium apples, sliced thin
Mix or dissolve Sucaryl with water & lemon juice. Toss together bread crumbs, cinnamon and salt until well mixed. Spread about 1/2 of crumbs in greased (butter or margarine) 1 1/2 quart casserole; cover with half of the apple slices. Add layer of crumbs; add remaining apple slices; finish with layer of crumbs. Spoon Sucaryl mixture over top layer. Cover; bake in moderate oven (375°) 30 minutes. Remove cover; continue baking 30 - 35 minutes longer - Serve warm or cold.

Baked Custard
10 Sucaryl tablets
2 cups skim milk
2 eggs
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla

Nutmeg - as desired
Crush Sucaryl tablets; dissolve in 2 tablespoons of milk. Scald remaining milk in top of double boiler over simmering water. Beat eggs until frothy. Stir in salt, vanilla & dissolved Sucaryl tablets. Add hot milk & mix well. Strain into individual custard cups (greased with butter or margarine). Sprinkle with nutmeg. Set cups in pan of hot water, having water within 1/2 inch of top of cups. Bake in Slow oven (300°) 1 hour or until knife inserted comes out clean. Serve cold.

Spiced Fruit Compote
1 No. 2 unsweetened peach halves
1 No. 2 can unsweetened fruit cocktail
1 tablespoon Sucaryl Solution or 24 tablets
8 whole cloves
1 tablespoon broken stick cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
Drain peach halves & fruit cocktail - saving liquid. Arrange 1 or 2 peach halves in each dessert dish. Top with fruit cocktail. Mix Sucaryl & combined liquids in saucepan - add spices; simmer 15 minutes. Strain. Cool pour over fruits; chill.

Surely hope you'll enjoy using Sucaryl as much as I do. Bye-bye now—

A 600-mile area on the eastern seaboard from Portland, Maine, to Norfolk, Va., contains one-fifth of the nation's population, according to recent Yale University research.

Vepco Awarded Annual Citation

The Virginia Electric and Power Company was awarded a citation for meritorious achievement in the field of management-shareholder relations for the third consecutive year, H. A. Hitch, vice-president, announced today.

The award is given annually by the United Shareholders of America, a non-profit organization of shareholders in American businesses.

The award was presented to coincide with the annual meeting of stockholders of Vepco.

The citation, presented for "encouraging participation in American corporate ownership," was awarded to Vepco in 1956 and in 1955, Hitch said.

BELLWIS & COMPANY, CINCINNATI, OHIO, DISTRICTED BY NATIONAL DISTILLERS PRODUCTS COMPANY - STRAIGHT BOURBON WHISKY - 40 PROOF

Era of Young People Re-Lived in Warner's 'The Spirit of St. Louis' On Sale by the Jamestown Corp.

"The Spirit of St. Louis," a dramatization of Charles A. Lindbergh's historic transatlantic flight, premieres May 3 at the Beach Theatre after almost two years in the making.

In CinemaScope and Warner-Color, the Leland Hayward-Billy Wilder production for Warner Bros. is based on the Pulitzer Prize book by Lindbergh, who spent more than 14 years in preparing his fantastic adventure story for publication.

With James Stewart in the starring role, the picture was filmed over half the world on a location tour that took the company almost 20,000 miles for air and ground shots. It tells the story of the young Lindbergh's daring flight, alone and non-stop, from New York to Paris in 1927, an achievement that opened up the skyways for modern aviation.

The company filmed scenes in New York, New England, Nova Scotia, Newfoundland, France, England, Ireland, Italy, Spain, Egypt, and Greenland. Exact replicas of the famous Lindbergh monoplane were built especially for the production and flown on Lindbergh's route.

JAMES STEWART

For Stewart, the role of Lindbergh is a high spot in his distinguished career. A civilian and World War II flier himself, he was especially qualified to enact the man who has been called the world's greatest, and certainly most famous, aviator.

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. — Advance orders for reserved seat tickets to "The Founders," Paul Green's new outdoor drama of Jamestown, are being accepted by the play's producers, the Jamestown Corporation.

In a colorful and wooded setting at the Cove Amphitheatre here "The Founders" will be premiered May 13 and will continue performances at 3:30 p.m. each afternoon, except Mondays, through October 19.

Reserved seat tickets may be purchased for $3 for center sections and $2.50 for side seats. General admission tickets will be sold only at the Matoonka Lake box office on the day of each performance. Special prices for organized student and youth groups also will be offered.

All requests for tickets, said A. R. Matthews, executive director of the Jamestown Corporation, must be accompanied by checks or money orders in full. Reservation requests should be sent to "The Founders," Box 488, Williamsburg, Va.

The drama will be presented in a new 1,744 seat amphitheatre which is nearing completion on the wooded banks of Matoonka Lake, adjacent to the site of "The Common Glory." Expansions and improvements on the parking lot and other visitor accommodations are being made to handle the expected thousands of viewers to the two plays.

"The Founders," in an unprecedented daytime showing for outdoor dramatic productions, sketches the life of the Jamestown colonists from their landing in 1607 to the deadly Indian massacre of 1622. More than 500 authentically styled costumes and movable sets of James Forté including the church and settlers' huts — are being fashioned for the historic drama.

Mail order reservations for both "The Founders" and "The Common Glory" have been received by the ticket office since early January. "The Glory" is scheduled for a June 26 opening.

Boaters Asked To Reduce Speed Near Docks

Yachting members of the Cavalier Yacht & Country Club have issued a request to local boatmen not to operate their boats close to the Club docks at high speeds.

According to Wm. A. Cox, Jr., commodore of the Club, there have already been several near accidents as the result of outboards buzzing the dock at speeds between 20 and 30 miles per hour.

"It is not alone a question of collision with larger boats entering or leaving the marina, said Mr. Cox, but at this season of the year painters working from floats are constantly endangered by the wake of speeding boats. Often such boats are towing one or two skiers, who dash by within a few feet of the dock."

"While we have found it necessary to prohibit skiing from the club dock, we have no objection to this sport; or to high speed on the water, provided it is done where it is not a nuisance or danger to others. However, during the warm days of the past few weeks we have noted a number of instances which come well within the bounds of reckless operation, and we ask the cooperation of our fellow boatmen in correcting this situation."

In addition to Federal regulations, the waters of Lynnhaven and Broad Bays are covered by County ordinances which in general prohibit the following:

1. Reckless operation of a power boat or operation under the influence of liquor.
2. Operation of a power boat without exhaust hoses effectively dampened, or outboard engines without mufflers.
3. Anchoring in the Narrows Channel or the Canal and exceeding a speed of six miles per hour in these areas.

Contract for Equipment Let By School Group

The award of several equipment contracts was announced Tuesday by the County School Board here.

Frank W. Cox, division superintendent of county schools said the EmRhee Motor Co. of Virginia Beach has been awarded a contract for 12 chassis for 66 passenger buses and the Wilkins Chevrolet Co. on the Military Highway has been awarded a contract for five 60 passenger chassis.

Contracts for school bus bodies for these chassis were awarded to the Baker Equipment Co. and the Smith-Moore Body Co. both of Richmond. Baker will provide five bodies and the other company will supply five.

The board, accepting the low bid on equipment groups advertised for the Woodstock and Larrymore Elementary schools, also awarded contracts to the Flowers School Equipment Co. the Virginia School Equipment Co. and J. J. Pence Co., all of Richmond, and the Southern Desk Co. of Hickory, N. C.

Bids for the equipment were opened at a recent meeting of the County School Board but the awarding was postponed until all the bids could be tabulated.

Galilee Church Dedication Scene

Metered Taxi Rates Here Beginning May 15

Taxicab rates locally will be charged on a metered basis beginning May 15, according to Melvin Dodson, president and manager of the Beach Taxi Service.

The change from the flat rate system to metered service is being effected through an ordinance recently enacted by the Virginia Beach City Council.

According to Dodson the new metered rates will conform to those charged in other cities where meters are employed. The Beach Taxi Service operates a fleet of 10 to 14 cabs in the City of Virginia Beach, Dodson said.

Hardy to Address Group Saving and Loan League In State Meeting Here

Representative Porter Hardy will deliver the principal address Saturday night at the Cavalier Club to delegates attending the 34th annual conference of the Virginia Savings, Building and Loan League. The three-day conference opens today.

Hardy will speak at the group's Saturday night banquet which will be the final event on the conference program. The topic of his address was not announced.

A spokesman for the local savings and loan companies said today that the meeting is the first to be held in the Tidewater area since 1948. He pointed out that with the current tight money market and the discussion of home mortgages, the meeting will probably be among the most important.

Included among the speakers at the convention are Norman Strunk, executive vice-president of the national league, and J. V. Brittle, president of the North Carolina League.

J. Moyer Sink, president of the Federal Home Loan Bank, will address the morning session of the conference Saturday.

Saturday afternoon, a panel discussion, pointing up problems of the league members in a tight money period, will include Guy Beale, secretary of Home Federal Savings and Loan Assn. here.

Mosquito Work On Golf Course Has Dual Aim

An original mosquito control project has developed into a beautification project as well as to the benefit of mosquito control and private property owners.

The project is the dredging work now underway on the fourth hole of the Princess Anne Country Club making that a water hole. In addition to the work now underway on the golf course property the project will also extend to adjoining property in and around the golf course property.

Mosquito control officials spearheaded the project with the first thought to eliminate a continuing mosquito breeding problem in the area. Now it develops that the project will be two-fold in nature. It will lessen the mosquito breeding area and will beautify the adjoining property.

Sewing Winners Are Announced

Winners of the senior dressmaking contest which was held last Thursday May 2nd, at 8 PM was announced by Mr. Deans, manager of the local Singer Sewing Center located on 31st Street, and are as follows: First place, Mrs. S. R. Brockenbrough of 8704 Ocean Ave., Virginia Beach. Mrs. Brockenbrough was presented with a $30. matched scissor set and also the chance to compete in the regional judging to be held in Washington, D. C.

Second place went to Mrs. Armando Fleury de Barros of 912 Mayflower apartments. Third place was Mrs. W. T. Etheridge, 405 Louisa Ave., Oceana, Va. Judges were: Mrs. Georgia Allen of Needle Craft Shop, Va. Beach, Mrs. Trilzie Dees, of Jaffe's and Mrs. J. M. Cook, Home Economics teacher - Virginia Beach High School.

Cooke Pre-School Clinic Set May 10

On May 10 all children that will enter W. T. Cooke School (city) in the first grade next Fall Term are invited to the pre-school clinic. The hours will be from 1-2 for those whose surnames begin with A-M and from 2-3 for those whose names run from M to Z.

A physician will give the children a check up for the physical examination that is necessary before a child can enter school. This is free of charge and will be held at the Health Center behind City Hall.

P. A. Women's Club Wins Top State Award

The Woman's Club of Princess Anne County won first place in the Penny Art Award in the State at the recent annual convention of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs in Roanoke.

In addition to the top art award Mrs. Foster Gilbert of the Princess Anne Club won top award in the lyric poetry competition in the State. Mrs. Earl DuVal received second place in the same event.

The group heard an address by Mrs. Robert I. C. Prout, of Wakefield, Michigan, president of the general federation whose topic was "Knowledge is Power."

Virginia's Attorney General J. Lindsay Almond, Jr. also addressed the more than 800 delegates to the convention.

The Virginia Federation, in connection with the State Highway Safety Program, adopted a recommendation asking Governor Stanley to call a conference to study the possibility of driver education classes in schools throughout the State.

The convention closed with a pageant "Leaves of Gold" depicting the 50 year history of the Virginia Federation. Each District contributed a skill to the program. Mrs. Aubrey N. Holmes, past President of the Woman's Club of Princess Anne County, played the part of Isabelle in "In Retrospect," which was written by Mrs. L. B. Parsons of the Norfolk Woman's Club.

Baking Contest To Be Featured In Ruritan Fair

On Friday afternoon, May 17th, students of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne High Schools will vie in a new kind of contest — a cake and pie baking contest, with judging and prizes to be awarded. This will be another interesting feature at the Ruritan County Festival at Aldo Farms on May 17th, 18th and 19th.

On Saturday at 2:00 P. M. prizes will be awarded ladies of the Home Demonstration clubs of the county for their fine cakes and pies, and at 4:00 P. M. on Saturday there will be a fashion show and judging of cloths made by Home Demonstration members. Mrs. Lucille Clark will act as commentator for this show, and plans and arrangements have been made by committee members Mrs. Louise Murden, Mrs. Helen Spence and Mrs. Inez Garrett.

There will also be prizes awarded outstanding entries in a Hobbies Show at the Festival including projects in knitting, painting, crocheting, quilting and ceramics. Delicious, homemade pies and cakes will be on sale at the Home-Makers booth on all three days.

Any persons desiring to enter the contests should contact Mrs. Louise Murden, phone Virginia Beach 285-W-2.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

Due to the continuous rise in newspaper, cost of labor and other items necessary to produce a newspaper we will be forced at the conclusion of our present subscription campaign, May 25, to discontinue all subscribers who are in arrears. We do not want you to miss a single issue of The Virginia Beach Sun-News, therefore we suggest that you contact your favorite contestant and they will be pleased to take your renewal. You will be doing yourself a favor and also help someone to win the Ford to be awarded May 25.

New Marine Air Reserve Policy

The Marine Air Reserve has just announced a policy whereby men between 17 and 21 years of age without prior service may contract for a military obligation with only six months of active duty. This policy formerly applied only to men between 17 and 18½ years of age.

The six months of active duty would be served upon completion of school or upon reaching 20 years of age, whichever occurs first. The remaining portion of the obligation, part of which may be met prior to going to active duty, is accomplished by attending at least 90 per cent of a reserve squadron training.

Headquarters for the Marine Air Reserve in this area is the Marine Air Reserve Training Detachment, building LP-74, Norfolk, Virginia Naval Air Station. Lt. Col. R. Lou, USMC, Commanding Officer of the Training Detachment said, men accepted under the new program will accompany the Norfolk squadron to the Marine Corps Air Station, El Toro, California for summer maneuvers in August.

IT'S GETTING HOT

Contestants in the Sun-News subscription campaign left no stone unturned last week for the biggest Extra votes. As predicted more subscriptions were sold last week than the preceding. ALL the candidates reported Saturday except one or two and showed more enthusiasm than at any stage of the contest.

When contestants were told Monday of an Extra $50.00 this week, which is the last extra cash prize that will be offered, they were pleased with another chance for extra money. This EXTRA $50.00 will be paid to the candidate having NEW subscriptions for the week. The more determined workers will exceed their previous results. TIME IS SHORT!!

PUBLIC INTERESTED

An extra prize of $50 in cash will be added to the list of awards in the Sun-News Automobile and Cash Offer campaign as an inducement for extra effort by contestants for NEW subscriptions.

The extra cash award will go to the contestant who turns in the new subscriptions for the period from Monday, May 6, through Saturday, May 11th.

The award will be presented on or before the end of the campaign. Any one of the contestants can win the bonus offer in addition to any of the regular awards or commissions.

From all over the territory covered by the Sun-News Eastern continues to grow as the big "Auto and Cash Offer" campaign hits an unusual high. Proof is that many candidates say that their friends have been calling them in the past week and subscribing or renewing their subscriptions.

The Sun-News wishes to thank the public for its interest and each candidate appreciates the cooperation.

Those who are going to subscribe now or renew subscriptions will do their favorite contestants a lot of good by placing votes this week which it will score toward the extra $50 offered for this week only. Place votes today by calling your favorite and subscribing.

The active worker will receive extra votes, too. Twenty dollars worth of subscriptions entitles the candidate to a "chub wagon" good for 140,000 extra votes. Those who are working for one of the biggest cash awards or the automobile cannot afford to lose any time during the next week.

Contestants can win the extra $50 this week and at the same time pile up votes on each "club" of subscriptions sold to win top prize, a 1957 Ford, at the end of the campaign. The Ford is at EmRhee Motors at Virginia Beach.

Father of Local Man Dies Suddenly

William Brydges, 76, of Lynnhaven, father of Richard G. Brydges, of Virginia Beach, died suddenly Tuesday morning at his home in Lynnhaven. Mr. Brydges died of a heart attack.

His son went immediately to Lynnhaven. Funeral arrangements are still pending.

Beach Fun at the Surf Club

Lesley Savage, who will manage both the Surf Club (background) and Theatre-Go-Round here this year is about to get a ducking from two Navy "frogmen," who are spending their off-duty Saturdays getting the club in readiness for its May 30 opening. The Frogmen are Seaman Richard Ray and Boatswain Mate 1c Joe DiMartino.

NOW is the Time

SUBSCRIPTION WORKERS AFTER EXTRA $50.00 THIS WEEK

All eyes are on the extra $50.00... yes, the Sun-News makes it possible for one of the contestants listed below to have an extra $50.00. Vote for your favorite contestant this week and help your candidate win the extra $50.00. Subscribe NOW for several years and save time and bother of renewing each year.

Candidates who were slow in starting in this campaign are now overshadowing some who started earlier. Let this be a warning. Competition is growing daily and those of you who are sitting on your laurels expecting to win had better take heed and go to work. The Ford has not been won yet!

Beach Civitans to Attend Washington Convention

Civilians of the Virginia Beach club will send a strong delegation to the annual convention of the Chesapeake district of Civitan International in Washington this week end. The convention is expected to name Gov.-Elect C. Ramsey S. Crutts of Norfolk as governor of the district which includes five states, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland and Virginia, and the District of Columbia.

A new governor-elect will be chosen and seven lieutenant governors will be elected to lead activities in the district's seven subordinate zones. The Arlington club will be host for the sessions, but business meetings and social affairs will be held at the Hotel Washington in the national capital.

The convention will open Friday afternoon at one with the annual golf tournament, to be played off at the Washington Golf and Country Club in Arlington. Only other event of the opening day will be a meeting of the board of directors of the district's Foundation for Mentally Retarded and Handicapped Children.

Convention business sessions will open at the Hotel Washington at nine Saturday morning, running through the day with a break for the convention luncheon. For ladies accompanying visiting Civilians the Arlington Civinettes will hold a luncheon and fashion show at the nearby Willard hotel. The convention business sessions will be held at four to allow for the hospitality hour at six and the following banquet and dancing party.

Leading speaker at the banquet, always the major event of Civitan conventions, will be International President Luther R. Medlin of Greensboro, N.C. A number of other prominent figures in the international organization.

A Sunday morning business session will see the annual election and will be followed by the installation luncheon. Besides the conferring of their new offices on elected leaders for the 1957-58 year, the luncheon will see the presentation of awards and citations to Civilians who have been outstanding in district activities of the past year and of prizes and trophies to clubs which have led in various phases of the Civitan program.

Marketing Quotas on 1958 Wheat Announced

Marketing quotas have been proclaimed by the Secretary of Agriculture on the 1958 crop of wheat. This is the fifth successive proclamation of wheat quotas which have been in effect since the 1954 crop and is required by a wheat supply that is 56 percent above the marketing quota level.

A national acreage allotment has been set for the next year's crop at 55 million acres, the minimum permitted by law. Out of this Virginia gets a 1958 wheat allotment of 259,436. This is about 3 percent more than the 1957 allotment of 252,514 acres. County allotments, which will be announced shortly, will not necessarily reflect this amount of increase since each county allotment will be based on the amount of acreage seeded for the production of wheat during the 10-year period 1947-56.

Before wheat marketing quotas can be put into effect next year they must have approval by at least two-thirds of the wheat producers voting in a referendum. The referendum date has been set for June 20, 1957. Last year growers approved marketing quotas for the 1957 wheat crop by an 87 percent majority. Growers who will have more than 15 acres of wheat for harvest for grain in 1958 will be eligible to vote in the referendum.

If quotas are approved, the national average support on the 1958 wheat crop to eligible growers in the 36-State commercial area will not be less than $1.76 per bushel which is 75 percent of parity. As in the past wheat programs, farmers who exceed their farm allotments will be subject to marketing quota penalties if they have more than 15 acres of wheat for harvest. The penalty rate to be announced will be equal to 45 percent of the parity price per bushel of wheat on May 1, 1958.

News of Interest to Farmers

LATE BLIGHT REPORTS RECEIVED FROM SOUTH

Late blight of tomatoes is prevalent in many southern states, and Virginia growers are warned that unless they apply chemicals for control this year they may lose their crop.

S. B. Fenne, plant pathologist at VPI, says reports coming through the disease-forecasting service indicate that a potential epidemic is in the making, and there is need for extreme precaution and control measures.

In many ways, Fenne says, the current late blight situation in the south resembles that of April, 1946, when blight became disastrous for tomato growers before the season ended.

The pathologist's advice to commercial growers and home gardeners in Virginia is to be ready to spray when the plants are set. Zineb, maneb and copper are still recommended chemicals. However, Fenne stresses that these chemicals will prevent, not cure, and should be applied before the disease attacks the crop.

Fenne also reports that blue mold of tobacco is continuing to spread in nearby states, with severe damage in untreated beds. Here, again, Virginia growers are advised to start spraying with ferbam or zineb as soon as the plants are about the size of a dime. Also reported was severe damage from anthracnose in untreated tobacco plant beds in North Carolina. The controls for anthracnose are the same as for blue mold, so it's easy to prevent both at the same time.

EVENING SPEAKERS NAMED FOR INSTITUTE AT VPI

Two principle evening speakers for this year's Institute of Rural Affairs have been named by W. H. Daughtrey, associate director of the VPI Agricultural Extension Service.

Dr. Neise Todhunter, dean of the school of home economics at the University of Alabama, will address the opening session of the institute, Tuesday evening, July 30.

The Wednesday evening speaker will be Wheeler McMillan, vice president, Farm Journal, Philadelphia. His topic will be "Agriculture's Tomorrow."

Again this year a feature of the closing session, Thursday evening, August 1, will be the presentation of VPI's certificates of merit to two individuals judged to have made the most outstanding contributions to Virginia agriculture. Nominations for the awards are being received now through faculty members at VPI. Daughtrey held the program this year, as in past years, will feature three concurrent day-time sections - one devoted primarily to youth, the others to agriculture and family living. Speakers for those sections will be announced later.

Departmental tours and programs will be featured in the afternoons.

The Virginia Federation of Home Demonstration Clubs and the Virginia Agriculture Conference Board have scheduled their annual meetings to precede the Institute on Tuesday, July 30.

The Institute annually draws around 1,500 farmers, homemakers and professional agricultural workers from throughout Virginia. It is sponsored by the Agricultural Extension Service.

VPI RELEASES SEVERAL FILMS

Several films, made in Virginia and showing various phases of agriculture in the state, have been released by the VPI motion picture unit and are available for showing to farm groups.

They are: "Alfalfa Pest Control" - gives instructions on control and damage of four alfalfa insect pests.

"Artificial Insemination" - the complete story of artificial breeding in dairy herd improvement.

"Beyond the Meter" - the story of the conversion of an inadequate and unsafe farm wiring system to a safe, economical system.

"Fencing for the Future" - showing the construction of a long-lasting, easily built farm fence.

"Forage Planning for Profit" - showing how proper planning will enable Virginia farmers to approach the desired goal of growing all their livestock feed.

"4-H Electric Congress and Conservation Camp" - scenes at the 1955 conservation camp to Camp Farrar and the 4-H Electric in Richmond.

"4-H Parade" - scenes of a six-county parade planned and executed by 4-H clubs in observance of National 4-H Club Week.

"4-H Short Course" - shows activities during a State Short Course when over 1,000 club members convene on the VPI campus.

"Golden Roots" - based on research on sweet potatoes.

"Make Me a Molecule" - shows how organic chemists create new products.

"More from Ore" - shows how researchers find new ways to reclaim natural resource.

"Save with Treated Posts" - shows two methods of treating fence posts.

"Tomato Pests" - shows major tomato pests and sources of control information.

"Trees for Virginia" - depicts the value, methods of practices of reforestation.

"Virginia Mucosal Disease" - documents clinical and pathological features of this important disease. Primarily for professionals.

EUROPE CORN BORER CAUSES HEAVY LOSS

When Virginia's farmers picked up the tab for meals of the European corn borer last year, they were again reminded of the pest's huge and costly appetite.

This hungry dinner guest cost them about $719,000 - based on the loss of almost 550,000 bushels of corn grown for grain, explain

VPI entomologists who cite a recent U. S. Department of Agriculture report.

In the nation, the corn borer cost about $119,500,000 - based on the loss of almost 98,000,000 bushels of corn grown for grain.

Losses to the borer in 1956 were high - about 3% of the total crop but well under the 155,000,000 bushels destroyed by the pest in 1955. Last year's losses in bushels were the third highest since the all-time high of 314,000,000 bushels in 1949.

Federal-state surveys made last fall point to fewer borers in United States corn fields, in 1957 than last year, but there are still enough to be a real threat. The north central states showed reduced numbers of this costly corn insect, while increased numbers showed up in eastern states.

It's hard to calculate what corn borers cost the nation each year. They don't just eat the yield of crops. They also lower the quality, increase production and harvest-

Old Fashion Fair Coming Our Way

A real old fashioned fair, somewhat like the county fairs of years gone by is in the making for Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach. It is the Princess Anne Ruritan Club-sponsored "County Festival" which is scheduled for May 17, 18 and 19 at the Aldo Farm in Princess Anne County.

The "County Festival," according to advance information, should bring back memories of the typical county fairs that used to be in vogue throughout the country. It will have many features of the fair and there will be added features that should prove highly amusing.

The Ruritan have been hard at work on the "County Festival" project and we believe that anyone attending this affair will be well rewarded in entertainment and in education.

There will be judging in agriculture products, in livestock, in dressmaking, in cooking, and there will be a horsemanship exhibition. But, besides the judging in numerous categories there will be special events, such as foot races, bag races, mule races, greased pig contest and calf roping.

We are certain the "County Festival" will be three big days of fun and frolic. The Festival reminds us of a State Fair that had the motto - "It's Your Fair, So Be There." The saying holds good for the Ruritan "County Festival." It may not be a fair in name but it is your fair, so be there on May 17, 18 and 19.

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING

Give Toll TV A Fair Tryout

On the long-debated subject of toll TV, the Federal Communications Commission is reported to be getting ready to hand down some sort of decision.

We hope the F. C. C. has sufficient backbone to come right out and say that subscription television ought to have a fair trial. This thing has been studied long enough; there is no use going into another set of public hearings. Either there is a market for pay TV or there isn't, and the only way of finding out is to put the idea to the hard economic test.

The proponents of the pay system are willing to risk their dollars on the theory that they can present a brand of TV without commercials for which a sufficiently remunerative number of customers will pay a moderate fee. Well, maybe so and maybe not. The opponents contend that the public would not gain any real benefits, that free TV already offers everything that toll TV could present. In short, television as it now exists does not want any new competition for fear of risking its investment. But if sponsored TV is as good as the established networks contend, then surely they should be able to withstand any challenge in the free marketplace of competition.

It is hard to see the merit of the argument that toll TV is culturally and economically spurious, and anyway that there is no room for the two systems to exist side by side. How does anybody know? The fact is that nobody does. The barrage of arguments and counter-arguments is obviously based in self-interest, with the public left out.

We say that the F. C. C. ought to let the people decide. The only way is to give toll TV a reasonable tryout. It will be apparent very quickly whether the idea has any merit. But the point is that the rivalry can be settled in the public interest only by the fair test of competition. The F. C. C.'s duty is not to foreclose the issue. The audience, after all, must have the last say.

County Council Church Women To Meet Friday

The Princess Anne Council of Church Women will meet for a service of worship on May Fellowship Day, Friday, May 10th, at 11 a. m., at Lynnhaven Presbyterian Church.

Luncheon will be served after the meeting by the women's organization of the church. All women are invited to stay.

Mrs. B. M. Woodward of Bay-side, is president of Princess Anne Council of Church Women. Mrs. Melvin Gilbert is president of Lynnhaven Presbyterian organization.

Mrs. Finley Paxton is chairman of May Fellowship Day. Committee is composed of Mrs. John D. Wood of Princess Anne and Mrs. George W. Boush of London Bridge.

D.A.R. Meeting

The Princess Anne County Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, met Saturday at the home of Mrs. Bryan Dudley, Back Bay.

Devotions were given by Mrs. R. B. Carter, chaplain. The Pledge of Allegiance and the American's Creed was said in unison by the members and the Star Spangled Banner sung.

The Regent welcomed all members and guests. Mrs. August Bannan gave a report of the state conference at Roanoke.

Mrs. Ruth Ford reported on the C. A. R. tour and picnic at Fort Monroe given by the chapter recently.

The Regent stated that the chapter was 100 per cent on the state and national honor roll and thanked all who helped make it possible.

The program was given by Mrs. E. Guy Robertson with her essay, "Maths to Mamie," which had won the gold award of the recent Woman's Club Federation contest. Slides were shown of scenes of the "Ladies of the White House" and scenes of Continental and Memorial Hall, D. A. R. buildings

Princess Anne Girl Scout District Committee Meets

The Princess Anne Girl Scout District Committee met at the Virginia Beach Community House on Friday with Mrs. Glenn Dill and Mrs. Sterling Farley as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Glenn Dill, Juliet Low chairman, reported $47.01 received so far with three neighbors to hear from.

Mrs. Henry Heddy, chairman, asked all interested adult committee members and leaders to join the mosquito net mending party at Camp Metoka on May 20th beginning at 10:30 a. m. Bring your mosquito net, needle and thread, cold or hot drinks will be available.

Applications for six First Class Badges and one Curved Bar were approved.

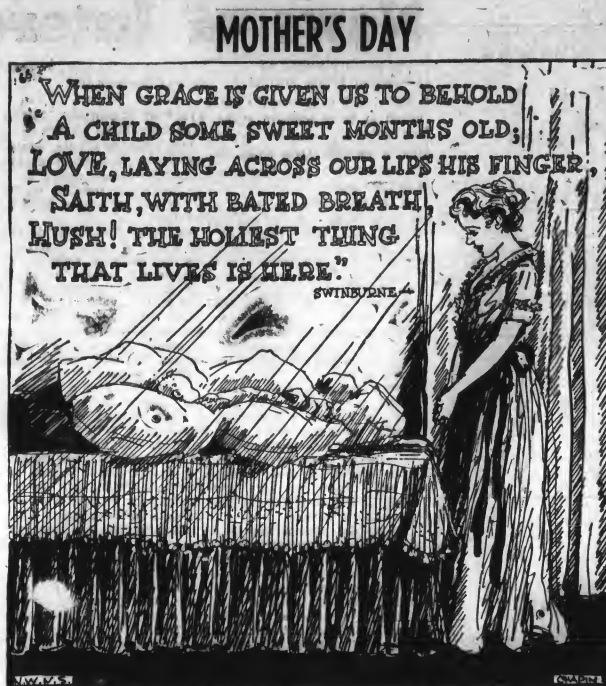

Plans for a district wide fall rally were approved and a tentative date for the middle of November was suggested.

Mrs. Hugh Miller, district director, reported the Oceana Neighbor busy with the skating badge, lunch court of awards and many smaller projects. The Camp Linkhorn film was shown and many Oceana leaders will be on the Day Camp Linkhorn Staff this summer.

Mrs. William Phillips, of Kempsville, reported in the absence of Mrs. J. D. Gregory. The Brownies are busy with Fly-Up Ceremonies, having learned the leaderfoot requirements of Girl Scouting. Many troops have had breakfast cooks and hikes at the Anasie Gardens. Troops busy making Mother's Day gifts and pot luck suppers.

Mrs. John Gross, Diamond Springs, reported big plans for and other places of interest in Washington.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses assisted by her charming daughter. Guests of the chapter included Mrs. Harry Mauek Jr. of Council Bluffs, Iowa and Mrs. Sue Powlson, sister and mother of the Regent, Mrs. D. Y. Malbon. Mrs. Bryan Dudley's mother was also a guest. Twenty members and guests enjoyed a delightful afternoon.

Mr. Albin R. Mailhes,

Virginia Beach Sun-News,

Virginia Beach, Virginia

Dear Mr. Mailhes:

We want to thank you and your staff for the fine publicity which your newspaper gave us for our tour of Historic Garden Week, in Princess Anne this year.

We know our success each year is due in large measure to the support and help our newspapers give us, and we appreciate your cooperation more than we can say.

With kindest regards, I am

Very truly yours,

Mrs. J. Davis Reed, Jr.

"May Day" is the Air Force's emergency call and our Governor's Highway Safety Committee says it can also be an emergency call for all of us who walk and drive. Last May in Virginia saw no less than 76 traffic deaths. This toll was exceeded by only three other months, two of which were November and December - always high death months.

Summer is coming fast and our Governor's Highway Safety Committee warns us that kids are flocking out of doors. Please watch for them when you drive and make every effort to avoid them. It might not be your fault if you hit one but you'll regret it the rest of your life.

National Little League

All boys between the ages of 8 thru 12 years who like to play baseball are invited to come out next Saturday morning, May 11th, 9 a. m., at the Virginia Beach High School to register. In fact, this is the final date for registration in order to get on one of the National Little League teams.

All of the boys will be out for practice Saturday morning and Coulter Tillett, president of the Virginia Beach National Little League will be there to meet all the prospective players. A boy who desires to register may do so any time between now and Saturday morning with Mr. B. E. Gregory of 26th Street.

There is not only room for a lot of boys on the teams but they are needed for vacancies that exist. So you boys are urged to join up with the Little League for a summer of fun playing America's greatest game, baseball. Remember though, in order to do so you must be registered on or before Saturday, May 11th.

List of Essay Contest Award Winners Given

Judging is over in the essay contest sponsored by the Council of Garden Clubs of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County which drew entries from schools in the area served by the Council. Title of the essay was "How I can Make my Community More Beautiful."

Members of their Youth Subcommittee after hours of preliminary judging met Monday at the Linkhorn Park home of Mrs. William Rueger, Chairman, to select the best from among hundreds of entries. Committee members were: Mrs. Goodwin S. Jordan, Mrs. W. B. Meredith, Mrs. George F. Pittard, Mrs. Richard F. Welton and Mrs. Rueger.

"I never had a harder job," Mrs. Rueger told us. "How can you judge the better of two first grade essays when one says, 'I will clean up my yard, I will clean up my street, I will clean up my city, I will clean up the world, and the other says, 'I like to keep my community clean. I love you?'"

Winners of $5.00 awards are: Group 1 (composed of grades 1, 2 and 3, all schools included), Robert Blackford, third grade, W. T. Cooke School; Group 2 (composed of grades 4 and 5, all schools included), Paul de Witt, fourth grade, Linkhorn Park School; Group 3 (composed of grades 6 and 7, all schools included), Louise Charbonnet, sixth grade, W. T. Cooke School.

A prize of a theatre ticket is to be awarded to winners in each grade of every school. Theatre ticket winners in W. T. Cooke School are: Georgeanna Hurst, Robert Blackford, Ruth Robeson, Ralph Herron and Louise Charbonnet.

In Everett School: Hartwell Cooke, Ben Sessom, Gayanne Fox, Vienne Fitzgerald and Bill Gailard.

In Friends' School: Tom Batchelder and Ann Hughes.

In Linkhorn Park School: Miss Reynolds' room's class effort, Frances Gilliam, Jane Schaefer, Paul deWitt, Linda Masterson, Michaela Hill and Tony Buxton.

In Virginia Beach High School, Katherine Peck.

Through inadvertence the following names were left out of the list of winners in the Council's poster contest:

In Everett School: Fifth grade: Caroline Brush; Fourth grade: Walter Cooke, honorable mention, Bill Gailard.

Impact of the effort to "clean up Virginia Beach" is being felt throughout the County. One mother reported to a Committee member with some chagrin that she was restrained from tossing an unlit cigarette stub from her car window by her daughter, aged seven. "And why not? We're well out of Virginia Beach," she admitted she told her child.

"Well, Mother," the girl answered with measured patience, "if they see us throwing things at them they'll come back and throw things at us and that will not make our Community more beautiful."

Mrs. John R. Anderson Elected Head of Council of Garden Club

Mrs. John R. Anderson of Birdneck Ponds, former president of the Cardinal Garden Club, was elected president of the Council of Garden Clubs of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County at the annual meeting of the Council held Wednesday in the Board Room of the Bank of Virginia Beach. She will succeed Mrs. Gilmore Lee Tibbott who has served for six years.

Others elected at the meeting were Mrs. Everett Martin of the Birdneck Garden Club, recording secretary and Mrs. E. M. Hardy of the Virginia Beach Garden Club, treasurer. Other officers who will serve, but whose terms of office do not expire this year are Mrs. R. J. Tibbott, president of the Princess Anne Garden Club, Vice-President and Mrs. Lief, Anderson of the Cavalier Garden Club, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Tibbott, in turning the gavel over to Mrs. Anderson, gave in detail a resume of the accomplishments of the Council during the past six years. She pointed out that the Laskin Road project is completed and that the cleanup campaign is receiving excellent cooperation from both the county and city. The Council of Garden Clubs is directly responsible for the beautification of Atlantic Avenue. The project, started in 1952, an unsightly tract with a railroad track along the entire parkway and a catch-all for debris and trash, was completed in 1954 and now is a beautified parkway, a four mile strip, with over 10,000 bushes, plants and shrubs. The Council also beautified the area at the end of 31st Street and Atlantic Avenue and worked with the Sealack Community Center in beautifying their property.

It was also pointed out that many gardens along Atlantic Avenue have been improved in keeping with parkway and that a degree of interest had been noted in the growth of civic pride.

The Council voted to go on record as being in favor of the regulation of bill-board advertising on the 41,000 mile National Super Highway Network.

In retiring as president, Mrs. Tibbott thanked every member of the Council for their cooperation during her regime and stated that she stood willing to be of assistance to the Council in any future project they may undertake. Mrs. Anderson, the new president, said that all existing committee chairmen remain in their present post until next fall.

Education Center at Ft. Story to Sponsor Display at Beach

PORT STORY -- During Armed Forces Week, May 13 through 18, the U. S. Army Education Center at Ft. Story will sponsor a display in the windows of the Esquire Men's Shop, 1818 Atlantic Ave., Virginia Beach. The display, prepared by PFC Joseph Jigets of the Center, will explain the mission and functions of the Education Center.

Many of the Army's enlisted men did not have a chance in civilian life to complete their education. For those who have not attained an eighth grade education the Center offers on-duty classes. In addition to lower grade courses, the Education Center offers off-duty classes in academic and vocational subjects, designed to permit soldiers to work towards a high school diploma.

Men with an urge to delve into higher education can take courses from colleges and universities throughout the country, through the U. S. Armed Forces Institute (USAFI). The Education Center operates a USAFI Registration and Testing Center. Besides offering courses, the Center counsels men on educational matters, familiarizing them with their opportunities for furthering their education in the service.

In charge of the Center is Fort Story's Education Officer, First Lt. Gerald H. Lynch, a graduate of Spring Hill College, Mobile, Ala. He is assisted by PFC Roger Thordarson, who received his degree from Whitman College, Walla Walla, Wash.; and PFC Jigets, who was graduated from Morgan State College, Baltimore, Md. Mrs. Martha Sudatta, who received her baccalaureate degree from Blue Mountain College, Mississippi, and her Masters in Education from the University of Mississippi, is a civilian teacher in the Center.

"April flowers bring May showers" but our Governor's Highway Safety Committee says the beginning of pleasant weather in April also paves the way for May traffic deaths. Travel is up and drivers are inattentive. More pedestrians are also afoot. These are some reasons why 76 people died in Virginia traffic last May.

V. B. High School Chorus Presents Spring Program

The Virginia Beach High School Chorus, under the direction of J. William Miller, will present their annual Spring Festival of Music program on Friday evening, May 10th, at 8:15 in the high school auditorium. Tickets may be purchased from any member of the chorus for 50 cents.

The Senior Chorus is composed of 60 voices and has taken selections from such well-known composers as Rogers and Hammerstein, Kern, and Humperdinck. They will be accompanied at the piano by Linda Williamson. There will also be music by the ninth grade Girls Chorus, a group of nine girls called the Teen Tones, and the Boys Quartet.

CHIEF'S VISIT — Major General Paul F. Yount, Chief of the U. S. Army Transportation Corps, inspected amphibious training at Fort Story Monday, May 6.

General Yount, who was accompanied by Major General Rush B. Lincoln, Jr., Commanding General of the U. S. Army Transportation Command, was particularly concerned with training for Operation 572, presently being conducted here.

Operation 572 is a joint Army-Navy mission to resupply Arctic stations of the DEW Line. This is the third consecutive year that Transportation Corps troops from Fort Story and their parent post, Fort Eustis, have participated in the operation.

Current training at Fort Story provides participating personnel with an opportunity to handle cargo under conditions much like they will encounter in the Arctic.

During his inspection tour, General Yount observed activities on the beach and aboard the cargo ships anchored offshore that are supporting the DEW Line training.

PARADE

A regiment of 550 officers and men from Fort Story traveled to Fort Eustis last Friday afternoon, May 3, to participate in a garrison retreat review, and brought all the marching honors back to this Cape Henry Post.

The regiment, composed of the 10th and 14th Transportation Battalions reinforced with 80 men from Headquarters Company, 5th TPC "B", and commanded by Lt. Col. Frederick G. Ward, commanding officer of Fort Story and the 5th Transportation Terminal Command "B", was named the best regiment on the field.

The 14th Battalion, commanded by Lt. Col. E. A. P. McCarthy, won the trophy as the best battalion in the parade, which honored Col. Robert A. Cliffe, former Chief of Staff of Fort Eustis and the Transportation Training Command. Colonel Cliffe is departing Fort Eustis for assignment in Japan.

Units from all elements of the TPC were represented in the parade at Eustis. Fort Story is a sub-installation of Fort Eustis and

Everett School Announces Faculty Members

Mrs. Richard Everett, principal of the Everett School, wishes to announce the faculty for the 33rd year of the school, 1957-1958.

Mrs. Margaret Everett Jackson is assistant principal of the school, and the following teachers compose the staff: Mrs. Kitty W. Blosser and Mrs. Joy O'Neil Ross, kindergarten; Mrs. Myrtle J. Bell and Mrs. Marion S. Dean, first grade; Mrs. Alice B. Stellings, second grade; Mrs. Ernestine Scruggs, third grade and Mrs. Evelyn St. Germain, fourth grade. The fifth grade will be under the direct supervision of Mrs. Everett.

French will be taught in all the grades by Mrs. Lawrence B. Wales Jr. Art will also be taught in all grades by Mrs. Elizabeth Bonditch Bennett. The Bristol Hardin School of Music will continue the course of music appreciation which is now being given to all classes by Charles Hardin. Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Cornick, the Bristol Hardin School of Music will continue as music teacher.

The new members of the faculty are Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. Dean and Mrs. Scruggs. Mrs. Bennett is a graduate of Sullins College where she majored in art and she also received an A.B. degree from the University of Pennsylvania. Mrs. Dean is a graduate of the Ilman Training School for Kindergarten and Primary Teachers, University of Pennsylvania; and has attended Columbia University and Pennsylvania State College. Mrs. Scruggs attended Longwood College and has had 20 years experience in teaching primary grades in this area.

P. A. CLUB TO SPONSOR JAMESTOWN CRUISE

Wednesday, June 19, the Princess Anne Country Club will have a sunset and moonlight cruise to Jamestown for members and their guests, with dancing and a box supper.

The next Sunday buffet at the club will be on May 19 from 6:30 to 9 o'clock.

The radar picket destroyer USS Perkins was the first U. S. Navy ship to draw combat pay during the Korean fighting.

RESERVE TRAINING

Fort Story personnel are looking ahead to summer as final plans are being made now for the training of more than 1,900 U. S. Army Reserve Troops here during May, June, July and August.

The Reservists, from 38 units in 12 states, will undergo two weeks active duty training with active Transportation Corps units at Fort Story. In addition to the USAR troops, 450 Reserve Officers Training Corps (ROTC) cadets from colleges and universities in the Second U. S. Army area will get first hand experience in amphibious operations during a five-day stay here in July.

Reserve and ROTC training at Fort Story this summer is coordinated by the Civilian Components Section of the Plans and Training Staff (S-3) of the 5th Transportation Terminal Command "B". The officer in charge of the project is Major William M. Rutledge.

The first eight of the Reserve contingents will arrive here May 26, with 535 officers and men expected to be on hand. Of the Reserve Units slated to train at Fort Story this summer, some will come from nearby Newport News, Va., while others will journey all the way from Maine and Wisconsin for their Active Unit training. The training season will terminate here on the first of September.

RETIRED OFFICERS

The 5th Transportation Terminal Command "B" of Fort Story was host May 6 to retired Army officers from the lower Tidewater area during one of their visits to the post sponsored periodically by the post commander.

Lt. Col. Frederick G. Ward, post commander and commanding officer of the 5th TPC "B", and his staff entertained the visitors as a luncheon at the Officers' Open Mess. After an inspection of amphibious training in the afternoon, which included a ride for the officers in an Army DUKW, the guests concluded their visit with coffee and discussion hour at the Officers Club.

SOJOURNER KLANE

Rabbi Murray Kanter of Norfolk was the main speaker last weekend at the five Tidewater chapters of the National Sojourners of the National Sojourners Regional Conclave of the Masonic military organization.

More than 300 members of the 11 Virginia chapters of the Sojourners were on hand for the annual affair, which was held at the Fort Story Officers' Club on Saturday, May 4th.

Following a luncheon at the club, Brigadier Gen. George O. Van Orden, USMC (Ret.), the regional representative for Virginia, presided over a business meeting. Rabbi Kanter spoke at the evening dinner-dance in the Ballroom of the club.

The host Tidewater chapters were the Cape Henry Chapter, Fort Story; the Hampton Roads Chapter, Norfolk; the Transportation Chapter, Fort Eustis; the Portsmouth Chapter, and the Langley-Fort Monroe Chapter.

Fort Story's popularity as an educational tour site was demonstrated again last week as 38 school children from the Shelton Park School, Bayside, visited the post. This week 140 youngsters from the Princess Anne Training School are slated to visit. The Bristol Hardin School of Music will continue as music teacher.

The new members of the faculty are Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. Dean and Mrs. Scruggs. Mrs. Bennett is a graduate of Sullins College where she majored in art and she also received an A.B. degree from the University of Pennsylvania. Mrs. Dean is a graduate of the Ilman Training School for Kindergarten and Primary Teachers, University of Pennsylvania; and has attended Columbia University and Pennsylvania State College. Mrs. Scruggs attended Longwood College and has had 20 years experience in teaching primary grades in this area.

A view of these historical sites, together with the opportunity to see modern U. S. Army amphibious equipment in operation make Fort Story a fascinating place to visit. Hundreds of people both adults and children, make the tour conducted by members of the Information Services staff each year.

ALLIED OFFICERS

An inspection of U. S. Army amphibious training was conducted by two British Army Officers recently. Brigadier Patrick H. Man, of the British Army Transportation Command, and Brigadier General

Transportation Corps Post, which conducts all of the Army's initial amphibious training. Their escort officers of the tour were Lt. Col. Jerome K. Hostetler and Lt. John P. Miron.

During their tour the Allied Officers witnessed the operation of two mammoth amphibious vehicles developed by the Army. One huge 88-ton (Barge Amphibious, Resupply, Cargo), which can carry up to 100-ton payload, has proved a workhorse in the Arctic, carrying supplies to vital radar sites. The other, the Landing Craft Retriever, saves the government untold dollars by rescuing stranded landing craft which might otherwise be lost.

Another feature of the visit of the two Allied Officers was an explanation and a demonstration of the Army's original swimming truck, the 2½-ton DUKW.

OFFICERS' WIVES CLUB

A presentation of the latest in summer styles and a sassy hat contest added zest to the May luncheon of the Fort Story Officers' Wives Club. The gathering was held last Wednesday, May 1, at the Fort Story Officers' Club.

Members of the Wives' Club and their daughters modeled some of the latest creations for summer wear from the collection of Rose Hall of Lynnhaven, as Mr. Stoddard of Rose Hall narrated the showing.

A flower-bedecked bonnet won for Mrs. George Gratten the award for the prettiest hat in the contest. Mrs. William Schilling's chapeau, sporting a palette and paints, brought her the award for the funniest hat, while the Jamestown ships and a festival pennant adorned a straw skimmer garnered the most original hat prize for Mrs. M. A. Peterson.

Mrs. John Miron's hat, topped with a stuffed animal, won an honorable mention in the contest. The judges for the event were Lt. Marvin Hinken, Lt. Howard Keefe, and Chief Warrant Officer Aaron Isaacs.

Mrs. Herbert K. West, club president, presided over the evening and announced plans for the June pot luck supper.

The models for the fashion show were Mrs. M. A. Peterson and Sue, Mrs. George Gratten, Mrs. James Davison, Mrs. Joyce McCarthy, Mrs. John Miron, Mrs. Freeman H. Buteau, and Mrs. Karl L. Shank.

DUKW'S BASEBALL

The Fort Story DUKW's knocked out a 12 to 9 victory over the Norfolk Naval Air Station Flyers last Saturday, after suffering a decisive defeat, 12-1, earlier in the week at the hands of the Little Creek Gators.

The winning pitcher in Thursday night's game, played under the lights at the Air Station, was John McPherson for the DUKW's. The loser was the Flyers' Jack Armstrong.

The victorious hurler in the game with Little Creek was Zeke Meyer for the Gators. On the mound for the DUKW's was Donald Abbotello.

University Women Sponsor
Creative Writing Project

A Creative Writing project, sponsored by the Virginia Division of the American Association of University Women in co-operation with the Virginia Highlands Festival at Abingdon, is being held again this year. It will culminate with the recognition of the winners, and a panel discussion on the subject, on Creative Writers Day, Thursday, August 8, 1957, at 10:30 a. m. in Abingdon.

The purpose of this competition is to encourage Virginia writers. Manuscripts will be read and commented upon by a screening committee for each category. The leading manuscripts will then be read and judged, with professional criticism, by an eminent person in each field. A certificate of award will be given for first, second, and third places in each category. All residents of Virginia are eligible to submit manuscripts. The categories and persons to whom manuscripts should be sent are as follows:

Poems—Mrs. Howard Fawcett, Jr., 1006 Ferguson Avenue, Newport News.

Short Stories, 5,000 words or under—Mrs. Yare Skalnik, 1607 S. West St., Falls Church.

Short-Short Stories, 1,500 words or under—Mrs. E. L. Painter, Box 131, Orange.

Children's Stories, 5,000 words or under—Mrs. W. H. Dixon, 218 Howland Circle, Danville.

Historical Sketches of Virginia, 5,000 words or under, and Radio Scripts, for 15 or 30 minute programs, and Television Scripts, for 15 or 30 minute programs—Miss Lucy Lee Lancaster, 305 W. Washington, St., Blacksburg.

The writer's name and address must be on the first page of each manuscript. If under 18 the age of the writer should be given. An entry fee of $1 must be enclosed, and also a self-addressed envelope with return postage. Entries must be received by May 15. All entrants are invited to be present at Abingdon on Creative Writers Day, August 8.

Mrs. Charles M. Lovitt, president, Birdneck Point, will be glad to give any further information needed.

Seatack School News

By Kathalla Drake
A Father and Son banquet was held recently in the school cafeteria sponsored by the sixth grade classes under the direction of Mrs. Estelle Robinson and Mrs. Ola Corpew. The Rev. Milton A. Reid, minister of the Mount Olive Baptist Church, was guest speaker. James Hairston represented the P-TA. Echoes were heard from all fathers and the closing remarks were given by the principal, Mrs. E. W. Hairston.

The faculty gave a "Variety Show" at the Seaboard District School April 29th. An appreciative audience witnessed the show with much enthusiasm.

The student body enjoyed their first ball game for the season recently. The visiting team was from the Seaboard District School. We regret so much to say that Seatack lost, but we are only waiting to return the game.

The sixth and seventh graders journeyed to Jamestown and Williamsburg last week to tour the two historical areas. Other classes are planning to take the trip during the month.

Until next week—Kathalla.

Seaboard School News

By Alice Somerville
Hi there, girls and boys, We are now on our last six weeks of the term. I hope you have been studying hard so that you are ready for exams. If you are not quite sure, better start brushing up.

A fashion show was given May 6, featuring the latest fashions in beach, school, sport, church and party attire.

There will be a May Queen contest on May 30. The contestants are Ruby Turner, first grade, Florestine Price, first grade, Brenda Wiggins, first grade, Sarah Winston, second grade, and Sylvia Reid, third grade. The queen will be crowned on May Day.

There will be four classes going to Jamestown Friday. Two divisions of the seventh grade, one division of the fourth grade.

All sections of the first grade are going to City Park Thursday. There was a polio clinic at school last Friday. All together there were 280 children who received their injections. Those receiving theirs for the first time will be given their second next month.

Grade four—Miss V. L. Hawkins will entertain the mothers on Mother's Day, Sunday, May 12th, at 4 p. m. Sponsored by the Blue Jays and the Little Ladies Social Club of the class. They are preparing a program and a tea. Our school choir will participate in the musical festival Thursday, May 2nd, at Seatack Elementary School at 7:30 p. m. Virginia Cooper attended the Azalea Festival.

Until next week—Alice.

Open House at Scott Memorial Parsonage

On Sunday, May 5th, the Rev. and Mrs. F. H. Strickby were hosts to the members and friends of Scott Memorial Methodist Church in Oceana, at open house, following extensive improvement of the parsonage. Assisting the minister and his wife in receiving the guests were members of the parsonage committee.

The parsonage improvements, recently completed, included painting of the exterior, painting of interior walls and woodwork on first floor, new living room furniture, new floor coverings and draperies in living room, dining room and reception hall.

Members of the parsonage committee who supervised the parsonage improvements are: Frank W. Cox, chairman, Mrs. Irvin J. Upson, Mrs. J. E. Winslow, Mrs. George Winslow and Mrs. Leonard Hiteshow.

The brick residence located at 624 Virginia Avenue in Oceana, was built approximately four years ago. With the present improvements it is one of the most attractive parsonages in the Virginia Conference of the Methodist Church.

P. A. Chapter American Red Cross Holds Meet

At a recent meeting of the Regional Blood Committee held at Hampton, Mrs. David H. Batchelder Jr., Blood Program Chairman for the Princess Anne County Chapter, American Red Cross, introduced to the group Miss Anne Price, a senior at the Virginia Beach High School. Miss Price was a representative from the local chapter for Junior Red Cross at the National Convention last year and she attended a Junior Red Cross meeting in Andover, Mass. As president, this year, of the Junior Civitan Club she has led her club in activities connected with the blood program. The following is some of the highlights of Miss Price's speech to this group.

Miss Price said teenagers are a vast source of energy and it is up to the adults to tap this source and guide this energy. Mrs. Batchelder had shown to the Civitan Club, a film which had been most inspiring so they had become interested. In planning their work they were made to feel part of the community and they studied the community. Miss Price explained all of the efforts this group of young people put forth in publicizing the blood program and recruiting donors. This included publicity sheets distributed through the schools, stores, gas stations and door to door. Also, they did much work with the local radio station. They did some newspaper publicity and made many posters for the Bloodmobile visits. Miss Price was most effective in pointing out the blood program is the people's choice and the people's responsibility but is a constant job trying to remind and convince the people of this. The club is planning to make a poll to find out what objections people have to donating blood and then try to overcome these objections through information.

In conclusion, Miss Price told the story of an old man on the mountain and of a young boy who lived down towards the valley. The old man was wise and he spent much time in contemplating the mountains. He was humble in his own opinion of himself. One day he decided he would test the old man in such a way the old man could not give a correct answer. He took a tiny live bird in his hand and went to see the old man. The youth asked him to release the bird or alive and he planned if the old man replied dead, to release the bird to show him it was alive. If the old man said it was alive, he was going to squeeze it quickly and kill it. Before answering the old man seized off at the mountains, looked at the youth, then at the mountains. Finally turning to the boy he said: "Son, it is up to you." Miss Price said, so it was with the youth today. It was up to them to prepare for citizenship and leadership in the future.

County, Beach Teachers Hear College President

Dr. Francis G. Lankford Jr., president of Longwood College Tuesday told the teachers of Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach, at a gathering in Princess Anne High School, "to respect ideas." "There is so much yet to be done in education by persons with ideas, and so much

Berry Time Alters Sale by Leaguers

By Kay Doughtie Sewell
Strawberry time, believe it or not, has changed the plans for a rummage sale sponsored by the Junior League Thriftmobile at Virginia Beach.

The date: Saturday, May 11, from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. The place: corner of Virginia Beach Boulevard and Seacoast Road. The merchandise: Summer clothes (of good quality, in good condition) for adults and children, as well as handbags, jewelry, shoes, trinkets.

"We had planned to have the sale May 18," said Mrs. Ward Cole, committee member. "But the corner has been lent us by Mr. Dan Hux. Strawberries are coming in earlier, so we've had to set our date up earlier, to make way for selling strawberries. The sale is all set now for May 11."

This will be the third such Thriftmobile sale at the Beach. It's the first time that all articles on sale (four dollars is the highest price) will have been contributed entirely by Virginia Beach League members, without help from the Norfolk Thrift Shop.

Men will find suits, sports jackets, extra pants, shirts, ties. Women will find summer dresses, shirts, shorts, bathing suits, in sizes from 7 to 18. And there will be plenty of clothes for infants and children.

Chairman of the project is Mrs. C. C. Hancock. Committee members, in addition to Mrs. Cole, are Mrs. Wynne V. Whidden, Mrs. David Pender III, Mrs. Goodwin S. Jordan, Mrs. James M. Jordan III, Mrs. Burks Withers Jr., Mrs. Joseph Newell, and Mrs. William Henderson.

All proceeds will go toward one of the charitable projects sponsored by the Junior League.

to be done in the world by young people in our classrooms if we stimulate them to be resourceful —to have ideas," Dr. Lankford said.

One doesn't have to be extremely intelligent to have good ideas, but a creative ability is essential. Business has recognized this fact for many years as witnessed by the number of incentives awarded to employees for contributing useful ideas. The General Electric Co., in one year paid its employees an average of over $40,000 a month for their ideas, the educator stated.

There are many problems in education today which must be solved, and creative thinking by teachers and administrative personnel is necessary to the solution of these problems.

To nourish ideas; find time for reflection; have varied experiences; take an active part in seeking solutions to problems; practice disposing of annoyances rather than using them as alibis; and use your ideas before they grow cold, Dr. Lankford advised the group of teachers and school administrators.

Deadline for Entering Livestock Exhibitions At County Festival

It is hoped that anyone who has not already made arrangements to place entries in the livestock exhibition to take place at the Ruritan County Festival and who would like to enter prize beef cattle, sheep, hogs, rabbits or poultry will plan to do so as soon as possible. The deadline for contacting the following committee chairman is May 10th.

Junior exhibitors may phone Mr. Blair Myers at 2095-R Virginia Beach except during a school day when his contact is Princess Anne High School (Norfolk LO 3-7813, Ext. 16).

Senior exhibitors may notify Mr. Jack Malbon, London Bridge, (Phone Va. Beach 3485-W). All livestock will be judged and first, second and third prizes will be awarded.

Miss Cox Elected President of Future Teachers of America

Miss Lorraine Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Cox, of Birdneck Point, has been elected president of the Future Teachers of America Chapter at the College of William and Mary, Williamsburg.

Miss Cox will also serve as secretary and treasurer of the state organization of Future Teachers of America, having been elected to that position at a recent meeting of college chapters held in Richmond. Her term of office in each capacity will be for the school year 1957-58.

New Vet Hospital Opens on Beach Boulevard

The Boulevard Veterinary Hospital, the area's newest, was recently opened for the treatment of large and small animals at 6750 Virginia Beach Blvd. The building is of brick construction and the inside designed and finished for ease of operation and accessibility to all parts. A wide hallway across the entire width separates the front part from the main hospital part, eliminating noises, odors, etc., from the reception room and admittance rooms. There are two separate heating units and complete air conditioning with separate circulation providing continuous clean air and even temperature.

The hospital is fully equipped and staffed to handle all problems and needs in the treatment and care of large and small animals. In addition to ample parking space, the reception room is of size to comfortably accommodate people should there necessarily be a waiting time for complete examination. The admittance, exploratory and examining rooms are private and adjacent to the emergency and surgery room. Pets held for further examination are provided separate stalls for complete isolation. All sick animals are isolated to avoid contagion.

Outside and separate kennels with runways are provided for animals to have their exercise and this is twice a day. A complete sanitary department is used for bathing, grooming and other treatments. An electric dryer is used. Pets may be boarded at reasonable cost.

The hospital is owned and operated by Dr. Ben Y. Ward. Born in Kinston, N. C., on graduating from Rose Hill High School he entered the U. S. Navy as apprentice seaman. He was discharged in 1948 as Chief Pharmacist mate and, in the same year, entered the University of Georgia in the School of Veterinary Medicine. Receiving his degree as Doctor of Veterinary Medicine.

Dr. Ward, with his wife, the former Katherine Gregory, of Moxock, N. C., and two children, make their home in Kempsville. He is a member of the Masons and the Kempsville Lions Club.

The public is invited to visit the hospital. It is located at 6750 Virginia Beach Blvd., some 300 feet west of Davis Corner on the north side feeder road. Built on a plot 160 by 225 feet there is ample parking space. Office hours are from 9 a. m. to 12 noon and 3 to 6 p. m. and by appointment. Phone LO 5-1260. J. L. Barrow, assistant, lives in separate house on the premises and is available for emergency calls after hours.

Hometown News

COCO SOLO, Canal Zone (FHT-NC)—Calvin R. Baines, electrician's mate first class (submarine service) USN, of 316 27th st., Virginia Beach, Va., is aboard the troop carrying submarine USS Sea Lion participating in exercise.

CARIB-EX. The Sea Lion is the only Atlantic Fleet submarine taking part in the operation which is a jointly conducted amphibious landing in the Canal Zone involving units of the Navy, Marine Corps, Army and Air Force.

The exercise started on Apr. 17 and will continue for the remainder of the month.

Our Governor's Highway Safety Committee says if we follow three simple rules, we can all be good drivers. First, exercise the self-control you use in other phases of life. Second, use ordinary common sense. Third, obey the Golden Rule. It's just as simple as that but 40,000 people died in the Nation's traffic last year.

Flowers, Lawns Require Attention

Beautiful flowers and weed-free lawns don't just happen through luck. They are the result of care and the use of proper chemicals as well as garden tools according to a spokesman for the Edgewood Nursery. There are many ways to ease the work and have more enjoyment from your flowers, garden and lawn. For those in doubt it is good to seek advice and help in taking care of the needs in this field.

Among the timely suggestions are control of insects and diseases of roses. The Du Pont Rose Spray-Duster, an easy-to-use push button applicator, has been very popular and effective. This sprays both a liquid insecticidal and a dry fungicidal dust, and leaves a slight visible residue to show areas sprayed. It is safe on other outdoor flowers and ornamentals—controls both insects and diseases—black spot, powdery mildew, aphids, red spider mites, Japanese beetles, thrips, leafhoppers and many others.

Dandelion, plantain, wild onion and other common broadleaf weeds are an eye-sore and headache to many homeowners' lawns. A simple and easy to use DuPont Lawn Weed Killer will solve most any need for ridding the lawn of these weeds. To get rid of poison ivy use DuPont "Ammate," a one-treatment spray that will also solve your problem for cleaning out driveways, sidewalks and spots where tough weeds grow. Safe to use around children and pets if used according to directions. An emulsifiable insecticide "DuPont Ahld and Mite Spray" has proved more effective with insects including DDT-resistant flies. Whatever the need you'll likely find it's answer among these.

The visitor to the Edgewood Nursery and Garden Mart will find a wide variety of garden and lawn needs as well as shrubs and trees. They stock all types of garden tools, power lawn mowers and most needed items. Their personnel will gladly help in suggestions for improving and beautifying your premises. Located at 1730 East Little Creek Road, next to Wilder's Drive-In Theatre they are open every day, including Sunday from 9 a. m. until 6 p. m. Inspection is invited or call JU 7-4881 for any information.

"Please do your part - however small - for traffic safety in Virginia," asks our Governor's Highway Safety Committee. There is an old proverb which says, "It is better to light a single candle than to cry out against the darkness." Drive carefully yourself, try to influence others and support local safety movements.

Non-Collision Wreck Kills Man

PRINCESS ANNE—The 25-year old father of two was killed instantly early Sunday morning in a non-collision traffic accident on Rt. 662.

State Police reported that Robert Louis Sward, 25, of 1128 Raff Rd., died in the 2:15 a. m. accident which occurred three and one-half miles east of Norfolk city limits.

Sward, who was operating a 1956 station wagon at the time of the accident, was a Korean War veteran and the husband of Mrs. Lillie Christine Hudgins Sward. A native of Youngstown, Ohio, he had resided in Norfolk for seven years and was a member of the Volunteer Fire Department of Chesapeake Beach.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two daughters, Christine Sward and Teresa Sward; his parents, Ernest Sward of Youngstown, and two brothers, Richard Sward and Ronald Sward, also of Youngstown.

Funeral services were conducted at Hollomon-Brown Funeral Home Tuesday at 11 a. m. Burial was in Forest Lawn Cemetery.

Small budgets love big Fords

You don't have to be rich to enjoy fine-car luxury. The new kind of Ford is America's lowest-priced* big car... yet it offers the beauty, V-8 GO and luxury ride of cars costing far more!

If you love big-car performance you'll love our '57 Ford.

If you love thrift you'll love our '57 Ford. No car ever before has offered such perfect blending of big-car luxury and small-car price.

Once you take the wheel, you'll discover how the "Inner Ford" gives you the kind of ride you have experienced before only in cars costing far more. You'll find its advanced-design chassis and lower center of gravity let it corner as if it were on rails... that its engine is as responsive and nimble as a polo pony. Six or V-8 the going is great!

But even though this Ford handles like an expensive car, it's still priced Ford-low. In fact, model for model right across the board, the 1957 Ford is the lowest priced of the low-price three!

Ford is worth more at trade-in time. And when you go to trade your Ford, you'll find Ford's traditionally high resale value makes it worth more at that time, too.

Why not come in and Action Test this fun-lovin', budget-lovin' Ford? Why not come in and see it today?

The MIXING BOWL..

IT'S Fun TO COOK

By LUCILE CLARK
SUN-NEWS FOOD EDITOR

For the very latest in food fads and fables... for practical, down-to-earth recipes that please both palate and pocketbook, read the "Mixing Bowl" by Lucile Clark each Thursday in the Sun-News.

Hello - there Neighbors! Hope you're all just fine this merry month of May.

Another year has quickly slipped by and here it is almost time for "Mothers Day," again - It is the day set aside, I should say - honoring her. Everyday is "Mother's Day" - for she's always busy looking after her family.

So how about planning a day for her - with all of the meals prepared & served?

Am sure every Mother would appreciate and enjoy such a day.

The American Indians had a name for Nature's sudden bloom in Spring. They called it "Green Fire!" And Spring foods take on Nature's own lavish hues to high-light meals with new charm & freshness.

So lets plan a Spring Bouquet Dinner for mother. Plan it so it will please her eye as well as her taste. Rosy pink ham, golden candied yams, fresh green asparagus, bright red strawberry pie, can you think of a more tempting array of colors? Spring Bouquet Dinner will win many an encore for its garden-fresh flavor harmony.

Feature bread that is just right for this suggested menu, Orange Biscuits. Baked in a round pan, these fruity swirls of flaky biscuit dough stay soft & moist. Serve them warm with butter or margarine. You'll like the tart flavor accent, Orange Biscuits give to Salad luncheons, too.

Youngsters will be delighted to find Banana Cup Cakes for an afternoon snack with a glass of rich cold milk.

The last word in glamorous desserts is Sunny Meringue torte. Two fluffy, golden cake layers are topped with crisp meringue that literally melts in your mouth. Rich, whipped cream with the piquant flavor of mace weaves the layers into a perfect whole. Crown the regal torte with sweetened strawberries. No one will want to resist this delightful sweet treat. And, for a real beauty. Sunny Meringue Torte is a blue-ribbon winner.

Mother is always making cookies to keep that cookie jar filled - why not "turn the tables"? You make Lemon coconut Cookies & fill up the Cookie Jar this time.

Here are the recipes:

Orange Biscuits

4 tablespoons butter or margarine
1/2 teaspoon grated orange rind
1/2 cup sugar
1 tablespoon hot water
2 cups sifted enriched flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup shortening
Juice of 1 orange plus milk to make 1/2 cup

Melt 2 tablespoons of the butter or margarine in a 9-inch round layer pan. Blend orange rind and sugar. Add 1/4 cup of orange-sugar mixture to melted butter or margarine in pan. Blend in water. Set aside while preparing biscuits. Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Cut or rub in shortening until mixture is crumbly. Add orange juice and milk to make a soft dough. Turn out on lightly floured board or pastry cloth and knead gently 30 seconds. Roll out into a rectangle about 10 x 12 inches and about 1/4 inch thick. Melt remaining butter or margarine and brush over top of dough. Sprinkle with remaining orange sugar. Roll up like jelly roll. Cut into 12 equal portions. Place cut side down on top of sugar mixture in pan. Bake in hot oven (450°F) until browned, about 20 minutes. Makes about 12 biscuits.

"If self-rising flour is used, omit baking powder and salt."

Banana Cup Cake

2 cups sifted enriched flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/4 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup shortening
1 cup sugar
2 eggs, beaten
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
1 teaspoon grated orange rind
1 cup mashed ripe bananas
2 tablespoons milk
1/2 cup chopped nuts

Grease about 18 muffinpan sections, or line with fluted baking cups. Sift together flour, baking powder, soda and salt. Cream together shortening and sugar until light and fluffy. Blend in beaten eggs. Stir in vanilla extract and orange and lemon rinds. Stir flour mixture into creamed mixture alternately with bananas and milk. Fold in nuts. Fill prepared muffin cups about 3/4 full. Bake in moderate oven (350°F) about 25 minutes. Makes about 18 cup cakes.

Sunny Meringue Torte

1/2 cup butter or margarine
1/2 cup sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
3 egg yolks
1 1/2 cups sifted enriched flour
1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup milk

dash salt
1/4 teaspoon white or cider vinegar

3 egg whites
1 cup sugar
1/4 teaspoon ground mace, if desired

1/2 pint whipped cream
Sweetened fresh or frozen strawberries or other fruit

Grease 2 9-inch round layer pans. Cut liners from waxed paper to fit bottoms of pans, leaving 3-inch tabs at opposite sides to make removal of torte layers easy. Smooth liners into bottoms of pans. Cream butter or margarine. Add sugar gradually and continue creaming until mixture is light and fluffy. Blend in vanilla extract. Add egg yolks one at a time and beat well after each addition. Sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. Add to egg mixture alternately with milk. Beat until smooth. Spread batter into prepared pans. Add salt and vinegar to egg whites. Beat until egg whites are stiff and glossy. Gradually add sugar and continue beating until meringue holds a very stiff peak. Spread gently over batter in pans. Bake in moderate oven (350°F) until meringue is lightly browned and crisp, about 40 minutes. Remove from pans to cooling rack. When cool, remove paper from bottom. Place one layer, meringue side up, on cake plate. Sprinkle mace over cream, then whip until stiff. Spread whipped cream over meringue. Cover with second torte layer. Cut into wedges and serve topped with fruit. Makes 12 servings.

Lemon Coconut Cookies

1 cup butter or margarine
1/2 cup sugar
1 egg
1/2 teaspoon grated lemon rind
2 cups sifted enriched flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 cup shredded coconut, finely chopped

Cream butter or margarine. Add sugar and continue creaming until light and fluffy. Add egg and lemon rind. Beat well. Sift together flour and salt. Stir flour mixture into creamed mixture. Blend in coconut. Drop by teaspoonfuls on ungreased baking sheet. Bake in slow oven (325°F) until lightly browned around the edges, about 15 to 20 minutes. Makes about 6 dozen 2-inch cookies.

Best wishes to all of you wonderful Mothers for a happy day - Bye-bye -

Oceana Recreation Committee to Meet

OCEANA — The Community Recreation Committee of Oceana will hold their third meeting next Thursday night, May 16th, at 8 o'clock in the Oceana Volunteer Fire Department.

Last month the committee held their second meeting and elected officers. Elmer Meeks was elected chairman, Jerald Whitehead, vice chairman and Mrs. Robert Davies, secretary.

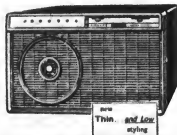

The purpose of this committee is to combine the efforts of the men and women residing in the community of Oceana and the nearby vicinity in promoting and operating a well-balanced, year-round recreation program for the children and adults. Such a job cannot be done by a few people, furthermore it should not have to be undertaken of a few since it involves every man, woman and child in the community. Anyone who is willing to devote a portion of their time, energy and leadership in making Oceana a better and more enjoyable place for their youngsters and themselves is invited to attend the meeting and join the committee.

The committee meets the third Thursday of each month in the Volunteer Fire Department at 8 p. m.

LEGION AUXILIARY TO MEET
American Legion Auxiliary Unit 113, Princess Anne County, will meet Monday, May 13, at 8 p. m. at American Legion Club House on Laskin Road.

Mrs. Dale Beasley, Superintendent of Public Welfare of Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach, will be guest speaker.

Creeds will play Kempsville. The lunch room will serve refreshments, the proceeds will go to buy draperies for the lunch room.

The Princess Anne Council of Church Women will meet Friday at 11 a. m. at the Lynnhaven Presbyterian Church.

Family Night will be observed Friday at 7 p. m. at Beech Grove Methodist Church in honor of the new members received into the church this conference year and at 8 p. m. the new Hammond Organ will be dedicated and a musical program presented. The public is cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hake and son, Steven, of Springfield, Ill., are spending two weeks with Mrs. Hake's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Halstead of Munden.

There will be a baptismal service for infants and children at both Beech Grove and Bethel churches during the regular morning worship services as part of the special Mother's Day service.

The Rev. William A. Richardson, pastor of the Oak Grove Baptist Church, Back Bay, for the past nine years will begin his work with the Great Bridge Baptist Chapel on May 15. The Great Bridge Chapel was started by the Norfolk Baptist Association in November of 1956 and is sponsored by the Temple Baptist Church of Norfolk.

The Rev. Mr. Richardson, a former railroad man, was pastor of the Merrimack Park Baptist Church of Norfolk, before coming to Oak Grove on May 15, 1948. During his pastorate the church

Little League Officials

To Meet May 21

The officers of the National Little League baseball have announced that a meeting of all the leaders and helpers will be held 8 p. m. May 21st, at the Community House on Arctic Ave. Not only the parents of the boys who play ball, but anyone interested in promoting this healthful sport and recreation are invited to come to this meeting.

Playing baseball not only affords pleasure and a possible future for boys, but is considered one of the greatest contributions to character building and good citizenship. Without the help of the members of our community it is impossible to carry out this program. Therefore, you are urged to attend this meeting and if possible offer your help which is so vitally needed.

school has tripped in enrollment, and the church membership has reached 376. A new educational building was built, the church completely remodeled and a new organ installed. In 1956 a new parsonage was built at the cost of $17,500.

Rev. Richardson will continue to hold the position of Association Superintendent of Sunday Schools for the Norfolk Baptist Association.

He attended the Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary at Wake Forest, N. C.

A farewell service will be held for Mr. and Mrs. Richardson Sunday evening, May 12, at 8 o'clock at the church. All their friends are invited to attend.

The Princess Anne Secondary Schools basketball tournament play-off for the current year was held March 1 at Princess Anne High School. The newly organized Court House team won. Mrs. Betsy Pikerton is their coach and the players are as follows: John Davis, captain; Ralph Stevens, co-captain; Steven Barnes, Vern-on Lee, Michael Quinn, Lloyd Hunt, Richard Grimstead, Gerry Hayes, Larry Greene, Jack Beasley, and Oren Aldridge.

The team and coach were entertained by the Court House 4-H Club at a banquet at the Pine Tree Inn and the players and coach presented with trophies by Mr. Henry Regan and Dr. Robert Venner.

Mr. R. H. Owens, Superintendent of Secondary Schools, pre-May 3 in honor of their winning sent the school a trophy on first place in the basketball tournament.

The Beech Grove Bethel Charge Methodist Youth Fellowship will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lee Sunday May 12 at 6 p. m. Everyone is to bring a sandwich. A program and recreation will be part of the evening's activities.

FAMOUS SOUR CREAM RECIPE FROM MIAMI'S FONTAINEBLEAU

CLAM SOUR CREAM DIP

1/2 cup minced clams, canned or fresh
1/4 cup Sealtest Sour Cream
1/4 tsp. garlic salt
Dash of cayenne

1/4 tsp. ground basil leaves
1/4 to 1/2 tsp. salt
Dash of black pepper
Paprika

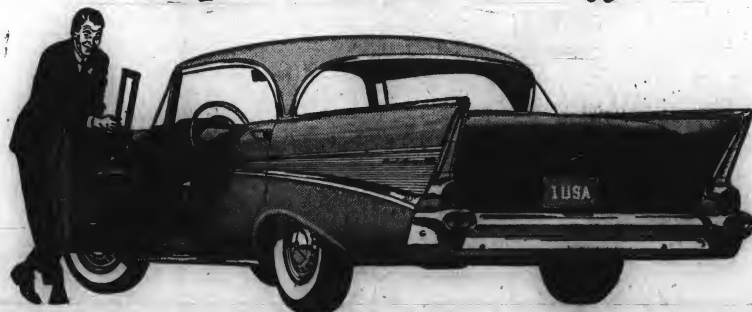

Drain clams well; dry in paper towel to remove excess liquid. Combine clams, sour cream, garlic salt, cayenne, basil, salt and pepper; mix well. Garnish with paprika. Serve as a social dip for potato chips or crackers. Makes 1/2 cup.

Every day more and more women are discovering a culinary secret of famous chefs. For sour cream, as Sealtest makes it, is sweet, fresh, rich cream with a special pure culture added. The result is a taste sensation that adds tangy, zesty excitement to every food. Try Sealtest Sour Cream to perk up your soups, meats, fowl, fruits, salads and desserts. come try Chevrolet's new Triple-Turbine take-off!

Sweet, Smooth and Sassy—That's Chevy! Model Illustrated, the Bel Air Sport Sedan with Body by Fisher.

Turboglide is the first and only triple-turbine transmission! You can feel the difference from your very first take-off!

Just slip Turboglide into "D" for "Drive" and pay it no mind. There is no "Low" or other positions to worry about.

For this is the automatic with triple turbines. One for quicksilver starts from a standstill. Another for cream-smooth cruising. And a third turbine for passing response that's safer all the way.

In GR (Grade, Retarder) position Turboglide helps slow you down—saves your brakes on long, steep hills.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest force for good in the world. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and send your Bible daily.

Council Votes To Borrow Up To $100,000

The Virginia Beach City Council this week approved by a 3 to 2 vote to borrow up to $100,000 against anticipated tax receipts. The money would cover some current expenses plus some funds expended as a result of the recent $720,000 bond issue.

F. M. Durham, city auditor, said that the money would be used for about $50,000 in pre-paying of anticipated receipts from the recent bond issue and the other for current expenses.

Voting for the loan were Mayor Frank A. Dusch, Vice Mayor John W. McCombs and Councilmen Frank D. Tarrall, Jr., Councilmen W. C. Everett and W. W. McClanahan voted against the measure.

The Council instructed City Treasurer Lewis E. Smith to borrow the money only as needed and emphasized that the $100,000 was only a maximum figure, according to Durham.

In March, the council approved the borrowing of $150,000 against anticipated tax revenues to cover outstanding debts and the purchase of a tract of land, part of which is near Virginia Beach High School.

Councilman Everett said "the city manager (City Manager W. Russell Hatchett) asked for $150,000 in March partly to cover the city's current operating expenses, and nothing was said about needing any further money in the near future."

"Mr. McClanahan and I voted against this loan mainly because part of it was to be used to buy property we didn't feel the city was justified in buying," Everett said.

Everett said that he had known about the city's financial condition he would not have voted for certain previous appropriations. It is understood that each member of the City Council is presented a monthly financial statement showing the current financial condition of the city.

City Auditor Durham said that regardless of the outcome of Thursday's bond referendum, the city would have to sell the $250,000 in bonds needed to refinance the boardwalk issue. The chief reason for the referendum, he said, is that bonds which have been approved by the voters usually sell at a lower rate of interest.

The $720,000 bond issue approved by beach residents in April was chiefly for a $320,000 convention hall and improvements to Pacific avenue.

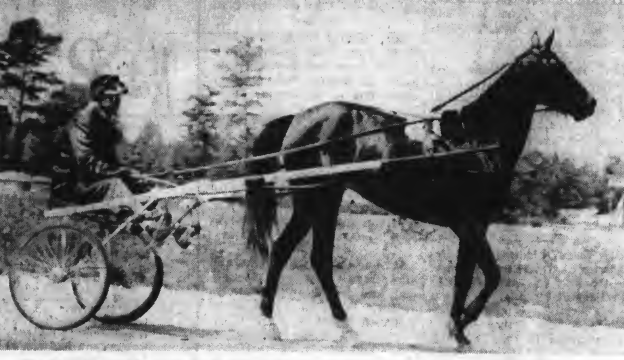

City Manager Comments on Survey Report

An analysis report of a municipal engineer to the Virginia Beach City Council concerning the annexation of North Virginia Beach was prematurely published last week against the thinking of City Council, according to W. Russell Hatchett, Virginia Beach city manager.

When the report was received from Municipal Engineer James C. Causey several days ago, the Council felt that the report should be discussed with a committee from North Virginia Beach out of courtesy before being released to the press, according to Hatchett. When questioned this week about the report, Hatchett said "the City Council, upon receipt of the report, felt that those people in North Virginia Beach seeking annexation should first have an opportunity to study the report before releasing it to the public."

"Subsequently a meeting was arranged for this week," Hatchett continued, "but in the meantime the report was given out to a press representative."

Typical Festival Scene This Week

The harness racing action in the above photo will be re-enacted this week at the Princess Anne Ruritan Club-sponsored "County Festival" to be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday at Aldo Farm in Princess Anne County. Aldo Farm may be reached by turning south at the traffic light at London Bridge and following the signs which are posted all along the route. The above horse is "Little Bessie" ridden here by Captain Eddie.

Pupil Placement in County Involves About 500 Children

PRINCESS ANNE — Approximately 500 children attending elementary schools here and in Virginia Beach will be required to sign pupil placement forms before the start of the 1957-58 term, it was disclosed today.

Frank W. Cox, division superintendent of county and city schools, said he expected no opposition to the requirement.

The state's Pupil Placement Board, Cox said, requires that all new pupils coming into the system, beginning pupils and pupils transferring from one school to another must sign the forms.

The bulk of those required to sign the forms here will be required to do so because of a change in schools. The move will affect both Negro and white pupils, Cox said that 225 white pupils, now attending the eighth grade of the Creeds, Oceana and Court House elementary schools will transfer to the Princess Anne High School at Thalia. There are also 150 pupils in the eighth grade of the Seaboard and Seateck elementary schools for Negroes, who will transfer to the Princess Anne Training School at Euclid.

At Virginia Beach, approximately 100 pupils in the sixth grade of the Willoughby T. Cooke Elementary School will be transferred to the Virginia Beach High School where they will be enrolled in the seventh grade.

The forms, when completed and returned to school authorities here, will be forwarded to the three-man state board for approval.

"Parents have cooperated 100 per cent since the requirement for placement forms became effective at the start of this year for all new pupils," Cox added.

County Festival Opens Friday At Aldo Farms

The "County Festival," sponsored by the Princess Anne Ruritan Club, will officially get underway Friday at one o'clock at Aldo Farms.

The "Festival" or fair will open with a 30 minute performance by the Princess Anne High School band. The three-day affair is crisscrossed with events of every description.

William P. Kellam is general chairman of the festival program which will include foot races and pig races for the youngsters on Friday. Also on Friday will be a greased pig contest and a cat-ropeing contest. The winner of the greased pig contest gets the pig as the prize.

The livestock and poultry exhibits which will be on display throughout the Festival will be judged at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon.

Another feature attraction on Friday's program will be a home-manship exhibition by students of Mrs. Gerry M. Ashburn.

The Virginia Beach High School band will play on Saturday beginning at 12 noon. Pies and cakes will be judged at 4 o'clock on Saturday. The highlight on Saturday afternoon is expected to be the harness racing event at 3 o'clock.

Harness racing will again be featured on Sunday afternoon. Tickets are available from any member of the Ruritan Club and they will also be available at Aldo Farms. The tickets for adults are $1.75 for three days, or 75 cents for a single day, and for children they are 75 cents for three days, or 40 cents for a single day.

Aldo Farms, scene of the "County Festival" may be reached by turning south at the traffic light at London Bridge. Aldo Farms is approximately three miles from that point. Signs are posted along the route giving directions to the "Festival."

Vote on Bond Issue Today

Voters of Virginia Beach go to the polls today to vote on a $250,000 bond issue which, if approved, will go to retire walkway bonds issued by the City in 1927.

The bonds come due on July 1 and no provision was made at the time of issuance in 1927 for their retirement. The bonds were originally issued on a 30-year basis.

Approval of the voters would tend to create a lower interest rate, officials believe. It is not a new issue in the sense that it will not create any additional bonded indebtedness, but would, in effect, re-finance the walkway bonds.

The polls will open at 6 o'clock in the morning and will close at 6 p.m.

SALEM CHURCH WILL HOLD FRIED CHICKEN DINNER

The Salem Methodist Church in Princess Anne County will hold a fried chicken dinner in its social hall on Saturday, May 25. It has been announced.

According to the announcement the dinner will be served from 5 to 8 p.m. Admission is $1.00 for adults and 75 cents for children.

4th Grade To Be Added To Friends School Here

By Kay Doughtie Sewell
VIRGINIA BEACH — A 4th grade will be added to Virginia Beach Friends School in September, 1957. This fact was confirmed on Thursday by Dr. John Lippincott, a member of the school board, and also veterinarian for Bayville Farms.

At the moment, he was sitting under some tall trees on the grass, with a large white rabbit named April in his arms. He was giving a lesson in Elementary Science to a small group of children.

Virginia Beach Friends is the youngest Friends School in the United States. (The first was established by William Penn in Philadelphia, Pa., in 1689.)

It started in September, 1955 with a kindergarten, first and second grades. In September, 1956, a third grade was added. All of this year's third grade pupils have already re-enrolled for the new fourth grade. Each class is limited to 20 pupils.

On Monday, May 13, said Mrs. Robert Wilson, another board member, there will be Open House for parents, friends, and relatives who are interested in the school.

The Friends School building is bright, cheerful and (typically Quaker) of sturdy red brick. It's also (typically Quaker) expensively, being set on seven acres of land, just south of Linkhorn Park School on Laskin Road.

Only six of its pupils, by the way, are Quakers.

Friends Students Take Field Trip

All aboard!—A 4th grade will be added to Virginia Beach Friends School September, 1957. All of this year's 3rd grade pupils have already re-enrolled. This picture shows a group of 3rd graders on a recent field trip, courtesy of Norfolk & Western, to complete their classroom social study of trains. Special Vote Ballot Ends Saturday Will Help Decide Top Winners

Kiley Elected Captain for Rescue Squad

Charles S. Kiley, city engineer for the City of Virginia Beach, has been elected captain of the Virginia Beach-Princess Anne Rescue Squad, and Lewis E. Smith has been elected president. They will be installed in ceremonies next month.

Others newly elected include Russell McClanahan, first lieutenant; Cecil Caton, second lieutenant; Ossie Wade, sergeant; William H. Phillips, treasurer; George C. Bogle, secretary; Graham White, chaplain; R. R. "Buddy" McCasney, public relations.

Thousands of Dollars in Prizes Cash at Stake, Not Much Time

There is hardly anyone in Princess Anne County who has not now become interested in who will win the new Ford to be awarded in front of the Sun-News office on Saturday, May 25.

Second prize in the contest is $500 in cash and the third prize is $250, with the fourth prize of $150 cash. To all who miss the big awards but who remain active according to the contest rules until the campaign closes gets a 20 percent cash commission.

They will have 20 cents on every dollar they have turned in. See commission rule in contest ad.

There is running short in this contest, and the following special offer will pay off in a big way for contestants who take advantage of it:

From the beginning of the campaign and through Saturday at this week, the "Protect You" vote offer will be in effect.

The "Protect You" vote ballots will be awarded at the end of the campaign. Three vote ballots of one million votes each will be given the three candidates in the Automobile and Cash Offer Campaign having to their credit the largest number of votes turned in from the beginning of the contest through Saturday, May 16.

There is no doubt as the campaign nears an end that the present "Protect You" ballot offer will exceed any previous week in points in new, renewal subscription collection.

The "Cash Offer" in effect this week allows 120,000 extra votes on each $30 worth of subscriptions turned in by Saturday. There is no time to lose this week.

The first prize a Ford Tudor sedan, to be awarded on May 25, a little more than a week away, is now on display at the Matthews Motors. "If you want to, 'Protect You' is your best chance," said A. M. Alexander, campaign manager.

Summer Work For Teachers Is Group's Aim

The Teacher Recruitment Committee for Princess Anne County and the City of Virginia Beach has adopted a project to ease the financial woes of the teacher, according to Mrs. T. Cornell Berry, chairman of the group.

The project is seeking summer employment for the teacher, Mrs. Berry said. In order to secure summer employment the committee is asking business firms with openings to call Mrs. J. R. Jeter at Virginia Beach 2950 giving the firm's name, the contact for an interview, type of work, salary and hours.

In addition to seeking summer employment for the teacher, the committee is preparing a questionnaire designed to locate persons living in the area who are qualified to teach but who are not engaged in the teaching profession.

Only six of its pupils, by the way, are Quakers.

'No Left Turn' Policy to Get Public Hearing

PRINCESS ANNE—A public hearing on the State Highway Department's "no left turn" policy for portions of Virginia Beach boulevard will be held here soon.

Richard J. Webson, executive secretary of the county's Board of Supervisors, said Monday the State Highway Department is being requested to send J. P. Mills, a traffic and planning engineer, to the county May 27 to attend a public hearing. The meeting, if approved, will be held in the County Court at 2 p.m.

The board recently adopted a resolution protesting the State's elimination of left turns on the boulevard between Chinese Corner and the Norfolk City limits.

A lawsuit has also been threatened by a property owner in the area. The owner, John E. Marr, who is also sheriff of the county, said today he was still conferring with attorneys pending court action.

Married Saturday

Mrs. Wiley C. Harrell Jr.

Betty Jane Gilbert Marries Wiley Harrell Jr. at Beach

The marriage of Miss Betty Jane Gilbert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Orton Gilbert, of London Bridge, to Wiley Cleveland Harrell Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Cleveland Harrell of Virginia Beach, took place Saturday, May 11 at 4 p. m. at the Virginia Beach Baptist Church. The ceremony was performed by Dr. W. G. Bond.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a wedding gown of white Chantilly lace and tulle, fashioned with a standing portrait neckline of scalloped tulle and pointed lace bodice. The lace bouffant skirt, with deep inset of tulle, tipped into a slight train. Her finger-tip veil was arranged from a small lace cap edged with pearls. She carried a prayer book topped with Royal Bouquet orchids and showered with stephanotis.

Miss Frances Gilbert was maid of honor for her sister and the bridesmaids were Miss Betty Ann Harrell and Miss Frances Speight. All the attendants wore waist-length gowns of ballet blue nylon, fashioned with a wide V-neckline, abbreviated sleeves, basque bodice with crushed royal blue midriff and pleated skirt with butterfly bow in the back. They wore matching braided bandeaux arranged with a brow veil and carried semi-cascade bouquets of Carol Amling sweetheart roses and variegated ivy leaves.

Wiley Cleveland Harrell Sr., was best man for his son and the groomsmen were William Gilbert of London Bridge, Floyd Dormire and Alfred Smith, both of Virginia Beach, and Jim Jackson of Charlotte, N. C.

After the ceremony a reception was given at 4200 Cavalier Dr., Virginia Beach. Later Mr. and Mrs. Harrell left for a short wedding trip. Mrs. Harrell wore for traveling a light beige suit with brown accessories and brown and white hat and white gloves. Upon their return they will reside in Columbia, S. C. near Fort Jackson, where Mr. Harrell is stationed with the United States Army.

LUNCHEON HONORS

MISS GANDELLE KIME

Mrs. C. Wade Kornegay and Mrs. Robert G. Barr entertained last Saturday at a luncheon in honor of Miss Gandel Kime whose marriage to H. Floyd Dormire Jr. will take place on June 1 at Eastern Shore Church. The party was given at the Princess Anne Country Club and the guests numbered 20.

LUNCHEON HONORS

MRS. ROBERT F. KIBLER

Mrs. C. Wade Kornegay entertained on Wednesday of last week at a luncheon in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Robert F. Kibler, who has been residing in Pittsburgh, Pa. Dr. and Mrs. Kibler and family will make their future home in Boston. The party was given at the Princess Anne Country Club and Mrs. Kornegay's guests numbered 12.

Comdr. and Mrs. T. J. Smith, who have been residing on Long Island, N. Y., are now occupying a house on 81st St.

Tennent-Gilliam Vows Exchanged In Atlanta, Ga.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Berkeley Tennent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Baby Tennent of Hopewell, to Gordon Lamb Gilliam of Atlanta, Ga., son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Gilliam of Henderson, N. C., took place Saturday afternoon at St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Atlanta. The ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Wilson Sneed.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a dress of pink Chantilly lace over white silk organza. She wore a circlet of valley lilies and pink rosebuds on her head and carried a nosegay of matching flowers.

Miss Elizabeth Booker Smith of Farmville, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and only attendant. Her dress of white silk organza was accented by a pink velvet sash. She wore a circlet of pink rosebuds on her head and her flowers were an old fashioned nosegay of valley lilies and pink rosebuds.

Sterling G. Gilliam of Henderson, was best man for his brother. Ushers were George Gilliam Jr. and Charles L. Gilliam of Virginia Beach, both brothers of the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at Villa Dolfin d'Oro, home of Gordon Cliff Horton. After a wedding trip to Jamaica, the couple will reside in Atlanta.

The bride is a former resident of the Beach.

Oceana Recreation Committee To Meet

The Oceana Community Recreation Committee will meet tonight in the Volunteer Fire Department Building at 8 p. m.

Mr. Meeks, newly elected chairman, will preside over the meeting and topics for discussion will be the school as a community center, athletic teams and leagues, and what the average citizen of Oceana can do in helping to bring about recreation.

Residents of Oceana and nearby vicinity are invited to attend this meeting. All possible help is needed in order to make Oceana a more enjoyable community for the youngsters and adults to live.

Modernized Building Face-Lifting

—Simmons Photo

A modernized face-lifting operation has been in progress at The Dunes, formerly The Gay-Pinewood Hotel. The work was executed by The Paint Specialists Company and entails first sandblasting all the accumulations off the face of the building that have to be removed before the application of paint. The "NEW-LOOK" will be another of Virginia Beach's strides in bidding welcome to the coming season's guests—The Motor-Hotel is under the management of Welton L. Hampton.

'Cavalier Capers' Presented by Princess Anne High School

The annual "Cavalier Capers" these were the Can-Can and the slightly spicy rendition of "Edie Was a Lady."

Narrating the show was Ken Brethauer, who kept the show moving from one act to the next. Two novelty numbers, undeniably unique, were a narrative, "Nothing Perfume," done to perfection by Jane Prescott; and "The Whistlers," a five-man group whose whistling performance has probably never been challenged.

Highlights of the show were two pantomime numbers, one presented by Kay Meyers and Irvin Evans, and the other by the "Turbans," a blackface, white turbaned group consisting of Roy Meekins, Irvin Evans, Paul LeRau and Dag McCloud. A third number, "Ape Call" by Buck Madrey was also entertaining.

The program was somewhat heavy with vocal solos. Among those were Warren Greco singing "Look Homeward Angel," animated Tinker Barker with her Scottish-accented "Blue Bells of Broadway," and Janice Weaver with her rendition of "I Never Harmed An Onion."

Stage effects were created with a minimum of scenery and were developed almost entirely through lighting and curtain. Interspersed between the solo numbers, were five production numbers. Most professional of all.

Two weeks of the official inspection period are already gone. Our Governor's Highway Safety Committee urges motorists not to wait until the last minute before taking their cars to one of the stations. Go now while there isn't any crowding. You'll get a good job done with a minimum of inconvenience.

EDITORIALLY SPEAKING

Today's Bond Issue

Today the voters of Virginia Beach are voting on a $250,000 bond issue which is unlike the ordinary bond issue in some respects.

The amount of money involved in today's bond issue represents an obligation undertaken by the City back in 1927 when the walkway was built. It is necessary to issue bonds at this time to meet the obligation incurred in 1927.

Unlike the ordinary bond issue which is designed for future spending and development today's issue is a direct result of a lack of provision to retire these bonds when they were issued in 1927. Had these bonds been issued in serial bonds there would be no reason for the present bond issue.

A bond retirement plan should have been set up by the administration in 1927 to take care of these bonds which fall due on July 1, 1957. They were issued in 1927 as 30-year bonds but no provision for retirement was arranged.

This is not a new bond issue and voters should bear in mind that a vote for the issue will tend to place the City in a position to secure a better interest rate. At the same time it should be remembered that the obligation must be met regardless of the voting results. Passage of the issue does not increase the city's bonded debt one iota since this amount is already included in that figure.

A vote FOR the bond issue will insure the city of meeting its obligation and should result in a lower interest rate on these bonds which would be used to refinance a long standing debt created back in 1927.

Attend the County Festival

Everyone should, this week, avail themselves of the opportunity to attend the "County Festival" to be held this Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the Aldo Farm in Princess Anne County. The festival, or fair, is being sponsored by the community-conscious Princess Anne Ruritan Club.

The festival looms as a real treat for adults and youngsters alike. It will offer many unique features and should be extremely entertaining as well as educational. Members of the sponsoring Ruritan Club, their wives and many friends have worked laboriously to make the "County Festival" a success. We predict that with this spirit it will be a big success from both the sponsor's standpoint and the spectator's viewpoint.

There is a long list of events on the program for the three-day affair. There will be awards in homemaking, cooking and baking. In addition there will be harness racing, calf roping, a greased pig contest and many other events that should prove highly entertaining.

For what should be a gala time everyone should mark the dates, Friday, May 17, Saturday, May 18, and Sunday, May 19, to be certain that they attend the "County Festival" at Aldo Farms. It should be one of the most successful projects ever attempted by the Princess Anne Ruritan Club.

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING

Hillbilly Music

Current success of hillbilly music gives most non-hillbilly fans a distinct pain. Not only do they deem hillbilly music completely non-cultural but they regard the magnitude of its following as a flippant contradiction to America's aspirations to status in the cultural realm.

It is hard to ignore the fact that the 50 million hillbilly records sold last year in the United States constituted two of every five popular music discs sold. Nor can the growing interest shown by radio and TV program advertisers be overlooked.

Blight or blessing, the country seems to be in for more of the same. Perhaps in several hundred years, if hillbilly music loses its widespread popular appeal, it may become the basis for some cultural cult.

Jazz, despised and derided as uncultural in its early days, is now accepted in polite society. Quite a cult has grown up around mountain ballads, such as those Burl Ives and others have collected.

In England there is considerable interest in elite circles in the folk songs of past centuries — songs at which the culturally informed undoubtedly looked down their noses as being too uncouth and common at the time.

It is possible that the main thing culturally wrong with hillbilly music is its popularity? When popular interest dwindles in "I'm Tired" and "I'm in the Jailhouse Now" and their ilk, maybe they will become "clever," a part of our American folk heritage, and therefore acceptable in better circles.

Future generations will not find it necessary to hunt and scratch for evidences of this phase of America's musical history, that's for sure. There should be enough copies of records of "You're Nothing But a Hound Dog" to last for hundreds of years.

First 'Founders' Production Is Pleasing Epic

Paul Green's newest outdoor drama — "The Founders" began its premier season this Monday, May 13th.

The drama is located in "The Cove," a new 1740-seat amphitheatre in Malakia Park at the College of William and Mary, Williamsburg, Virginia, and is surrounded by large shade trees which makes it very cool and comfortable.

The story is of the first permanent English settlement in America, from the landing at Jamestown in 1607, until the Indian massacre of 1622.

It is produced by the Jamestown Corporation, a non-profit educational organization, and the producers of "The Common Glory."

Dates for this Premier season are May 13th thru Oct. 19th at 7:30 P. M. each afternoon except Monday.

This is the first large-scale outdoor drama to be presented in the daytime and should attain a long and successful run. It certainly is a must in this 360th Anniversary of the settling of Jamestown.

Story Officer Gets Citation For Amphib Work

FORT STORY, VA. — A nine month tour of duty as the commanding officer of one of Fort Story's outstanding amphibious truck companies, won for Captain Nathaniel R. Thompson, Jr., a letter of citation from the commanding general of the US Army Transportation Training Command.

The letter, signed by Major General Rush B. Lincoln, Jr., cited Captain Thompson's work as commanding officer of the 461st Amphibious Truck Company, from July 5, 1956 to April 22, 1957. Captain Thompson is currently on leave of absence, completing the requirements for a Master's Degree at Syracuse University, New York.

The 461st At Company, popularly known as the "Barometer," was consistently an award-winning organization under Captain Thompson's command, on the parade field, and in command inspections. The 461st is attached to the 14th Transportation Battalion, whose commanding officer, Lieutenant Colonel E. A. P. McCarthy presented the citation to Captain Thompson.

A rated paratrooper, Captain Thompson served with the Airborne Infantry and the Corps of Engineers prior to his Transportation Corps service. He is a graduate of Temple University, Philadelphia, and the Transportation Company Officers' Course of the Transportation School, Fort Eustis.

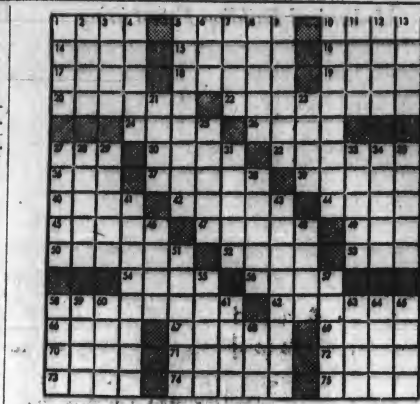

Succeeding Captain Thompson as commanding officer of the 461st is First Lieutenant Nicholas H. Jongsboed.

Semi-Annual Chamber Dinner At Cavalier Club June 3

The semi-annual dinner-meeting of the Virginia Beach Chamber of Commerce will be held on Monday, June 3, according to Herbert A. Holt, Jr., chairman of the arrangements committee. The affair will be held at the Cavalier Club.

Holt, as committee chairman, made his report to the Chamber's Board of Directors at a meeting held Tuesday afternoon in the Chamber office. Harold B. Kellam, president, presided over the meeting.

Holt announced that Captain Russell H. Smith, USN, CO, Naval Amphibious Test and Evolution Unit, U. S. Amphibious Base, Little Creek, will be the principal speaker at the dinner.

It was also announced that the dinner would be buffet style and that the cost would be $5.00 per person. The dinner-meeting is scheduled to begin at 6:30 p. m.

Holt pointed out that it would be necessary to make reservations for the dinner so that the committee would know the number of persons to prepare for. Reservations are open to the public and can be made by calling Mrs. Julia Neils, Chamber secretary, at Virginia Beach 302.

Babe Ruth Loop

The players who are becoming eligible for Babe Ruth Baseball for the first time should report to the officers of the league, Saturday morning, May 18th at the Virginia Beach High School Stadium, at 10 o'clock.

Any players who are 13 years of age and who will not reach the 16th birthday prior to September 1, are eligible to play this year.

Managers of the four league teams will be on hand to give the new players a tryout. The players may register Saturday and will have to present birth certificates prior to being placed on a team.

At a meeting of officers and parents last Wednesday night, John Tucker, local life insurance man, was elected president of the league. Tucker is the current season. Other officers elected were: T. Cornell Berry, vice president, and Miles Chappell, secretary and treasurer. Tucker served as vice president last year and Chappell is serving in his same capacity for another year.

B. M. Stanton was given a vote of thanks for the splendid job done as president during the first year of Babe Ruth baseball at Virginia Beach. Mr. Stanton will serve as chairman of a board of directors to be elected later from interested parents.

President Tucker stressed the need for volunteers who could give time in helping with the operation of the league. Scorekeepers, umpires and various committee heads will be needed to make the league a success in its second year.

Managers and coaches back for another year are: For the Tanker Station Spots, Al Craft Jr. and Les Larr; The Princess Anne Lumber Dodgers, Jim Jones; The Everett-Jordan Yanks, Mel Good and Herbert Fentress. The Coca-Cola Colts, winners of the pennant last year, will be managed by Tom Daley and Jimmy Williamson, two men who have been instrumental in making the Little League at Virginia Beach a success. An assistant for the Dodgers will be announced in the near future.

The league will begin its schedule soon after the high school closes.

New Building For Bank Here Opens on May 27

Residents of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County will have an opportunity to "Talk Today To The People Of Tomorrow" when the new National Bank of Commerce, Virginia Beach Office opens on Monday, May 27th.

When construction began on this new bank building several months ago, Bank of Commerce officials decided to do away with the traditional corner stone ceremonies. Instead, it was decided to have some similar event in which the entire community could participate. Provisions have been made in the construction of this new bank office to place a steel box large enough to contain a great number of letters in one of its walls. This box will be sealed in the wall of the bank building during open activities from 7:00 to 10:00 P. M., Monday, May 27th. It will be removed on October 1, 1967, some 10 years later on the occasion of the bank's 10th anniversary.

Virginia Beach and Princess Anne officials, city clubs and social clubs have been issued a special invitation to write letters to their neighbors, or presidents of their clubs in 1967. A spokesman for the bank said, "In view of the tremendous strides being taken by Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County these letters should be of tremendous interest to their addressees 10 years from now."

Anyone may deposit a letter in this "Letters for the Future" box at the Banks open house. It was pointed out that Virginia Beach and County officials and the civic and social clubs were particularly asked because of community wide interest that would be created when the "Letters for the Future" box is opened in 1967. Grandparents may write to grandchildren, parents to their children, etc.

When the letters are removed 10 years from now they will be published or mailed to whom ever they are addressed. If a writer wants his letter published he should plainly mark the envelope "Publish" otherwise it will be mailed to the addressee. The box will be sealed in the wall at 8:30 P. M. Monday, May 27th.

NEWS FOR VETERANS

T. A. Moore of the Division of War Veterans' Claims, a Virginia State agency, under Attorney General Almond, will interview veterans, servicemen or their widows, orphans, and dependent parents, on the usual monthly trip to the Beach on May 23, 1957. He will be at the Community House, 18th and Arctic, from 11 a. m. to 3 p. m. only. Service is free.

Moore's regular trip is on the second and fourth Thursdays each month. He counsels, assists with claims and forms, gets evidence for benefits due under law, and advises on all related matters.

Moore's office is at 206 McKevitt Bldg. is at 206 City Hall Ave., phone Madison 3-9271. He has conducted the Norfolk office for 11 years, under the direction of Harry F. Carper Jr., of Roanoke.

War Orphan Education Program This is the ideal time for young men and women to start taking action, if they intend to enroll in school or college in the fall under the War Orphans Education program.

The program is for the sons and daughters of war veterans who died of injuries or diseases resulting from their military service in World War I, World War II or the Korean conflict. Generally, War Orphan students must be between 18 and 23 years of age.

The two reasons for early action are: First, students will have plenty of time to arrange for admittance this fall to the college of their choice. Many colleges, particularly larger ones, are crowded. A delay to the last minute can result in the disappointment of learning that there's no more room.

Second, prompt action can result in expediter service with all the preliminaries out of the way before the rush at enrollment time begins.

It normally takes at least a month from the date an application is filed to the date of final approval for schooling. Records must be checked to determine whether the young person meets basic eligibility requirements.

Field at Oceana Station Will Be Named

The landing field at the United States Naval Air Station, Oceana, will be dedicated as "Soucek Field" in ceremonies to be held on Tuesday, June 4, according to invitations sent out this week by the Naval Station.

The field will be dedicated to the memory of the late Vice Admiral Apollo Soucek, a former chief of the Navy's Bureau of Aeronautics.

The famous "Blue Angels" will give a precision flying exhibition as a part of the program. This quarter will perform at 11 a. m. The official program is scheduled to get underway at 10:30 a. m. and according to Naval officials at the station the public is invited to attend.

Local Student in Virginia Honor Society William Earle Strode, Jr., of Virginia Beach, has been elected a member of the Raven Society, a University of Virginia honor society.

Young Strode, whose parents reside on 60th street in North Virginia Beach, is a student in the School of Medicine at the University.

Election to the society is based on academic achievement and distinction in other fields. The aim of the society is to stimulate intellectual activity beyond the limits of the classroom and to advance the welfare and interests of the University.

"The most important thing in driving," says our Governor's Highway Safety Committee, "is to have your car under control." The Committee points out further that the higher your speed, the less your control. Stopping distances lengthen, it is more difficult to swerve or take evasive action and your tires have less grip on the road.

"Watch your speedometer when you come off the highway into a city," says our Governor's Highway Safety Committee. After open-road speeds, reduced city speed limits seem awfully slow. It's very easy to exceed these limits and not realize it. This can be no legal excuse so be careful and proceed cautiously.

Officers Elected For Princess Anne Hi-Y Club

PRINCESS ANNE — Three Hi-Y's at Princess Anne High School have elected officers for the 1957-58 term. The groups are Sigma Phi, Alpha Phi Omega, and Kappa Phi Delta.

President of Sigma Phi Hi-Y is Bob Lockwood. Other officers are Ralph Wetherington, vice president, Dick Monahan, secretary, Stan Fischer, treasurer; Mike Brownley, chaplain; and Dick Lawless, sergeant-at-arms. The officers were named in the recent election presided over by outgoing president, Ken Brethauer.

Sponsor for the Sigma Phi Hi-Y is George Applegate. This year, the group elected a sister group, the Comet Tri-Hi-Y. Plans are now being discussed for a joint bake sale and beach party to be held early in June.

The Alpha Phi Omega slate is composed of Columbus Cartwright, president; Raymond Cobb, vice president; Jerry Levy, secretary and historian; and Norman Wood, chaplain. They were inducted by outgoing president, Johnny Watson.

Arthur Adkins will head the Kappa Phi Delta Hi-Y. Serving on the slate with him will be Bob Lambert, vice president; Chippy Medlin, secretary; Edmund Cobb, treasurer; and Preston Sprull, chaplain. Outgoing president is Allison Dresher.

The Kappa Phi Delta group is also discussing plans for a party to be held in June.

Seatack School News

By Kathalia

Hi Everybody:

The Annual Music Festival directed by Mrs. Matilda S. Freeman was held May 9th in the school auditorium. The following schools participated: Jacob Junior High School and Tidewater of Norfolk, Princess Anne Training School, Seaboard District Elementary and Seatack Elementary. Solos were rendered by Edythe A. Grimes, Raymond Graves, James Bagby and Bernard Williams.

Teachers directing the various choirs were Mrs. O. K. Jennings, Training School; Mrs. Elaine Walke, Seaboard District; Miss Naomi Graves, Saint Mark A. M. E.; Mrs. Alice Harding, Tidewater Elementary; Mrs. Thelma Anderson, Jaycox Junior High; Roy Reid, Princess Anne Band; Mrs. Matilda Freeman, Seatack.

The audience seemed quite enthusiastic and everyone is looking forward for the return of the affair.

The choir will go to Roper, North Carolina May 14th to participate in the Spring Concert at the Washington County Union High School.

The closing P. T. A. meeting will be held Monday night at 8:00 P. M. Every parent is asked to be present.

Grade Seven and one division of the sixth grade and one division of the fourth grade went to Jamestown on May 3, 1957. Many impressions were made upon the children. Cora Walke said, "I think it was a most historical and interesting trip." Joyce Thompson said, "We were very excited to see the early days of our country reconstructed." "Very original," commented Joseph Semmerville. Shirley Cason said that the fort impressed her most.

A pre-school clinic was held here Wednesday, May 7 at 9:30 a. m.

Calvin Haynes, our school spelling champion, went to William and Mary College Saturday, May 4, along with his teacher, Mrs. Ruby M. Davis.

A fashion show will be given here on Monday, May 20, 1957, at 8:30 p. m. An added attraction will be the latest fashions in hair styling.

The local first place winner will compete in the state contest at Norfolk June 22 for a first prize of a $500 scholarship. The Virginia winner will compete in Washington, D. C. in August for the three top prizes of $1,500, $1,000 and $500 scholarships respectively.

The local contest which will be monitored by the Jaycees is made possible through the sponsorship of the Pure Oil Company, the Chrysler Motor Company, Liberty Mutual Insurance Company and the American Trucking Company. In the event of rain the rodeo will be held Saturday, May 25.

Air Force News

Major William H. Fantone, Jr., Linkhorn Park, Virginia Beach, Va., has been named Director of Accounting on the staff of the deputy for Comptroller for the Pacific Air Force and Far East Air Force (Rear), Major General Sory Smith announced today.

General Smith, who commands the Pacific Air Force and the Far East Air Force (Rear) Headquarters, directs two missions.

Under the Pacific Air Force, he is responsible to Admiral Felix Stump, Pacific Area command for all USAF activities. Under FEAF (Rear) General Smith is responsible to General Laurence Kuter's Far East Air Forces for logistical and administrative support.

Major Fantone was part of a section of Far East Air Force headquarters that recently moved to Hickam Air Force Base, Hawaii from Tokyo, Japan to join Pacific Air Force headquarters.

Accompanying the major were his wife, the former Susan Payne of Lockhaven, Va., and their two children, Susan P. 12 and Mary E. 5.

A veteran of 17 years service, he has been stationed in both the European and Far East Theaters of operations.

He graduated from Maury High in Norfolk and attended Mercer University at Macon, Ga., for one year, before entering the service.

Nuclear Power Associates Enter Agreement With Westinghouse Electric

RALEIGH, N. C. — Carolina Nuclear Power Associates announced today that it has entered an agreement with Westinghouse Electric Corp. for the development of the Nuclear Power Plant.

N. A. Cooke, CVNPA president said that the target date for completion of the plant is 1962. It will be built on a site in the area served by the four power companies which comprise CVNPA's membership.

Mr. Cooke made the announcement after a meeting here of CVNPA's Board of Directors which was held at the offices of Carolina Power and Light Co. Represented were Virginia Electric and Power Co., Carolina Power and Light Co., Duke Power Co. and South Carolina Electric and Gas Co.

Organized last year, CVNPA has already retained Stone & Webster Engineering Corp. of Boston and General Nuclear Engineering Corp. of Dunedin, Fla., as consultants. The latter is headed by Dr. Walter H. Zinn, noted physicist, formerly director of the Argonne National Laboratory of the Atomic Energy Commission.

The two consulting firms along with Westinghouse and CVNPA will decide what type of reactor to build, select a site, and negotiate for a development contract with the Atomic Energy Commission to cover this program.

SEND A GUIDE TO STATION FOUR—Guide Julian Taylor uses the sound-powered phone to call Luray Caverns communications center for another guide to return a mother and her two children to the surface. Guide dispatcher Betty Logan (inset) talks on the new sound-powered phones to a guide several hundred feet below the surface in Luray Caverns, Luray, Va. After learning that a party wished to return to the surface, Miss Logan sent a special guide down to escort them back.

Luray Caverns Find Use for Voice-Powered Phones

Luray, Va. — "This is Guide Harrison at Station No. 4. I have a mother and two children in my party who wish to return to the surface. Please send a guide to escort them."

"This is Headquarters Station. We are sending Guide Peterson to Station No. 4. He will be there in three minutes."

This kind of intercom phone talk is routine these days in the Caverns of Luray in Virginia. It's an innovation that has taken place only recently, however. Until a few months ago, there was no communication between the surface and the miles of underground at this tourist attraction near Virginia's Skyline Drive.

Poppy Day Funds To Aid Disabled

Poppies worn to honor the memory of the dead on Poppy Day, next May 25, also will bring help to disabled war veterans. Mrs. Henry L. Lam pointed out today as final arrangements were made for Poppy Day observance.

Contributions given to the Auxiliary "Poppy Girls" will be the principal source of support for the Auxiliary work for disabled war veterans during the coming year. The money will also be used in Child Welfare work for needy children of veterans.

While honoring those who died defending America, the American Legion Auxiliary ask that we also think of those who did not die but sacrificed health and strength in the nation's service. The sick and disabled veterans are still within the reach of our help, and helping them is the continuous activity of the Auxiliary.

We count upon warmhearted Americans to give us the dollars we must have for this work when we bring them their poppies.

Job Opportunity

Due to the fact that the present registers of eligibles for typist and stenographer are rapidly becoming depleted, the Norfolk Naval Shipyard has announced a new examination for these positions.

S. J. Casey, executive secretary of the Board of Civil Service Examiners, said that upon the establishment of the new registers, the previous registers from stenographer and typist, under an announcement issued in November 1953, would expire. Eligibles on the previous registers who have not received appointment should file under the current announcement if they wish their eligibility continued, Casey said.

Typists will be required to pass a general abilities test and a typing test, given to determine the ability to do office work. Stenographers will be required to pass a stenography test in addition to the general abilities and typing tests.

Application card form 5000-AB, which may be secured at the shipyard or from any post office, may be filed at the shipyard until further notice.

Making plans for Memorial Day? If you are, our Governor's Highway Safety Committee asks you to plan to drive carefully. Holiday traffic in Virginia is always heavy and in a hurry. Remember right now that you will never see the dead and not join them in the confusion of a traffic jam.

one and one-quarter miles, each station is approximately a quarter mile apart. Depth of the phones ranges from 60 feet to 264 feet below the surface.

It is ordered that the said Fannie Stormont Duncan, Buford Berry, Doyle Berry, Everett Berry, Roderick Garratt, Katherine Garratt, Gillon, Julian Garratt and Henrietta Garratt, if either be married, their heirs and devisees, if any be dead; the consorts of any of said unknown heirs or devisees who are married; and any other persons who may have an interest in the subject matter of this suit whose names are unknown.

Robert C. Harnsberger, Caverns executive, estimates that the installation of the United States Instrument Company's sound-powered phones will effect a saving of over $12,000 in the first year of operation. This is nearly 10 times the cost of the entire phone system. After the first year, the savings will amount to approximately $14,000 annually.

"Before the sound-powered phones were installed," Harnsberger said, "two guides were required to accompany each party going through the caverns. This was necessary because frequently one or more members of a party want to return to the surface before the four is completed. The extra guide came along to provide this service."

Now, when a call is received from underground, a guide is dispatched to the station. He usually takes a short cut so he can get there quickly, and he goes back up the same way.

"After we realized some form of communication was needed," Mr. Harnsberger said, "we first investigated the possibility of radio. By experiment, we found that radio unfortunately is extremely sensitive underground. If we moved the equipment as much as six inches, we lost the signal. Furthermore, we found that the moisture in the caverns is very harmful to all electrical equipment."

He said they then looked into the system of intercom used by the Navy aboard ship and found that sound-powered phones were the answer to the problem.

"Sound-powered phones are ideal for communication in the caverns," Harnsberger said, "because they are both moisture proof and independent of any outside power. We also like the fact that they are practically indestructible and require little maintenance."

Mr. Harnsberger said that the feature of the phones which appealed to him most was the fact that they use no external power. Sounds are transmitted automatically by the energy from the voices themselves—the name of the equipment indicates.

"Another use Mr. Harnsberger has found for the phones is on construction work in the caverns. By being able to talk between the surface and underground, the workers are able to expedite the movement of materials and to finish jobs more quickly."

The phones also came in handy recently when a crew of cameramen, actors, and actresses were making a motion picture about the Caverns of Luray. "Shooting time was cut by several days," Mr. Harnsberger said, "by using the phones."

The system is equipped to handle 10 stations, although only six have been installed so far. One of these is portable.

Use of Mails to Promote Medicated Quackery At All-Time High

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield said today use of the mails to promote medical quackery is at the highest level in history.

Reports from Chief Inspector David H. Stephens, Mr. Summerfield said, show medical frauds today are more lucrative than any other criminal activity.

"In an era when wonder drugs and great advances in surgery and legitimate medicine have produced true medical miracles, it's puzzling that so many people in all walks of life pay big money for frauds," the Postmaster General commented.

So far this year, postal inspectors have prepared cases for consideration by the Department's General Counsel which, conservatively, represent an annual loss to the Public of $50,000,000.

Under Federal statutes, postal inspectors are charged with investigating any fraudulent activity in which the U. S. mails are used. The most prominent fraudulent activity conducted through the mails today is in the field of fake medical cures.

"Promoters and quacks are so persistent, a unit of inspector specialists is needed in Washington to coordinate investigations of these rackets," Mr. Summerfield said.

In addition to handling public complaints, received by the thousands, inspectors obtain materials offered and submit them for extensive examination by medical and chemical experts. The Department has a working agreement under which it contributes to the salary and expenses of doctors and chemists employed by the Food and Drug Administration for this purpose.

They make tests and examinations to determine whether medical materials and devices offered through the mails are misrepresented.

If the evidence indicates that formal action should be undertaken, a complaint setting forth charges of fraudulent misrepresentation is filed with the Chief Hearing Examiner.

The promoter is named respondent, and arrangements made for him to appear with his attorneys at a formal hearing at which both sides of the case are heard on record.

If fraudulent use of the mails is proven, a fraud order is issued for the Postmaster General by Post Office Department General Counsel Abe Goff.

When a fraud order is issued, a promoter can receive no funds through a mail, and all practical purposes his operations are shut off. All mail sent to him is returned to sender marked "Fraudulent," except that which on its face is clearly not connected with the unlawful enterprise.

In the past 12 months, 16 fraud orders have been issued in medical fraud cases.

"However," Mr. Summerfield continued, "rather than attempt to defend the indefensible, 100 persons or firms signed stipulations agreeing to discontinue their questionable enterprise. These phony schemes altogether were known to be taking in at least $225,000 daily. Is it any wonder new frauds spring up every day?"

In addition to administrative action in cases involving fraud, postal inspectors also present cases to United States Attorneys for consideration of criminal prosecution.

If the United States Attorney agrees that there is a basis for criminal prosecution, he will present the evidence to a Federal Grand Jury and if indictment is returned the case will be set for trial.

In these circumstances, the postal inspectors lend technical assistance and contribute extensive evidence.

The conviction rate in such cases going to trial is very high, about 90%. Some of the medical frauds most common today, in order of popularity, are "dietless" reducing schemes, "sure cures" for cancer, arthritis, skin trouble, baldness and "lost manhood." Bust development gimmicks are also on the best-seller lists.

In recent years, the style in cancer cures has been in devices that allegedly contain "atomic" material or that are "electronic."

Usually these will be sold for hundreds of dollars, and will consist of impressive clasp devices, such as flashing light bulbs, ticks and buzzes. Other styles in "atomic" medicines call for vials of water, olive oil, etc., supposed to contain atomic "curatives."

These are often offered for arthritis, rheumatism and for many other afflictions.

"Unfortunately," Chief Inspector Stephens notes, "the prosecution of the ghouls who trade on hopes of the desperately ill often can not be successfully prosecuted because the patients who are the chief witnesses die before the case is called up in court."

Many bust development gadgets still bring in large amounts of money to promoters. These usually consist of useless suction cup devices, creams, lotions, tablets and exercises.

One such device for milady was a set of ordinary 2-pound dumbbells painted a dainty blue and adorned with pink ribbons.

In a related fraud, an elastic band exerciser, somewhat similar to an inexpensive garter, has been selling for fancy prices through the mails, on the claim that it will "create elegant legs."

People in all walks of life still apparently believe there are great therapeutic values in wearing commonplace steel oblong iteiva eam metal (bought at uncommon prices). One device is an "electric bracelet," an ordinary band of copper which supposedly sets up "alternating currents" in the body to "cure arthritis, neuritis, etc."

Another best seller of the medical quacks is so-called medical aids for "loss of manhood." High priced pills or salves are usually made up of material obtainable in drug stores at small cost.

"Typical of the ingenuity of these promoters," Chief Inspector Stephens relates, "a scheme operated today from outside the United States is making a lot of money advertising in mail circulars a section of dry tree root about the size of a pencil, for $15. An inch of this root soaked in a bottle of liquor for 7 days is said to provide a sure cure for impotency."

Big money makers for the quacks are so-called cures for baldness. These usually are a liquid, cream or tonic. Postal inspectors find not only are such preparations useless for growing hair, but they are often laden with bacteria and can cause infection. Inspectors have noted a strange coincidence. Almost all promoters of cures for baldness are, themselves, extremely bald.

Reducing schemes are perhaps the most lucrative of medical frauds today. Products are sold at high prices through representations making outlandish claims of weight reducing. Material that swells in the stomach, medicated chewing gum, or pills are offered with the implication that proper diet, the only known remedy, is unnecessary. The pills offered in a current promotion are guaranteed to curb the appetite. Massive doses of the pills given in tests have had no reaction whatsoever. Nonetheless, a gullible public buys them in quantity.

Several weight reducing promotions currently under investigation are grossing between $2 million and $3 million a year.

In addition to the actual loss involved in medical frauds, and the untimely deaths of persons with serious illness who pinned their hopes on useless quackery, Postmaster General Summerfield pointed out that the medical quacks are flooding homes and offices with offensive advertising relating to their products.

First class letters under seal are not subject to postal inspection and the Post Office Department is limited in what it can do to prevent such mail going into homes, until the mail quacks are discovered and put out of business. Mr. Summerfield pointed out, "However," he added, "the citizen can help protect himself and others by reporting suspected mail frauds and turning the matter received in the mails over to the postmaster or postal inspector. Such reports are welcome and are promptly investigated."

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

The Rev. and Mrs. Charles T. Hendricks, of Glenbrook, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Alice Marie Hendricks, to Vernon Sawyer Taplin, son of Mrs. Minnie Taplin and the late Alfred H. Taplin of Norfolk.

The wedding will take place on June 16th.

More and more American capital is being invested in Peru, a badly undeveloped country that is avidly encouraging free enterprise.

Announce Birth

Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Pankiewicz of Wheeling, W. Va., announce the birth of their first child, a daughter, on May 11, at North Wheeling Hospital. Mrs. Pankiewicz is the former Miss Barbara Henley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville J. Henley of Virginia Beach.

Silver Tea Benefit for Library

The Library Committee of the Princess Anne Junior Woman's Club have extended invitations to the first annual Silver Tea on May 24, 2 to 5 p. m. in the Upper Terrace Room of the Surf Beach Club.

Mrs. Joseph B. Sadler, general chairman of the committee, has announced that the directing chairmen of the various committees working toward the success of the tea are Mrs. William E. Garrison, Mrs. C. Samuel Mason, Mrs. L. C. Brennan, Mrs. Murray Yeates, Mrs. Thomas H. Caffery, Mrs. Robert S. Stroud, Mrs. Carlton Seay, and Mrs. Clyde H. Hill, Jr.

Formulated less than two years ago, the Library Committee has amalgamated its forces to work toward the building and maintenance of a new library to serve the needs of Virginia Beach and periphery areas.

VIRGINIA BEACH, VIRGINIA, THURSDAY, MAY 16, 1957

County Festival Schedule of Events

At 1 p. m. on Friday, May 17th the County Festival sponsored by the Princess Anne Ruritan Club at Aldo Farms will officially get under way to the stirring music of the Princess Anne High School Band with a 30-minute performance by the school drill team.

Events following the grand opening will include foot races and bag races for all youngsters up to age 14, an entertaining dressed pig contest in which the winner will claim the festive pig as his prize, and a calf-roping contest.

All livestock and poultry exhibits will be on display from Friday noon throughout the Festival. Judging will take place at 4 p. m. on Friday.

A horsemanship exhibition by students of Mrs. Gerry M. Ashburn will be another top event on Friday's schedule.

At 4 p. m. judging will take place and prizes will be awarded for cakes and pies made by students of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne High Schools.

During all three days of the Festival fine foods and refreshments will be on sale by members of the Ruritan Club and delicious cakes and pies may be purchased to take home.

Hobby show exhibits including knitting, painting, ceramics, crocheting and quilting and interesting flower displays will be a source of delight to all ladies and hobby lovers.

Saturday's program of events will commence at 11 a. m. and the Virginia Beach High School will provide fine band music at 12 o'clock.

At 2 p. m. the pies and cakes baked by Home Demonstration Club members will be judged and at 4 p. m. the Fashion Show will be a most interesting highlight of the day's program. Judging of the clothing made by Home Demonstration Club members will follow the Fashion Show.

Harness racing will begin at 3 p. m. and the crowd will thrill at two hours of this entertaining spectacle.

The featured attraction on Sunday afternoon will again be harness racing. All exhibitions will be on display with prize ribbons in view indicating the decisions of the judges.

In addition to the many exhibitions under the big tents, numerous individual displays in advertiser's booths will be interesting and farm machinery, etc., will also be on display.

Tickets, which may be purchased now from any Ruritan Club member are $1.50 for adults for 3 days of 75 cents for one day, and 75 cents for 3 days or 40 cents for one day for children under 12 years. They will also be available at Aldo Farms.

To reach Aldo Farms, visitors may take the Virginia Beach Boulevard to London Bridge, turn south and continue approximately three miles. The location of the Festival grounds will be indicated by signs enroute.

Preaching Mission For Virginia Beach Being Discussed

Will Virginia Beach have a Preaching Mission?

This was the question discussed by representatives of the Protestant Churches of Virginia Beach at a recent meeting held at the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd.

A great need was felt for bringing outstanding religious leaders and nationally known speakers into the community for a week of special services.

The hope was expressed that both churches and civic groups would support the proposed Preaching Mission.

The Rev. John D. Kelster, pastor of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, was named chairman of the group.

R. V. Kelster was instructed by the group to appoint a committee to explore the possibilities of working with the Norfolk Preaching Mission in securing speakers.

Jr. Gardeners to Sponsor Great Neck Horse Show

Jr. va. beach garden club

The Junior Virginia Beach Garden Club takes pleasure in sponsoring the Great Neck Junior Spring Horse Show. The event will be held Saturday, May 25 at Mrs. Gerry M. Ashburn's Riding School on the Great Neck Road located approximately three miles from London Bridge or one mile from Shore Drive. The show is an all-day affair beginning at 9:30 A.M. with lunch and cold drinks available on the grounds. There will be the usual classes in equitation and jumping events plus a variety of games including races and musical chairs played on horseback. This show should interest interesting to grownups and children alike and everyone is most welcome. The price of admission is 25c per person. In case of rain the event will take place the same time the following day, May 26.

Patrons for the show include: Mr. and Mrs. W. Peyton May, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Cromwell, Mrs. E. M. Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. Selen Grandy, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Midgett, Mr. and Mrs. James Devereux, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Bloodworth, Mr. K. C. The Steward is Mr. Robert L. Brown. The Announcer is Mr. Richard B. Spindle, 3rd. The secretary is Miss Bruce Tyler. The Ringmaster is Mr. W. W. McNeal.

For further information concerning entries call Mrs. Gerry M. Ashburn, Great Neck Stables, London Bridge telephone 595-J-2.

The proceeds from this affair will go partially to the Council of Garden Clubs and to the further beautification of 26th Street.

P. A. Garden Club Hears History Of Ornithology

Mrs. G. Bentley Byrd, president of the Princess Anne Garden Club and Mrs. J. Davis Reed, chairman of Historic Garden Week Publicity will be delegates to the annual meeting of the Garden Club of Virginia, at the Sir Walter Hotel at Virginia Beach this week.

Mrs. L. E. Burford of Norfolk, a member of the National Bird Banding Association was the guest speaker. She gave a short history of ornithology and showed slides on the Bird Life in Virginia. Mrs. Burford pointed out that all birds have a duty to perform, as for example the bob-white, who consumes all insects and is an excellent pest control.

At the meeting which was held at the home of Mrs. Maclin Simmons, Virginia Beach, Monday, May 13th, five new officers were elected. Mrs. J. Davis Reed, first vice president; Mrs. Howard Eager, third vice president; Mrs. Webster L. Thompson, recording secretary; Mrs. Oscar Smith and Miss Mary Johns will serve on the Executive Board.

"Stay in the proper lane except when passing," says our Governor's Highway Safety Committee. During 1955, 111 fatal crashes occurred involving cars in the wrong lane which were not passing. These crashes are usually very serious as they result in head-on collisions.

East Ocean View Club Plans Beautification Project

Mrs. Herman Gillis and Mrs. Cecil T. Presson were hostesses at the May meeting of the East Ocean View Garden Club, which was held Friday evening, May 10, at Allmond Hall of the East Ocean View Presbyterian Church. Mrs. M. Dudzik, first vice president, presided in the absence of Mrs. Luther B. White, president.

The speaker was Dr. Hoffmeyer from the Virginia State Experimental Station at Diamond Springs, whose subject was "Spring Spraying." He illustrated his talk with colored slides showing plant enemies and how they work.

Plans were made for the annual dinner to be held in June, date and location to be announced later.

After discussion the club voted to adopt as a project the beautification and maintenance of flower beds and suitable plantings on the grounds of Bakery A of the 550th AAA Battalion located on U. S. Highway 13, opposite the Bayside School. This project would be listed by the club in the contest sponsored by the Norfolk Chamber of Commerce and the Federation of Garden Clubs of Norfolk and vicinity.

Judges from Colonial Heights Garden Club awarded the following ribbons: Arrangements: Blue ribbons to Mrs. W. F. Appleby Jr., Mrs. George Vezakis, Mrs. A. C. Mays, Mrs. Leo P. Blair. Red ribbons to Mrs. L. C. Vohringer and Mrs. M. O'Shaughnessy. Yellow

The largest ships ever built on the Gulf Coast, two 22,770-ton luxury passenger liners now under construction at Pascagoula, Miss., will be placed in service between the U. S. and South America early in 1958.

The 36th annual convention of the Virginia Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc., will convene at the Chamberlin Hotel, Old Point Comfort, May 17-19. Prior to the opening of the convention at 2 p. m. on Friday, the State Executive Board will meet. Two planned meals are scheduled: a formal banquet on Saturday evening with Miss Margaret Bernard, Director of the Bureau of Public Assistance of New York State, and International Relations Chairman of the National Federation, as the speaker; and an Emblem Breakfast on Sunday morning with Mrs. LeRoy Ober of Norfolk as speaker.

Miss Ruth Newell, president of the local club, and Mrs. Virginia Holland, Director of District 6, will attend as members of the State Executive Board. Delegates elected at the April meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club are: Mrs. Flo White, Mrs. Aines Mabry, Mrs. Mabel Strehker, Mrs. Alma Bell, Mrs. May Kane and Mrs. Marjorie Dalton. Alternates elected are: Mrs. Nancy Strickler, Mrs. Jessie Gibbs and Mrs. Virginia Holland.

- FORT STORY TELLINGS -

SOLDIER OF THE MONTH

A career soldier with 18 years active service was named April's Soldier of the Month at Fort Story. He is Sgt. 1st Class Alfred M. Herron, training non-commissioned officer for the 561st Amphibious Truck Company.

Sergeant Herron, who lives on post with his wife, Minnie, first enlisted as a private in January, 1939, in Chicago, and took his basic training at Ft. Francis E. Warren, Wyoming. Upon completion of basic training he was assigned to the Station Complement, and took an active part in the post athletic program.

Service in the European-African-Middle East Theater during the Second World War earned for Sergeant Herron the Silver Star with Ribbon and the Bronze Star medal for valor in action against the enemy, five battle stars and the Combat Infantryman's Badge.

At the end of the war Sergeant Herron took a two-year furling at civilian life, then again enlisted in Chicago. He was sent to the Armor Center, Fort Knox, Ky., and later to Fort Eustis, Va., where he was assigned to the 561st Amphibious Truck Company. Later this unit was transferred to Fort Story.

In 1960 the 561st was sent to the Far East, and Sergeant Herron earned six more battle stars and the Korean Presidential Unit Citation while his unit was attached to the 2nd Engineer Brigade in Korea. During the Taejeon Armistice Talks the 561st furnished amphibious trucks to ferry the Peace Negotiators across the bridgeless rivers of that area. In 1962 Sergeant Herron returned to the United States and was again assigned to Fort Story.

FAR NORTH TRAINING

The Technical Exercise (TEX) that has turned Fort Story's beaches into a flurry of activity during the past four weeks is scheduled to terminate this week. The TEX, involving over 1,900 Transportation Corps soldiers from Fort Story and Fort Eustis, has been preparing the men for operations this summer in the Arctic.

Troops from these two posts will sail north in June and July to participate in operation 572 and SUNEK, supplying radar sites on the DEW Line and airbases of the Northeast Air Command.

The USNS Greenville Victory, a Military Sea Transport Service ship that has been supporting the TEX, reverted to Navy control last week after Army stevedores and landing craft crews had off-loaded her cargo. Army craft, including the Hickory Knoll, which, along with the Greenville Victory have been anchored off Fort Story for the last month, will continue to support the operations until they terminate this week. Transportation Corps troops participating in this Technical Exercise work with equipment and over terrain much like they will encounter in the Arctic. At the conclusion of the exercise, the units will devote the time remaining before their summer's journey to putting all equipment slated for the trip north into top operating condition.

VISITORS

Nine members of Troop 61, Boy Scouts of America, visited Fort Story Sunday, May 14th, with a retreat formation on the post parade ground. The Scouts were one of five groups that toured the post last week. Four classes from neighboring communities participated in tours conducted by the Information Services Division.

The Scouts, with their Scoutmaster, J. W. Wroton, and his assistants, L. B. Elanders and D. Scholtes, visited the Cape Henry Lighthouse, the post motor pool, the training area of the 461st Amphibious Truck Company, and the Nike site operated by Battery "D" of the 36th Antiaircraft Artillery. Their host and guide for the tour was Private First Class W. J. Harshbarger.

One hundred and forty youngsters from the Princess Anne Training School, 40 from J. E. B. Stuart School, and 36 children from the Kempsville School visited the Cape Henry Cross, the lighthouse, the weather station during the week two tours were scheduled this week by the Bay Lake Pines School and the Shelton Park School.

BEST MESS

A mess sergeant with a record of "firsts" now runs Fort Story's best mess! Sgt. 1st Class Herbert L. Ripley, mess steward for the 561st Transportation Company, who was the first Army mess sergeant to land in Korea in 1960, received the Best Mess award for the month of April from Lt. Col. Frederick G. Ward, Fort Story's commanding officer.

Sergeant Ripley says, "Good food well prepared in a clean mess hall will win the award almost every time." His record proves it. While he was assigned to Headquarters Company, 5th Transportation Terminal Command "B," he won the award nine out of 11 times, and in the last three months he has won it twice.

During World War II Sergeant Ripley served in the Pacific Theater and participated in five campaigns. He served with the occupation forces in Japan, and later with the occupation forces in Germany. In the Korean conflict, Sergeant Ripley served with the 21st Infantry Regiment, 24th Division. While in Korea he was awarded the Korea Presidential Unit Citation, the Bronze Star Medal for meritorious service against the enemy, and the Combat Infantryman's Badge.

In addition to his mess hall duties, Sergeant Ripley is the athletic non-commissioned officer for the 561st, and takes a very active part in the athletic progress of the post. He was the Triple Crown bowling champion last year as well as the singles and doubles table tennis champion. He managed the 561st's intrapost league-leading softball team until the unit left on a mission to the Far North last year.

The 561st is commanded by Mr. Clark Lowe. The unit is currently undergoing intensive training preparatory to participation in this summer's operations.

ARMED FORCES DAY

Amphibious equipment from Fort Story will be featured in four Armed Forces Day exhibits this weekend as Transportation Corps personnel join in a world-wide salute to our nation's men and women in uniform.

Guests at the Armed Forces Day Open House at Fort Eustis on May 18 will have an opportunity to take a ride in the world's largest amphibian, the BARC (Barge Amphibious, Resupply, Cargo), as well as in a DUKW, the Army's famous swimming truck. A BARC and 12 of the smaller amphibians will be on display at Fort Eustis' Third Port Area.

A BARC and two DUKWs will be exhibited to visitors at the Norfolk Naval Air Station Saturday, while two DUKWs and a cutaway amphibious truck will be on display at the open house at Oceana Naval Air Station. The cutaway, a full size DUKW with section of its water-tight hull removed to expose its unique construction and equipment, is normally used as a training aid by the 461st Amphibious Truck Company to teach budding DUKW drivers the inside story on their equipment.

The "Superduck," big brother to the DUKW, and two of the conventional amphibious trucks made a journey to Washington, D. C., early in the week, and will be on display at an all-Armed Forces exhibit this weekend at Andrews Air Force Base.

NEW CONSTRUCTION

New construction at this Cape Henry Transportation Corps post is proceeding as scheduled, according to the Post Engineer's office. Chief among the projects under construction are a BARC maintenance building, Capehart Housing project, and a water tank.

The BARC shed, which is being constructed by a platoon from the 97th Engineers, Fort Belvoir, Va., will house a consignment of the huge amphibians expected for delivery this summer.

The Capehart project being erected east of the parade ground will furnish living quarters for 150 Fort Story families. Separate quarters for the post commander and deputy post commander are being constructed on a site near the weather station, overlooking Chesapeake Bay.

Construction of the water tank is completed, with only the chlorination and testing remaining to be done before it is put into service.

NAVY VISIT

Shore Party commanders and Staff Non-commissioned Officers from the Landing Force Training Unit, Atlantic, of Little Creek Naval Amphibious Base received an indoctrination tour of amphibious training at Fort Story last week.

The group of 15 officers and 20 enlisted men observed training being conducted here for Operation 572. They also witnessed a demonstration of Transportation Corps amphibious equipment—the BARC, the Landing Craft Retriever, and landing craft.

Lt. Owen B. Johnson of the Plans and Training Staff (S-3), 5th Transportation Terminal Command "B," the escort officer for the group, briefed the visitors on 572 training, preparatory to their visit.

BEST SUPPLY

For the third straight month the red pennant signifying the Best Supply Room in the 5th Transportation Terminal Command "B" flies outside the Headquarters Company Supply room. Master Sgt. Hubun W. Bell, supply sergeant, received the flag and a citation from Lt. Col. Frederick G. Ward, post commander, in a short ceremony this week.

Sergeant Bell, with 14 years of Army supply experience behind him, has turned his supply room into a model of efficiency and neatness. Headquarters Company, commanded by Mr. Irving Rosenfeld, is composed of troops with administration and logistical duties at post level.

County Home Demonstration Luncheon Held

The various Home Demonstration Clubs of Princess Anne County were well represented recently at a luncheon held at the Pine Tree Inn in observance of National Home Demonstration Week.

The first club was organized in the county in 1946 and since then 17 clubs have formed with a membership of approximately 500 women to date.

Mrs. F. E. Volker, county president, welcomed the members and introduced Mrs. N. L. Hedrick of Norfolk County, district president, and Mrs. C. G. Skinner of Princess Anne County, district vice president, guest of the day.

The invocation was given by Mrs. R. W. Couch of the London Bridge Club.

Mrs. Elizabeth D. Deal, County Agent, spoke briefly on club work. County officers attending the luncheon in addition to Mrs. Volker were Mrs. R. W. Brubaker, secretary and Mrs. J. M. Williams, treasurer. Also present were two past presidents, Mrs. W. F. McClanahan and Mrs. T. C. Hunter.

Plans were made at this meeting to hold an annual luncheon each year.

The super-carrier USS Forrestal is almost 10 stories high, keel to flight deck, with a five-story superstructure, giving it an overall height of approximately 15 stories.

What a banana is the banana! Because it is so packed with fruit sugars, vitamins and minerals and has such satisfying bulk, life could actually be sustained for a considerable time if the cupboard were bare of all but bananas. This fruit is so easily digested that it forms a staple diet for convalescents, and hospitals give it (mashed and strained) to babies ready for a first adventure with solid food.

The banana is also a morale-boosting ally for fighters of the battle of the bulge. While its natural "fillingness" gives that "I've dined well today" feeling it is actually so low in fat that its nourishment and energy providing qualities are a calorie bargain. Bananas, the tropical treat, have been a favorite since long before Alexander the Great and his cohorts found them growing in abundance some 327 years before Christ in the Valley of the Indus, and they have won honorable mentions in many ancient writings of the Orient.

For good taste and nutrient efficiency, the banana can go it alone better than most foods but there is nothing prima donna about its nature; it is completely cooperative. Its mild, sweet flavor teams with the tartness of strawberries and citrus fruit juices in gourmet desserts, and the banana bakes beautifully with honey or currant jelly or brown sugar to accompany pork, ham or fowl. When bananas are to be relished raw — sliced over morning cereal, eaten out of hand, cut up in compotes or sliced in salads — choose them according to your personal taste. Some like them yellow with just a little green on the tip while many prefer them fully yellow and flecked with brown spots. When they are to be fried, roasted, or baked, bananas may be a bit "left" of ripe, slightly green at the tip or even with considerable green area.

The United Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Association suggests these varied ways to prepare the adaptable banana — delicious and nutritious the day-long, and obligingly available the year around.

Bananas in Fruit Sauce
3 medium bananas, peeled and sliced thinly
1/2 cup fresh strawberry puree
1/2 cup fresh orange juice
1 to 2 tablespoons sugar
Fresh whole strawberries for garnish

Place sliced bananas in sherbet glasses. Combine strawberry puree, orange juice and sugar to taste. Pour over sliced bananas. Chill and serve. Garnish each serving with a whole fresh strawberry.
YIELD: 4 servings.

* Press 1 cup fresh strawberries through a fine sieve.

Bananas, Brazilian Style
6 medium bananas
1/2 cup fresh orange juice
1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice
1/4 cup brown sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons butter or margarine

1 cup grated fresh coconut
Peel and cut bananas in half lengthwise. Place in a buttered casserole. Combine orange and lemon juice, sugar and salt. Pour over bananas. Dot with butter or margarine. Bake in a preheated hot oven (400° F.) 10 to 15 minutes. Remove from oven and sprinkle with grated fresh coconut. Serve as dessert. YIELD: 6 servings.

Banana Whip
3 medium bananas, peeled and sliced
3 egg whites, unbeaten
1/4 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons sugar
1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract
1/2 cup heavy cream, whipped
18 lady fingers
Grated nutmeg for garnish
Place first 5 ingredients in the small bowl of an electric mixer. Beat with electric beater until stiff. Fold in whipped cream. Stand 3 lady fingers around the sides of deep sherbet glasses. Add banana whip. Garnish with grated nutmeg. YIELD: 6 servings.

FRESH FRUIT TIPS
Baked Bananas in Fresh Orange Juice
Peel and place whole bananas in a baking dish. Pour 2 tablespoons fresh orange juice and 1 teaspoon fresh lemon juice over each banana. Bake in a preheated hot oven (400° F.) 10 to 15 minutes. Serve as a meat accompaniment.

Baked Bananas with Honey
Peel and cut bananas in half lengthwise. Arrange in a shallow baking dish. Sprinkle 1 tablespoon strained honey mixed with 1 teaspoon fresh lemon juice over each banana. Bake in a preheated hot oven (400° F.) 10 to 15 minutes. Serve as a meat accompaniment or for dessert.

Baked Bananas in Currant Jelly
Peel and cut bananas in half lengthwise. Arrange in a shallow baking dish. Mix 1 1/2 teaspoons currant jelly, 1/2 teaspoon butter or margarine and 1 teaspoon hot water together. Pour over each banana. Bake in a preheated hot oven (400° F.) 10 to 15 minutes. Serve as a meat accompaniment.

Baked Bananas in Brown Sugar
Peel and cut bananas in half lengthwise. Arrange in a shallow baking dish. Combine 1 tablespoon brown sugar, 1 teaspoon fresh lemon juice and 2 teaspoons melted butter or margarine. Pour over each banana. Bake in a preheated hot oven (400° F.) 10 to 15 minutes or until lightly browned. Serve as a meat accompaniment or dessert.

AND WHAT WILL THEY FIND INSIDE?

- Here's a handsome, happy family marching through the open doors of a church. But what will they find inside?
- A lovely sanctuary? Perhaps. A congenial group of people? Perhaps. An inspiring sermon and beautiful music? Perhaps. All these may be possibly find inside. But here is what they will certainly find.
- A group of people banded together by a common faith for a common purpose ...
- Assurance that there is a God who cares and loves ...
- Direction for the perplexities that each day brings ...
- A demand to live as God would have them live ...
- A grasp at the divine sources of faith, hope and love.

And if you go to church next Sunday, that's what YOU'LL certainly find too!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest loyalty the earth has; the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

"SERVING VIRGINIA'S FASTEST GROWING COUNTY"

Financial Position of City Sound; Durham

City Auditor F. M. Durham, Jr. told the Virginia Beach City Council Monday that the city is in a sound financial position and that he resented the false impression created in the minds of the public by headlines and publicity contained in a local weekly newspaper recently.

Durham spoke to Council at its regular meeting and he stated, in reply to a question from a press representative, that the newspaper he had reference to is the Princess Anne Free Press, which, he said, gives the impression the city is bankrupt at a time when the city is marketing some $700,000 in bonds which were approved by the voters in two recent elections.

At one point the City Auditor addressed his remarks directly to Councilman W. C. Everett for a statement printed in a Norfolk newspaper and made in a council meeting last week. The statement quoted Everett as saying that he would not have voted for certain appropriations recently had he known the financial condition of the city.

Durham pointed out that his office prepares a monthly financial statement and that with the exception of two or three months copies have been furnished to Council. He said the exception months were due to repairs to the city's accounting machines and a shorthanded in office assistance.

"I have read implications that the city's financial condition is bad," Durham said. "The city is not bankrupt," and he added that "it is a tribute to Council that while it has been forced to operate at a deficit since 1954, neither has the city's financial condition increased. There are few, if any, cities where this is true," he stated.

Durham pointed out that for the past two years Council has made numerous appropriations which were not included in the adopted budget. He pointed out that these over-budget expenditures had been unanimously passed by Council with the exception of one small appropriation.

Durham stated that he rarely spoke at council meetings since he felt his primary duty was keeping the city's fiscal records and that when he did speak before Council in September, 1954, Councilman W. W. McClellan, Jr., told him to say what he had to say and sit down. McClellan said his memory was not good enough to recall the incident.

The City Auditor said the total deficit is now about $300,000, but with refinancing on short term notes the deficit should be repaid in 1960 and 1961. If present conditions continue, Debt retirement requirements will down below a quarter of a million dollars annually by 1968, he added.

Councilman Frank D. Tarrall, Jr. and John W. McClellan backed up Durham's statements. McClellan said, "we are definitely not in bad financial shape and adverse publicity will affect us badly."

Tarrall said that the public is entitled to all information about a city's operations, but that "we have a duty not to hurt our city." The "Caution Report" also came in for comment at the meeting. This is the engineering report made by James A. Caution to the city relative to possible contamination of North Virginia Beach. He pointed out that the city was not financially able to annex and also commented on the fact that the city was unique in not raising taxes in recent years.

Durham, in answer to a question, said the "Caution report is substantially correct. His comments are his own."

In other actions, council approved on final reading amendments to the license code having to do with cigarette vending machines, newstands, radio and other services. The council changed a proposed raising of license fee for laundry and dry cleaning and put on first reading a revised license for laundries and dry cleaners. This calls for a $50 flat fee up to $5,000 of gross and .08 of one per cent tax on each $1000 above the $5000.

Cavalier Beach And Cabana Club To Open May 30

Sparked with a schedule of popular and hit songs, The Cavalier Beach and Cabana Club officially opens Thursday, May 30th for the 1957 season, according to Sidney Banks, President of The Cavalier Jefferson Corporation.

Alan Holmes and His Orchestra coming directly from a long engagement at The Boca Raton Club in Boca Raton, Florida is slated to "strike up the band" Thursday evening for the send-off of this season and play the first two weeks' engagement at the Beach Club.

On June 14th through the 27th, Steve Fisher and His Orchestra take over with the following booking for the remainder of the season: June 28th through July 15th Russ Carlyle and His Orchestra.

VEPCO Plans Open House at New Virginia Beach Office

On Tuesday, May 28, the Virginia Electric and Power Company invites the public to an "Open House" at the company's new Virginia Beach Area office and service headquarters at 310 - 18th Street.

"Open House at the new office building will be observed from 3:30 P.M. to 6:00 P.M. Charles L. Sale, Virginia Beach Area manager, said that all interested persons will be welcome. Guided tours will be conducted through the building for those who desire, and those who wish may browse through the building. Sale stated: Company personnel will be stationed throughout the building to explain the various pieces of equipment and the work of the company.

Refreshments will be served in the modern and up-to-date Electric Living Centre and, in addition, small gifts will be given to both children and adult visitors, the Vepco manager declared.

There will be displayed unusual and interesting electrical equipment and there will be exhibits of useful household appliances in the Electric Living Centre. Visitors are also invited to view the surrounding yard and grounds.

County School Board Using New Building Method at Savings

Princess Anne County is building its school buildings for approximately one-fifth less than by conventional means thanks to a Princess Anne County steel fabricating firm.

The lower cost construction was developed by the J. K. Parker company on Virginia Beach boulevard. It involves a series of steel panels. The type of construction came in for discussion at Tuesday's meeting of the Princess Anne County School Board.

It also will be used on the new Aragona Village School on which the School Board will open bids at 3 p.m. June 6, School Supt. Frank W. Cox told the board at a monthly meeting yesterday.

He commented the construction budget for the Aragona School is about $400,000. Under conventional construction methods, he said, the budget probably would have run to about $600,000.

Use of the steel panels, therefore, would amount to a saving of about 20 per cent.

Cox also told the board that 37 additional instructional personnel had been placed under contract since the board's April meeting, for the school system during the 1957-58 term.

Thirty-three colleges and universities in Virginia, North Carolina and West Virginia were visited in the search for personnel for the next term, he said.

At this point, the superintendent said, there are fewer remaining vacancies than at a corresponding time last year.

The board confirmed appointments of the 37 persons Cox listed as being placed under contract since the April board session.

The board's next regular meeting will be held Tuesday, June 18, at 2 p.m. in the superintendent's office.

Supervisors to Protest Change in Utility Tax

The Princess Anne County Board of Supervisors will voice their protest to a proposed change in the State Corporation Commission's assessment ratio for public utility property, according to action taken by the Board at its meeting last Monday.

The Supervisors instructed their executive secretary, Richard J. Webber, to draft a resolution of protest to be sent to the State Corporation Commission.

The state organization has proposed to end its 40 per cent ratio assessment of utility property and to use instead the assessment ratio of the political subdivisions in which such property is located.

Such a move would cost the county thousands of dollars annually. The county now assesses private property at approximately 15 per cent of its actual value.

The board agreed on the resolution after Webber advised the members that other communities were seeking support of this county in a protest move. He did not identify the other communities, however.

In action on matters coming from the Planning Commission, the board approved the location of a television transmitting tower near Kempsville provided approval is given by the Civil Aeronautics Administration. It also approved an amendment to the county's master zoning plan limiting filling stations to general commercial districts. Use permits for a cemetery near Princess Anne Courthouse and a bowling alley near Little Creek were refused.

Former Winner Of Auto Contest Beach Resident

A Virginia Beach resident is a former grand prize winner of an automobile subscription contest similar to the contest being sponsored by the Virginia Beach Sun-News, which closes this Saturday.

The former grand prize automobile winner is John P. Winn, Jr., who resides on Raleigh Drive in Virginia Beach. Winn won his automobile a few years back, but the present Sun-News contest has brought back fond memories.

A 1912 Kline Kar, a five passenger, four cylinder, forty horsepower equipped with wire wheels, was the grand award in the Richmond Times-Dispatch contest won by Winn.

Winn was a lad of twelve when he won the new automobile. He had originally entered the contest in the part that had a pony for first prize. However, near the close of the contest he switched over to the automobile part of the contest.

Winn won over adults in the 1912 contest. He says the Sun-News contest almost tempted him to enter but he was afraid of the girls who seem to be the front runners in the present contest.

As a youngster Winn was thrilled when his name was printed in headlines as the winner of the automobile.

Awards Made At 3:00 P. M.

With the big Automobile and Cash Offer subscription contest of The Sun-News ending this Saturday at 12 o'clock noon, contestants are now on the home stretch, putting forth every effort to win one of the four grand awards. The awards will be made Saturday at 3:00 p.m. at the Sun-News office.

The winners will be announced when the votes have been counted. Judges will be J. W. Wood, senior vice-president of Colonial Stores; George T. Mullen, vice-president and cashier, Bank of Virginia Beach; and E. R. Amburn, assistant cashier, National Bank of Commerce.

Was Big Week
It was predicted that last week would be a big week and it was. More subscriptions were turned in last week than any one week of the contest. The final lap will extend last week by far.

It should be remembered that the Ford has not been won yet—this week's reports will decide the winner, said R. W. Amburn, executive manager.

"The public is urged to help their favorite in these last days of the campaign," he said. Here are the big prizes:

First—A 1957 Ford under seal; second—$500 in cash; third—$250 in cash; fourth—$150 in cash. Active contestants who do not win a big award will receive commissions. See commission rules in campaign advertisement.

The judges will go over the record of sales made by all contestants and from the records determine the winners. Presentation of the awards will be made Saturday afternoon after the judging has been completed. All contestants are asked by the management to be present on this occasion at the Sun-News office. All prizes and commissions will be paid at that time.

Now Is Time
Alert contestants know that this is the time to work for new or resale subscriptions. Subscribers will be glad to obtain the Sun-News for an additional two years or longer and save bothering with subscribing each year. (See your favorite contestant whose name appears on page 1 and subscribe today.)

Councilman Tarrall Speaks Out for Small Businessman

City Councilman Frank D. Tarrall, Jr. went to bat for the small businessman at last Monday's City Council meeting here.

Tarrall spoke out for the smaller merchant in an discussion of the proposed license tax on the dry cleaning and laundry operators.

After hearing H. T. "Pie" Garrison, a local dry cleaner, point out the inequity in the proposed license tax between the small operator and the larger ones, Tarrall spoke out.

"We want to be fair to all concerned," Tarrall said, "and it appears that our thinking at present would work a hardship on the little man."

As a result Tarrall proposed a change in the original plan of taxing dry cleaners and laundries. The Council passed on first reading the new scale of license tax for this industry.

The new tax would place a $50 fee on these businesses for the first $5,000 of gross business and three-tenths of one per cent on each additional $1,000 of business.

The Tarrall motion seemed to please both the larger operators and the small ones.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN

Mrs. William J. Hudgins Jr., president of the Women of the Church of First Presbyterian Church, Virginia Beach, announces that Dr. Wade H. Boggs Jr. will speak at the general meeting on June 4, at 11 a. m. in the church.

Dr. Boggs, professor of English Bible and Christian Doctrine at the Presbyterian Assembly's Training School, Richmond, Va., will have as his topic "Faith Healing and the Christian Faith" which is also the title and topic of a book he has recently published. The basic teachings of the Bible, their relation to faith healing, and the place of miracles in healing will all be discussed. After Dr. Boggs' talk, there will be a time for questions and further discussion.

Anyone who is interested in joining in a discussion on our Christian faith and faith healing is cordially invited to attend the meeting.

Cancer Society Presents Awards

On Thursday, May 16th, the Princess Anne Unit of the American Cancer Society had a special gathering to present citations to members of the Service Program in appreciation of their outstanding work for the unit. The citations, which were presented by Mrs. Sidney Kollman and Mrs. Margaret Tompkins, were awarded to 50 individuals.

At this meeting a bedside radio, in memory of Mattie Bishop Trent, and an adjustable bedside table, in memory of Anne Cobb Tatem, were added to the Unit's Loan Closet.

Seaboard School News

By ALICE SOMERVILLE

Hi, Sunday May 12 was Mother's Day. I hope you remembered Mother in some special way such as a card, a gift or some deed of kindness. The fourth grade division, Miss Verlin Hawkins teacher, did. The Little Ladies Social Club and the Blue Jays dressed in their prettiest costumes entertained their parents Sunday at 4:45 p. m. in our school auditorium. These two clubs went all the way to make this a big Mother's Day Tea. They entertained 130 parents and friends with colorful songs, dances, poems and refreshments.

Mrs. Louise Shaw was crowned Mother's Day Queen. Her attendants were Mrs. Maude Hogard and Mrs. Mary Britt. Miss Bertha Caffee, Class Mother, received a lovely gift.

Many parents expressed how they enjoyed this affair.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Wesley Peace, Mr. and Mrs. William Holmes and Miss Vivian Holmes.

We were invited to the Princess Anne County Training School on Thursday, May 9. They had open house. We saw many displays in the field of art, science and the language arts. We saw many of our former classmates and teachers.

Our team played the Princess Anne County Training School baseball team, on Friday. The score was 11-6 in favor of the Princess Anne County School team.

Polio injections will be given to those children who received their first injection on April 30, 1957, on May 24, 1957.

Cape Henry-by-the-Sea Garden Club Holds Installation of Officers

The May Meeting of the Cape Henry-by-the-Sea Garden Club was held May 15, at the Cavalier Hotel with their annual luncheon and installation of officers.

The luncheon was served on the south veranda overlooking the garden. Mrs. Pauline Batley was general chairman. Honored guests, Mrs. August H. Culpepper, vice president of the Virginia Federation of Garden Clubs, Mrs. Gustav Schneider, director and past president of the Tidewater District, Virginia Federation of Garden Clubs. Other guests present: Mrs. C. M. Gilling of Windsor, N. C., Mrs. Paul Gailup, Mrs. H. Garrett Smith and Mrs. Collis Acliss.

After the luncheon, Mrs. Culpepper and Mrs. Schneider spoke on club work and gave a very interesting report of the Virginia Federation of Garden Clubs convention held May 6, 7 and 8 at the John Marshall Hotel, Richmond.

Mrs. Schneider installed the new officers. Mrs. Delmar John Dee Sr., retiring president, was presented with a president's pin, which is sponsored by the National Council of State Garden Clubs. The members voted to give Mrs. Dee a life membership in the National Council Permanent Home.

The new officers installed: President, Mrs. Maurice W. Nordlinger; vice president, Mrs. Pauline Batley; second vice president, Mrs. James Burrell; recording secretary, Mrs. James J. Standring; treasurer, Mrs. Robert Cherry; Historian, Mrs. Delmar J. Dee Sr.

Library Group Plans Tea

Junior Woman's Club Plans Tea Friday; To Be Annual Event

The Library Committee of the Princess Anne Jr. Women's Club will entertain with its first Annual Tea, on Friday, May 24, 2-5 P.M. in the Upper Terrace Room of the Surf Beach Club.

Mrs. Joseph B. Sadler, chairman of the group, met with her committee heads, to complete final arrangements today.

Guests of honor at Friday's party will include the leading citizenry of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County.

The committee, serving under the direction of the Junior Women, is working towards a goal of a minimum of $50,000 for the construction of a library building to be made available for the community. Already several sizeable contributions to this cause have been made by civic clubs and by individuals.

John Fentress Is Commended

County Clerk John V. Fentress has been commended by State Auditor J. Gordon Bennett for the "excellent" preparation of his 1956 county and Circuit Court records. The audit report from Bennett said Fentress "has made full accounting for all funds of record" during the calendar year 1956.

The clerk's office collected $253,936 in taxes, fees and other costs for the Commonwealth, $30,898 for the county and $1,437 for Virginia Beach.

This was $35,477 above the amount allowed for salaries and expenses of the office. The amount is refunded to the state, but two-thirds of it comes back to the county.

Captain Smith to Speak at Dinner

The main speaker for the semi-annual Chamber of Commerce Dinner Meeting, Captain Russell H. Smith, USN, is at present CO of the Naval Amphibious Test and Evaluating Unit, U. S. Naval Amphibious Base at Little Creek.

Captain Smith who has seen service in Africa, the European Theater, Middle East and Pacific Theater has among his decorations the Legion of Merit and the Bronze Star.

Very versatile in his interests and activities, Captain Smith sings in the choir at the Amphibious Base Chapel, participates in the plays of the Little Creek Players and has been the author of several articles published in the Naval Institute.

The Virginia Beach Chamber of Commerce semi-annual dinner meeting is scheduled with a buffet at 8:30 p. m. on June 3rd at the Cavalier. Harold Keilam, president of the Chamber, will introduce the guest speaker for the evening. The public is invited and reservations may be made at the Chamber of Commerce, phone 302.

Linkhorn Park P-TA to Meet

The monthly meeting of the Linkhorn Park P-TA will be held Monday, May 27th at 8 p. m. in the school auditorium.

Parents will be eager to attend to see the achievements made by the students in each class which will be displayed in the rooms.

Frank Cox, Superintendent of Public Schools in Princess Anne County, will install the newly elected officers:

H. B. Tatem Jr., president; Wynn Price, vice president; Mrs. Nell Taylor, recording secretary; Mrs. Bryon J. Dunthorn, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Henry Jeffery Jr., treasurer.

Following the program a reception will be held for parents and teachers.

The library and playground still need new equipment. To reap proceeds for the said items an old fashioned carnival has been planned for May 30th from 5 p. m. to 8 p. m. Mrs. R. R. Crutchfield is general chairman and promises all of the thrills of the "big tent" for the children plus a country store for adults. Could you think of a more profitable way to spend Memorial Day evening — swelling the funds for Linkhorn Park?

EDITORIALLY SPEAKING

City Auditor Durham Speaks Out

City Auditor F. M. Durham, Jr., had his say about the financial condition of the City of Virginia Beach and particularly about a statement attributed to City Councilman W. C. Everett concerning his knowledge of the city's fiscal affairs. The scene took place at the regular council meeting last Monday afternoon.

The City Auditor also was critical of a local weekly newspaper for what he termed adverse publicity that tended to create the wrong impression of the city's financial status at the present time.

Councilman Everett was taken for a statement published in a Norfolk paper where he said, in effect, that had he known the financial condition of the City he would not have voted for certain appropriations. The article stated he did not wish to name the appropriate.

Auditor Durham, directing his remarks to Everett and his statement of his lack of knowledge of the city's financial affairs, was reminded that members of Council are furnished a monthly financial statement and that, to his knowledge, only once since Everett had been on Council had he (Everett) sought any information from his office.

Durham told Council that the city was in a good financial position and that short term borrowing at the present time against anticipated revenue was not unusual. He said it was a tribute to the city and the council that it has operated over the past several years without raising taxes.

The City Auditor condemned newspaper publicity that he felt might adversely affect the interest rate on the forthcoming sale of bonds. His condemnation was based on the fact that the impression created by this type publicity did not present the true picture of the city's financial position. He reiterated time and again that the city was in good financial shape and should not be pictured as near bankruptcy as some people would have you believe.

When Councilman W. W. McClanahan, Jr., suggested that Durham report each month at the council meeting, either in writing or orally, Durham reminded the Councilman that the last time he spoke to Council at one of their meetings in 1954 it was McClanahan who told him (Durham) to say what he had to say and sit down. McClanahan, apparently taken aback by Durham's remark, said he couldn't remember the incident.

The remarks between the City Auditor and Everett and McClanahan were side issues to the main point at stake. Durham wanted it known that the city's finances are in good shape and we believe he got his point over despite publicity from some quarters to the contrary.

A Proposal with Merit

While the 350th Jamestown Anniversary celebration is well underway here in Virginia and is attracting visitors from all parts of the United States there is much publicity being given to the voyage to this country of a ship, which is a replica of the famed "Mayflower."

The "Mayflower" is slowly making its way across the Atlantic from England and is scheduled to dock in New England. With this in mind and with the three Jamestown ships on display in Virginia waters a proposal has been offered that has quite a bit of merit.

The "Susan Constant," the "Godspeed" and the "Discovery" were the ships sailed by the first English colonists, who landed first at Cape Henry in 1607. This was some 19 years prior to the "Mayflower" voyage which ended at Plymouth in Massachusetts.

Why not send one of the Virginia Ships to serve as a greeting party for the "Mayflower." It would be very much in keeping since these ships were on this shore almost 20 years before the Pilgrims in New England.

We believe the proposition is worthy of comment and discussion. It would certainly be a natural from a publicity standpoint, if for no other reason. However, the idea is much more than a publicity stunt and deserves some serious consideration.

A 31st Street Area Welcome

This week the merchants and business houses in the 31st street shopping area have joined together in a full page advertisement welcoming the Virginia Beach office of the National Bank of Commerce to the area. It is a fine display of friendliness and good neighborliness.

Not only are the merchants in the 31st street shopping area proud of the new National Bank of Commerce home, but the entire community can take pride in this fine new building. Its beauty and magnificent architectural design is another fine addition to the Virginia Beach picture.

Tarrall Backs Small Businessman

City Councilman Frank D. Tarrall, Jr., came to the rescue of the small businessman in last Monday's City Council session when he offered a new proposal in the scale of license tax for laundry and dry cleaning firms.

Tarrall took up the cause of the smaller operator when it appeared that the license tax on firms engaged in the dry cleaning and laundry business here would carry a burden in relation to the larger firms engaged in the same business.

The alert city councilman offered a motion that would place a license fee of $50 for the first $5000 of gross business on dry cleaners and laundries and after that figure the tax would be three-tenths of one percent on each additional $1000 of gross business. Quick figuring revealed that this would not reduce the city's income and would actually be fair to the smaller firms as well as the larger ones.

Tarrall was quick to come to the defense of small business and we feel this attitude is good for our city. It certainly should be comforting to the merchants and business people here to know that we are being served on the city council by men alert to the many problems of the little businessman.

Wear a Buddy Poppy in Memory of War Dead

This will be the appeal of the thing to do, but a thing with a woman of the American Legion big meaning. That poppy over Auxiliary to everyone in Virginia your heart means that you remember Beach, Princess Anne County on her with gratitude those young Poppy day May 23. They will be men who died in our nations defense on the downtown streets throughout the world.

The poppies have been made of flowers of memory to all who cruse paper and wire by disabled who wear them in tribute to those Veterans in the Veterans hospitals and convalescent workrooms. Each wearing a poppy is a little one is handmade in replica of the wild European poppy which bloomed in the desolation of the battlefields and cemeteries in France and Belgium. Making the poppies provides months of beneficial and remunerative occupation for thousands of hospitalized veterans.

Don't let this annual parade of paper poppies pass you by. Wear one, as a practical way to give to those who gave for you!

trim. The building has an area of approximately 6,000 square feet of floor space, and customer and visitor parking is provided on the one acre site.

Temperature control requirements are met by heat pump units that serve the dual purposes of cooling in warm weather and warming in cold weather.

An auditorium capable of seating 40 persons features a modern, up-to-date Electric Living Centre for use of Vepco home service personnel in demonstrating food preparation before various groups.

Other interior space is provided for meter and service personnel, supervisory offices, accounting, engineering and sales personnel. Two line crews and five servicemen comprise 31 members of a normal force of 37 employees.

The interior decorating was planned by a committee of Virginia Beach employees and features gay colors and modern furnishings.

In addition to improved storage space for equipment, an electrical operated jib crane has been provided for easy handling of utility poles and transformers to further improve service to customers.

Chief advantages of the new headquarters for Vepco operations are the consolidation of facilities at a single location and a general increase of working space which will enable the company to better serve its 11,000 customers in the Virginia Beach Area, so that they may Live Better Electrically.

P. A. Ruritan Festival in Review

By Lucy Leigh

Everyone who missed the Princess Anne Ruritan's "County Festival" missed a real treat. The entire program was brimming full of fun & food and interesting features from the time the band played the opening number on Friday until the Festival closed on late Sunday afternoon.

Hot Off to Bill Kellam, the general chairman, the hard working chairman I ever saw and his entire committee. Johnny Vaughan Club Praxy was right there to lend a helping hand to every committee.

Don't you forget, a lot of hard work went into the "getting ready" for the Festival. Roy De Hart & George Holmes & their building boys; Jack Etheridge & Ralph Midgett, the Home Racing Committee; geel the races were exciting, Jack Malbon, all over Aldo Farms - Kermit Land, booth chairman; Frank Kellam and Tommy Thompson, program advertising; Jim Darden, ticket & gate chairman; Wallace Clark, food chairman & his committee; Maury Rikanto, publicity; Louise Murden, Inez Garrett, Helen Spence (They're not Ruritans but nice Ruritan's wives) committee for cakes & pies, also for arranging Pie & Cake contests & Home Demonstration Clubs Fashion Show, Mercy me! I know I've forgotten many more, helping hands, but one I remember well, the nice Paul Sutton, I saw him helping everywhere he could but I don't know what committee he was on—Oh! yes—Charlie Spence and Pat Goodwin, the electrical committee; everytime Lucille Clark yelled "Charlie lights out, gotta have 'em, the ice cream'll melt," Charlie or Pat came a running. Every single chairman and committee man did a swell job.

Blair Myers was in charge of the Livestock & Poultry Exhibit and that was excellent. By the way, "Doc" Aydtel was busy in his department too, what was he doing? Well, you should have been there and seen for yourself. Now—without Aldo Farms there wouldn't have been a Festival - so everyone is saying "Thanks Mr. Al Taylor" for letting the club have the Festival at Aldo Farms. Hats off too, to Ivan Mapp, ground chairman and his committee for taking such good care of Aldo Farms; last but not least—to Cameron, Munden and his committee for the difficult job of parking cars.

For those of you who didn't take time to attend the Festival, here are just a few of the events you missed. Friday, the Princess Anne High School Band opened the Festival with a 30 minute concert & Drill performance. There were foot & bag races for all youngsters up to 14 years. There was a greased pig contest, and a calf roping contest.

Mrs. Gerry M. Ashburn's Students gave a fine Horse Show.

Saturday's program included a concert by the Princess Anne Elementary Band, Pie & Cake Baking Contests by the members of Princess Anne & Virginia Beach High Schools, also by members of the Home Demonstration Clubs. A Fashion Show, by the Home Demonstration Club's Members, modelling lovely outfits they made themselves. The winners were Mrs. T. S. Moore, of Lynnhaven; Mrs. J. W. Van Hoes of London Bridge and Mrs. Ray Whitley of London Bridge.

Harness racing began about 3:30 and it was really exciting. The clouds sorta betta low on Sunday morning and the Good Lord sent some much needed rain—but it wasn't long before the sun shown brightly and the rain for which everyone was so grateful was a big help. It settled the dust on the race track - and I'm sure the boys taking tickets at the gate were mighty happy too, for the dust had just about covered them.

The food booth was busy most all of the time, during the Festival - Barbecue, Hot Dogs, Chicken Salad Sandwiches; Strawberry Shortcake - Ice Cream popicles and that good ice cold Coca Cola made the little folks mighty happy - were selling fast. Seattles Merry-go-Round — time.

Fresh strawberry time again! Yes it is. Don't you know that fresh strawberries just make the Chiffon Cream Pie - perfect?

Dr. William Butler, a famous 16th century physician, had this to say about the strawberry: "Doubtless God could have made a better berry, but doubtless God never did." If Dr. Butler were alive today, he would find far finer berries than any the 16th century ever knew, for modern nurserymen have succeeded in developing even more delicious varieties.

Chiffon Cream Pie Compliments Fruits

And yet the humble wild Virginia strawberry is probably the granddaddy of them all! This berry (Fragaria Virginiana) introduced into cultivation early in the 18th Century, and blended with other species, especially a Chilean one, is the forefather of the vast majority of horticultural varieties cultivated in America.

Last year the Old Virginia Packing Company, of Front Royal, Virginia, celebrated its Golden Anniversary. The company honored the strawberry, particularly the Virginia Strawberry by holding a "Strawberry Festival" all through May & the first half of June. Probably you remember - the company offered their complete line of Pure Fruit Strawberry Preserves - through their dealers, as a special promotion. I will remember it, for I took advantage of the promotion & stocked up - on them.

Strawberries are always for and away first choice with the public; they are the most important small - fruit crop grown in the United States, and about 35% of all commercial preserves are strawberry preserves. Old Virginia preserves are truly wonderful. They are made from varieties that have high flavor and are naturally firm, so that they can safely be allowed to attain their full red color before picking - a light, bright red, so that they not turn too dark after preserving. You'll really find all the natural perfection is captured in these Old Virginia Strawberry Preserves!

Commencing in Florida & the Mississippi Delta during February, the strawberry season travels northward in seasons of 3 - 8 weeks to Canada, where it closes in late July. During their all - too-brief stay, most folks prefer to enjoy strawberries fresh. But everybody can enjoy them all year round in the form of Pure Fruit Strawberry Preserves - and you can thank Old Virginia for them.

I want to give you the recipe for the Chiffon Cream Pie so you can try it - real soon.

Chiffon cream pie starts with custard ingredients... eggs, milk, sugar. Then unflavored gelatin enters the picture, and the firm texture of custard is transformed to an airy, meltingly light one. Nor is any baking necessary since the gelatin is added to a quick custard which has merely been thickened over boiling water. Whipped cream and beaten egg whites folded into the filling give smoothness and height which the gelatin captures and holds safe for taste enjoyment.

BROWNIES RECEIVE WINGS

Twenty Brownie Scouts from Troop 231 in Kempsville spread their "wings" and flew up into Intermediate Girl Scouting.

This big step in the lives of these girls took place Friday, May 17th at the Kempsville Baptist Church.

Proceeding the "Fly-Up" ceremony, was a pot luck supper for the girls and their families.

Special guests for the evening were Mrs. Hugh M. Miller, District Director of Girl Scouting for Princess Anne County; Mrs. J. D. Gregory, Kempsville Neighborhood Chairman, and her daughter, Miss Mary Carol Gregory; Mr. and Mrs. E. George Middleton Jr., and their daughter, Melissa Middleton. Mrs. Middleton is president of the Cavalier Junior Women's Club of Princess Anne County. Her club has sponsored this troop since it was first organized in May, 1955. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Nile B. Wolfe. Parents of the Brownies presented the troop leaders, Mrs. William T. Baker and Mrs. Marvin Bruce Jones each with a silver compote dish, expressing their thanks for the efforts of the leaders during the past year.

Mrs. Anderson Day showed movies of a trip the troop took to Camp Motoska, during the past fall. Also showed a movie taken at Camp Motoska at the recent Adult Out Door Training Course. Five adults associated with this troop completed this training course. They are Mrs. Day, Mrs. Hugh Moore, Mrs. Fay Daves, Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Jones.

Mrs. Miller spoke to the girls on the seriousness of the steps they were about to take and then presented their wings to them. After receiving her wings each girl crossed over a wooden bridge into the Intermediate Girl Scouting Program. A candle light service was then held, with three green large candles representing the three parts of the Girl Scout Promise and ten smaller candles, representing the 10 Girl Scout Laws. Girls taking part in this were Donna Willis, Jacqueline Weeks, Susan Warrick, Jenny Vann, Patsy Vann, Margaret Ann Pollock, Marcia Pierce, Diana Moore, Mary Jane Meiners, Agnes McCoy, Carolyn McClenny and Sharon Malo.

After making their Girl Scout Promise, each of the following girls were invested as Intermediate Girl Scouts into troop No. 231 by Mrs. Gregory. Linda Baker, Susan Daves, Linda Day, Cynthia Hayes, Judy Hodges, Paullette Jeter, Sharon Jones, Sharon Malo, Carolyn McClenny, Agnes McCoy, Mary Jane Meiners, Diana Moore, Marcia Pierce, Frances Pollock, Margaret Ann Phillips, Patsy Vann, Jenny Vann, Susan Warrick, Jacqueline Weeks and Donna Willis.

The program concluded with a musical skit by the girls entitled "Let's Look Up the Laws."

The dinner tables were decorated with nosegays of green and yellow flowers, following the theme of the Girl Scout colors. Mothers who served on the Troop Committee and made preparations for the supper were Mrs. Swindell Pollock, Mrs. Hugh Moore, Mrs. William T. Pierce and Mrs. Fay Daves.

AVALEN TERRACE GARDEN CLUB ELECTION HELD
Officers of the Avalen Terrace Garden Club were elected Tuesday at a meeting at the home of Mrs. R. C. Small on Avalen Avenue. Mrs. D. M. Williams, president of the Oakliff Garden Club, will install the officers at a dinner at Forrester's Restaurant, 7 p. m. on May 23. Husbands of the club members will be present.

The new officers are Mrs. J. P. Sill, president; Mrs. E. R. Morrison, vice president; Mrs. W. M. Shebeck, recording secretary; Mrs. W. H. Hunt, corresponding secretary and Mrs. H. K. Miller Jr., treasurer.

FOCUS WEEK HELD AT KEMPSVILLE BAPTIST

The G. A. R. A. and Sunbeam organizations of the Kempsville Baptist Church are sponsored by the Woman's Missionary Union. During the past week each of these organizations have been busy taking part in Focus Week. The Junior G. A.'s, whose leaders are Mrs. A. B. Blount and Mrs. Ruth Hall, on Monday night observed "Stay At Home Night," including family worship at home. Tuesday they visited Holmes Nursing Home and sang hymns. Wednesday was "Enlistment Day," with each child visiting a prospective new G. A. Thursday they paid honor to their mothers, making corsages and gave a program "Building a House of Happiness." Sunday morning they presented a program for the Junior Department of the Sunday School.

Leaders for the 11-year-old Junior G. A.'s are Mrs. Emma Earnhart and Mrs. Minnie Day. The Intermediate G. A.'s, whose ages are 12 and 13 have as their leaders Mrs. Mabel Mayo and Mrs. Lucy Polk. On Thursday they visited a shut-in and had a program and refreshments.

The Intermediate G. A.'s, ages 14 and 15 have Mrs. Selma Daves as their leader and Thursday visited a shut-in.

Mrs. Edna Davis and Mrs. Ronnie Yancey are the leaders of all of these young people. Mrs. Swindell Pollock is the president of the W. M. U.

This Saturday the R. A.'s are going on an all-night camping trip. They will attend Sunday School at the camp. Counselors for the trip are: Mrs. A. C. Bryant, H. R. Yancey, Jim Davis, Jimmy Stocks, Ralph Garriott and Norman Yancey.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL
Plans are in the making for the Vacation Bible School at Kempsville Baptist Church. The school will start with Preparation Day, June 14th. On this day all children will register for study. Superintendents for the departments are as follows: Nursery—to be announced. Beginners: Mrs. Jean Wallace and Mrs. Doris Baker. Primary: Mrs. A. B. Blount.

Juniors: Mrs. Gloria Yeager. Intermediates: Mrs. J. B. Smith.

CAVALIER JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB

The Cavalier Junior Woman's Club voted at a meeting Thursday to present $800 to the Superintendent of Schools in Princess Anne County.

The money, the proceeds from the Barter Theater presentation of "Rainmaker," will be used to purchase books for Princess Anne High School and Thalia and Kempville Elementary Schools.

The meeting, held at the Kempville Community House featured a program built around the ways a single basic dress can be changed by the choice of accessories and had demonstrations by Mrs. E. Leonora Sherwood of Ricks with models from the club. Models were Mrs. Stanley Walker, Mrs. Olivia Barsell, Mrs. Peggy Hudson and Mrs. Betty Hewlett.

The group will be the hostess club for the District Workshop at the Old Donation Church, May 23 from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m. Reservations may be made by phoning Mrs. J. H. Lewis, LO 5-0171. Club members met recently for a tour of the studios of several artists.

MRS. ETHERIDGE RE-ELECTED

At a recent meeting of the Thalia Elementary School P-TA Mrs. V. Alfred Etheridge was re-elected to serve as president of the organization for the year 1957-58. Those elected to serve with her were Mrs. Catherine Bris Bois, first vice president; Mrs. A. C. Smith, Jr., second vice president; Mrs. Howard M. Martin, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Pittman, corresponding secretary and Mrs. M. J. McCarthy as treasurer.

The program consisted of music from the combined bands of Bay-side, Kempville and Thalia, under the direction of Mr. Hudgins.

It was announced that the P-TA would purchase a Band Flag and present it to the Thalia Band.

Presiding officer for the meeting was Mrs. Edgar J. Gerloff Jr., first vice president.

Local Legion Post to Back Baseball Team This Year

Princess Anne Post No. 113 is pleased to announce that it plans to present a team to compete in the American Legion Baseball Program this coming season.

W. B. Allen has consented to handle the team and will be assisted by Jack Calk. Both have had considerable experience and the boys should benefit from the association with these capable gentlemen.

Mr. Allen has secured a sponsor for the team and the post is most grateful to Wallace Clark of the Virginia Beach Gas Co. His contribution will uniform and outfit the players and Post No. 113 will underwrite the running expenses.

It is expected that a call for candidates will be issued about May 26th, but meanwhile any one interested can obtain details from either Mr. Allen or the Post Adjutant. Both can be contacted at the Post Home on Laskin Rd.

It should be remembered that in order to be eligible boys shall not be 18 until after September 1st of this year.

Mrs. Gerald L. Biehn uses her phone to arrange for a Cub Scout meeting—one of many everyday calls saving her time, making her telephone so valuable.

Time-saving telephone is big help to busy Staunton wife and mother

A mother of three small children can get a lot done in 10 hours.

That's the amount of time Mrs. Gerald L. Biehn of 753 Hillcrest Drive, Staunton, Virginia, estimates her telephone saved her in just two weeks. "The telephone is indispensable if you're trying to do Cub Scout, P.T.A. and church work," Mrs. Biehn says. "Our phone is more than a time-saver—it's a money-saver too. Using the phone instead of our car, in the two weeks we kept records of our calls, we figure we're more than $10 ahead."

During that time Mrs. Biehn and her family—they have two phones in their home—made 36 calls and received 46. Several incoming calls made proposed trips unnecessary.

More and more busy families are discovering that their telephone service is one of their biggest bargains. Every day, in so many ways, it saves time, energy—and dollars. Have you stopped to think lately how valuable your telephone is to you? You'll be surprised to find it paying for itself, month in and month out, many times over.

Your telephone SAVES more than its cost

VIRGINIA BEACH, VIRGINIA, THURSDAY, MAY 23, 1957

Beach Branch Of NBC Grows With Resort

Along with the community the Virginia Beach Office of the National Bank of Commerce has had its share of growing pains.

And the growing, which started more than two decades ago for the bank at the beach, hasn't stopped.

On Monday the Virginia Beach Office 'grows' into a new home on Atlantic Avenue at 30th Street.

It was only 10 years ago that The Virginia Beach Office occupied new quarters next to the Jefferson Hotel, its present home. But the community grew larger and the bank kept pace, necessitating a larger, more modern facility.

National Bank is an old-timer at the resort. It is the oldest continuous banking service at the beach.

Back around the turn of the century, the Bank of Princess Anne operated at the beach for a few years. Then there was a bank-less gap until the Virginia Bank and Trust Service started in 1926. It became part of the National Bank of Commerce following a merger in 1933.

Until recent years, National Bank of Commerce provided the only banking service at the resort.

"We had faith in the future growth of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County way back then," said John S. Alfrend, president of the institution. "We have faith now that the area will continue to grow and prosper."

Alfrend remarked that the construction of the new beach office should be likened to a bet put down by the National Bank of Commerce on the future prosperity of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County.

New Home of the National Bank of Commerce Virginia Beach Office, Atlantic and 30th Streets.

New National Bank of Commerce Building Here Scheduled to Open Next Monday

The Virginia Beach Office of the National Bank of Commerce will begin doing business Monday at 9 a. m. in a handsome new home—a modern structure designed not only to please the eye but also to provide the latest in banking conveniences for its customers.

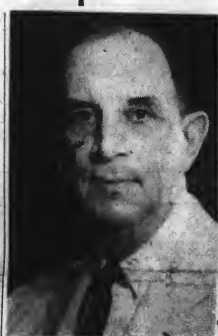

The spacious new building is situated on Atlantic Avenue at 30th Street.

Staffed and equipped to serve the complete banking needs of citizens and business firms of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County, the new resort office is scheduled to open its doors Monday morning after brief ceremonies.

Mayor Frank A. Dusch of Virginia Beach will officiate at the traditional ribbon-cutting ceremonies. The Virginia Beach High School Band will provide music and County officials will attend.

On Monday evening, between 7 and 9 o'clock, a formal opening is scheduled at which time the public is invited to inspect the new facility. There will be refreshments and souvenirs for the occasion.

CLAIBORNE R. BRYANT Senior Vice President

In place of the usual cornerstone-laying ceremony, there will be an unusual opening feature—"Letters for the Future" Letters from anyone desiring to write them will be sealed in a steel box in an exterior wall, the box to be opened October 1, 1967. At that time the letters will either be published or mailed to the persons to whom they are addressed. John S. Alfrend, president of

Jewelry Box Credited With Bank Design

Architect T. David Fitz Gibbon was fishing around for ideas for a style of design for the new home of the Virginia Beach Office of the National Bank of Commerce. Then it dawned. Why not like a jewelry box?

"After all a jewelry box is a place where valuables are kept," he observed. "And so is a bank." So with a jewelry box in mind, FitzGibbon set down to execute the design of the imposing new structure which will house the operations of the Virginia Beach Office.

Actually, FitzGibbon said the style is on somewhat restrained modern lines.

While the new building was designed to have an appeal for the eye, the emphasis was on functional lines—the objective being to provide a facility for the banking convenience and comfort of customers uppermost in mind.

The new building fronts 192 feet on Atlantic Avenue and runs to a depth of 60 feet on 30th Street. Its exterior is of Norman brick trimmed with Swedish granite. Marble in the vestibule is Italian Bianco.

Two large, circular stainless steel columns grace the front entrance which is of plate glass. Inside, the main section holds nine teller's cages done in walnut. Floors in the main public section are of terrazzo while office sections and the conference room are carpeted.

The interior south wall is a walnut consisting of individual panels divided by stainless steel strips. Wainscoting is in walnut, also.

A one-story structure, the building has a mezzanine where storage, equipment and employees' rooms are situated. A vault constructed with heavy steel is provided for safe deposit boxes whose renters will have four booths to give them privacy during visits. Other interior features include air conditioning, recessed lighting, and acoustical ceilings.

With customer convenience in mind, the new home will have two drive-in teller windows plus a walk-up window on the outside. Additionally, a paved parking area of 50-car capacity has been constructed. A pneumatic type system connects the drive-in windows with the building. A vault depository also is included. The outside area, where there is no concrete, there will be plants.

Local Bankers Have Many Years of Experience

More than a half century of banking experience is represented by the three men holding the top posts in the Virginia Beach Office of the National Bank of Commerce.

Clairborne R. Bryant, senior vice president in charge of the beach office, started his banking career in 1926.

E. R. Amburn, assistant cashier, began in 1937.

E. R. AMBURN
Assistant Cashier

H. O. Erhard, Jr., Assistant Cashier started in 1941.

When the new home of the Virginia Beach Office opens Monday, Bryant will continue to head the staff assisted by Amburn and Erhard.

Bryant first was employed by the National Bank of Commerce in 1926 and since then has worked in all departments. He was promoted to manager of the Virginia Beach Office in 1939.

He holds pre-standard and standard certificates from the American Institute of Banking. In 1953 he was elevated to the position of vice-president and in 1957 was elected a senior vice president.

For many years Bryant has been active in civic and community affairs at Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County.

He is a member of the Virginia Beach Chamber of Commerce, chairman of the U.S. Savings continuing faith in the future of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County," Alfried said. "It is our intention not only to maintain but also to improve our banking services to the community."

Clairborne Bryant, senior vice president in charge of the Virginia Beach Office, will continue in that capacity at the new location.

For 10 years the Virginia Beach Office has been located next to the Jefferson Hotel. The National Bank of Commerce for many years provided the only banking service at the resort.

Bryant noted that the new home is designed to give complete banking services with special emphasis on convenience and comfort of customers.

In this regard he cited particularly the two drive-in teller windows, a large, paved parking area, a walk-up teller window on the outside, night depository unit and central air conditioning.

The interior will contain 10 teller windows, an installment loan department, and safe deposit facilities. A conference room also is included which will be available for meetings or organizations in the community on request.

The building was designed by T. David FitzGibbon, architect, and was constructed by W. A. Hall and Company, general contractor.

Bond Committee for Princess Anne County, financial chairman of the Red Cross Disaster Committee and treasurer of the Princess Anne County Tuberculosis Association.

He also is a member of the board of directors of the Virginia Beach Federal Savings and Loan Association, Norfolk United Royal Arch Chapter No. 1, Grice Commandery No. 16, Knights Templar, Khedive Temple at Norfolk and the Princess Anne Country Club.

He is married to the former Emily Norris Davis and they have two sons, Judson Dwight and Stuart Ray Bryant.

Amburn came to the National Bank of Commerce in 1937 and was promoted to assistant cashier in 1964. He is a graduate of Oceana High School and also of the American Institute of Banking.

A National Guardsman from 1934 to 1941, he went on active duty in the latter year and was separated from the service in 1946 with the rank of captain, Infantry.

He is a member of the Virginia Beach Chamber of Commerce, Virginia Beach Sports Club and the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd.

He is married to the former Mary Dreher, and they have two daughters and one son.

Erhard was employed by the National Bank of Commerce in 1941, and received his promotion to assistant cashier in 1964.

He attended Edwards Military Institute, Salem, N. C., and holds an American Institute of Banking pre-standard certificate.

He has held offices as assistant treasurer and vice president of the Institute chapter in Norfolk and is the incoming president.

He served in the Army from 1943 to 1946.

H. O. ERHARD, JR.
Assistant Cashier

Erhard is a member of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd and has served on the church's board of governors, as church treasurer and superintendent of Sunday Schools. He also holds memberships in the Virginia Beach Chamber of Commerce and the Virginia Beach Sports Club.

He is married to the former Mildred Lanier. They have two daughters.

The following Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County people make up the staff of the Bank of Commerce Virginia Beach Office:

Office Employees: Mrs. Marie M. Bailey, collection teller; Mrs. Anita C. Barnes, installment loan dept. clerk; Miss Jane E. Brown, installment loan dept. stenographer; Mrs. Roberta W. In step with the age of convenience, too! A complete, new, beautiful bank with every modern facility to make banking as quick and convenient as possible. This has been the objective in the construction of the new National Bank of Commerce Virginia Beach Office.

Modern in every detail, this new office brings incomparable banking facilities and services to residents of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County . . . banking facilities and services that are in step with the growth and progress of this area.

Everything is new except the friendliness and service that has made the National Bank of Commerce Virginia Beach Office the banking center for Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County since 1926.

Large Water Color Paintings on Walls of New Bank

The interior walls of the new Virginia Beach Office of the National Bank of Commerce will be adorned with what probably are the largest water color paintings anywhere.

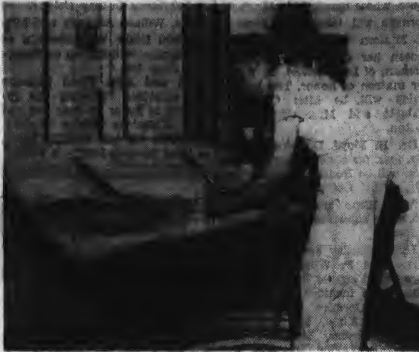

At least, that's the opinion of the man who is doing them—Kenneth Harris, noted Norfolk artist.

"So far as I know these paintings are the largest done in water colors," Harris said the other day as he was working on one of the old and new lighthouses at Cape Henry.

Harris was commissioned by the bank to do four paintings to grace the walls of the bank's new resort home which opens Monday. His paintings also hang in some other offices of the National Bank of Commerce.

In the new office at the Beach, Harris will have four paintings. One will be of the Main Office on Main Street. Three larger ones—54 by 31 inches—will depict the ings under a landscaping plan. Floodlights will be available for night use.

W. A. Hall and Company was the general contractor.

Among other firms furnishing various items were Elliot and Co., fixtures; Gus Winborne, signs; Mosier Safe Co., night depository; Cofer Associates, Inc., furniture; Lamson Corporation, pneumatic tube system; Hampton Roads Paper Co., desks; A. D. T. Corporation, burglar alarm system, and Winn Nursery, landscaping.

landing of English settlers at Cape Henry and a panoramic view of Virginia Beach waterfront looking north from the sea.

As with the other paintings he has done for the National Bank of Commerce, Harris has used his brush to make them meaningful for the particular area in which they are to hang. For instance, the Church Street Office has a painting of Old St. Paul's Church nearby.

Ordinarily, Harris does watercolors of smaller sizes. For the Virginia Beach Office assignment he had to acquire the largest size paper available for that type of painting which, he noted, is very difficult to obtain in such sizable dimensions.

The four paintings in the Virginia Beach Office, he said, will be framed in oak.

Letters of the Future Takes Place of Cornerstone Fete

Like to send a message to folks in the future? Or make a few predictions and be able to see how they check out 10 years hence?

The Virginia Beach Office of the National Bank of Commerce is going to afford that opportunity to people of the resort and Princess Anne County when its new home opens Monday.

Here's what it's all about: Instead of the usual cornerstone laying ceremony for the new building on Atlantic Avenue at 30th Street, bank officials decided to do something a little different—something that would have a meaning for and be participated in by the entire community rather than the bank alone.

So the idea was evolved to provide space in the exterior wall for a steel box, large enough to hold a great number of letters through which Beach and County folks may, so to speak, "talk today to the people of tomorrow."

Bank officials have invited government leaders, civic and social clubs, school children and the general public, too, to write letters to go in the box.

Make predictions, write messages into the future or put down whatever you wish.

On Monday night during the formal opening, letters may be placed in the box and the communications will be sealed in the wall with John B. Aldred, president of the National Bank of Commerce, officiating.

Now to the future. On October 1, 1967—the date of the 100th anniversary of the National Bank of Commerce—the box will be opened.

At that time the letters will either be published, if so desired, or mailed to the persons to whom they were addressed.

Envelopes should be either addressed or marked "For Publication." No postage will be necessary on the envelopes.

Princess Anne Police Watching For Litterbugs

PRINCESS ANNE—"Litterbugs," who scatter beer cans, paper cups, sandwich wrappings and other refuse along the highways may be in for a hard time soon.

Richard J. Webson, executive secretary of the Princess Anne Board of Supervisors, said yesterday county police have been instructed to bear down on this offense.

Prosecution to the full extent of the law awaits persons cited on a "Litterbug" charge, Webson said.

Under State law, throwing refuse on the highways is punishable by a fine up to $500.

A new rich discovery of tin has been reported from the Northern Territory of Australia, about 160 miles from Darwin.

Loudell Raitt, L. R. Staunton Are Married in Norfolk

Trinity Lutheran Church was the setting Saturday, May 18, at 3 p. m. for the marriage of Miss Loudell Nichols Raitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Stillion Raitt of Norfolk, to Loren Richard Staunton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lawrence Staunton of Virginia Beach. The Rev. Paul A. Flavin, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a wedding gown of white silk tulle, fashioned with Alencon lace appliques touched with clusters of pearls outlining the picture neckline and forming short sleeves. The bouffant skirt scattered with matching lace medallions was touched with clusters of pearls that swept into a chapel train. Her fingertip veil was adorned from a Juliet cap of Alencon lace, trimmed with pearls. She carried a semi-cascade bouquet of white sweetheart roses and English ivy.

Miss Mary Glen Boyd of Danville, was maid of honor for her sister. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Charles P. Garrison of Baltimore, Md., and Miss Anna Nash Kay of Norfolk. They wore full length gowns of azalea pink chiffon, styled with off the shoulder necklines forming short shirred sleeves, pointed shirred bodice complemented by a full gathered skirt. They wore matching bandeaux caught with a brow veil and carried cascade bouquets of pink Carol Amling sweetheart roses and English ivy.

Lawrence A. Staunton of Virginia Beach was best man for his brother. The groomsmen were O. Adrian Thompson of Virginia Beach and Coy Ford McDaniel of Portsmouth.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the Norfolk Yacht and Country Club. Later the couple left for a motor trip through the Mountains of Virginia. Upon their return they will reside in Norfolk.

BRAVE WORDS

That's my daughter Ellen standing up there in her cap and gown. Valedictorian of her class! I'd be a strange mother if I didn't feel a lump in my throat, and a tremendous surge of pride.

It just doesn't seem possible that my Ellen is grown-up. Like any mother, I have visions of a tiny baby... a little girl in pigtails... a child, beginning school.

And now here she is, speaking about the future that she and her classmates envision... the things they are going to try to do... their hopes and dreams.

They are brave words, all of them... brave dreams. And like all parents, I pray that most of them will come true. But I know that in times of failure, my Ellen will have an added strength because of her Faith, and her devotion to the Church.

How glad, how thankful, I am for that!

Judges from the Bay Shore Garden Club were Mrs. Fred L. Russell, Mrs. Leslie M. Clogh and Mrs. C. S. Southall. They awarded ribbons to the following: Mrs. R. B. Thompson, Mrs. F. F. Warren, Mrs. G. A. Dowling, Mrs. Troye Brown, Mrs. R. C. Dunaja, Mrs. J. W. Parrott, Mrs. D. L. Scott, Mrs. M. O. Peoples, Mrs. C. M. Bugle, Mrs. H. A. Rutkowski and Mrs. M. D. Adams.

LAKE SHORES CIVIC LEAGUE
The Lake Shores Civic League met Friday night, May 10, with Mrs. W. C. Calfee, North Lake Road, at 8 p. m.

The following officers for the coming year were elected: President, Troye Brown; vice president, W. C. Calfee; secretary, Mrs. O. B. Martin; treasurer, J. K. Powell; board of trustees for three years, E. S. Chovita.

The Civic League is busy clearing a lot for a playground for the children in the area. There will be room enough on it for the small boys to play baseball. The men in the Civic League have made 6 picnic tables and benches to be placed on the access lot to Lake Smith. They are also planning on building a barbecue pit.

SUNRISE GARDEN CLUB
The Sunrise Garden Club met Tuesday night, May 14, at the home of Mrs. W. E. Miles, 6400 Sunrise Drive.

Mrs. A. H. Culpepper spoke to the group on flower arranging. Members brought flower arrangements which were judged by Mrs. Culpepper. She awarded ribbons to Mrs. P. W. Dixon, Mrs. D. O. Starr and Mrs. George D. Good.

The ways and means chairman, Mrs. D. O. Starr, stressed the importance of raising money for the club. A rummage sale, white elephant sale and travel basket have been planned for the near future.

Mrs. T. F. Wright, horticulturist, gave a report on care of roses.

Mrs. J. P. Keleher, a new member, was welcomed to the group. Following the business meeting, refreshments were served and a social hour was held. The next meeting will be held Tuesday night, June 11, at 8 p. m. at the home of Mrs. R. C. Corderman, 6412 Sunrise Drive.

Sister Madeleine Marie's class won the attendance prize.

The speaker for the evening was Father McCarthy, Catholic Chaplain at the U. S. Naval Retraining Command. He emphasized the important part that parents play in determining the eventual status of their children in our society.

Mrs. Mary Eastman, hospitality chairman, was in charge of refreshments.

BAYVILLE PARK GARDEN CLUB
The Bayville Park Garden Club held their regular meeting Monday night, May 13, at the Bayville Christian Church, at 8 p. m.

During the business session the club voted on the following projects: To sponsor a lawn party, August 3, at Chesapeake Junction. To donate $10 to the permanent home of National Council of State Garden Clubs.

The club gave Mrs. E. H. Busbee, their past president, life membership in the State Nature Camp.

The following chairmen were appointed for the coming year: Mrs. J. Gubeach, publicity; Mrs. J. A. Howard, civic; Mrs. J. S. Hoots, membership; Mrs. F. S. Swander, exhibits; Mrs. J. L. Rodson, library; Mrs. R. M. Hickman, program; Mrs. G. W. Hedge, ways and means; Mrs. M. L. Hamilton, parliamentary; Mrs. R. S. Early, chaplain.

A report on the state convention held recently in Richmond was given by Mrs. J. Hackworth and Mrs. E. H. Busbee, who represented the club.

BAYSIDE AREA GIRL SCOUTS FAMILY NIGHT
The Girl Scouts, Brownie Scouts and Senior Girl Scouts, of the Bayside area, will hold "Family Night," Friday, May 24, at Shelton Park School, at 7:30 p. m.

At this time awards for "Curved Bars" and "First Class" will be given to scouts that have earned them.

Mrs. W. B. Meekins, Scout Leader of the Chesapeake Beach troop will be mistress of ceremonies. Mrs. Henry Hedley, District Chairman for Princess Anne County, will present the awards.

LAKE JOYCE GARDEN CLUB RECEIVES AWARDS
The Lake Joyce Garden Club was awarded both national and state awards for "Flower Show Achievement" at the Virginia Federation of Garden Clubs Convention held in Richmond May 6, 7 and 8th at the John Marshall Hotel.

Mrs. W. C. Griffin also won a blue ribbon for her period arrangement in the flower show held at the Carillon in Richmond.

BAYSIDE CHRISTIAN CHURCH NEWS
Family Night Supper will be held at the Bayside Christian Church on Friday night, May 24 at 8 p. m.

Everyone is asked to bring a picnic basket with enough food for their family. The food will be arranged on the table buffet style. Following the supper each class of the church will present a skit. No donation will be taken up. The Family Night supper and program is free.

Mrs. E. F. Caldwell is chairman of arrangements. Mrs. Roy Twiford will have charge of arranging the food. Mrs. Julian Clark will have charge of the coffee and drinks. Mrs. Paul Crawford and Mrs. D. B. Smith Jr. will fix flower arrangements and set the tables.

"Popping at the seams," reports the Rev. Julius Rice, pastor of Bayside Christian Church.

This report may sound a bit boastful, but being pastor of a new church which is showing signs of growth is a wonderful experience.

On Palm Sunday there were 198 people present for Sunday School, and 152 for the morning worship service. At the latter Superintendent Wm. T. Scott was present and christened our new baby, Mark Alan.

Holy Communion was held Maunday Thursday and the attendance was very good.

We hardly knew what to expect on Easter. The good weather and the grace of God brought a record of all records in attendance. There were 228 present in the Sunday School. The sanctuary is equipped to seat 150 people and 270 crowded in for the worship service. We were literally "popping at the seams." The most impressive part of this service was the reception of 24 new members into the church. Eleven juniors had attended the membership class conducted by the minister each Saturday morning during Lent. There were 13 adults who united. Some came by confession of faith and others from other denominations.

Since I have become pastor of Bayside church last September, 49 new members have been received and only three have been disassociated. Christians and they included my wife and me. As you can see, our church has become a community church in reality. The wonderful response from the people of the community has necessitated some new planning for our church.

Fifty-two persons received certificates for perfect attendance at the morning worship services from January 8 through April 21. We hope to continue to do great things in the name of the Lord. (The above is an excerpt from the "Christian Sun" which is published by the Southern Convention of Congregational Christian Churches.)

Tax Formula
Supervisors

A lively debate on the "no left turn" policy for Virginia Beach boulevard and opposition to a proposed change in the formula for location taxation of public utility properties consumed most of the meeting time of the Princess Anne County Board of Supervisors on Monday.

The supervisors adopted a resolution in opposing the formula for taxing public utility properties and in so doing joined Fluvanna and Orange Counties and the League of Virginia Counties against the tax change. The change has been recommended by Chairman Ralph T. Catterall of the State Corporation Commission.

On the basis of current utilities assessments in Princess Anne, the change would mean the loss of about $105,000 in annual tax revenue.

Catterall suggested that utility properties be assessed at the local ratio rather than at the traditional 40 per cent of fair market value used by the SCC.

School Group
To Visit Base

(Virginia Beach, Virginia) Virginia Beach School superintendents, principals, teachers and students have been invited to visit the Master Jet Base at U. S. Naval Air Station Oceana, Virginia Beach, Virginia, Tuesday June 4, according to Commander Harry M. Pugh, USN, Commanding Officer at the Air Station. Invitations to attend the ceremonies of dedication of Soucek Field have been sent to the offices of more than one hundred superintendents of schools.

As part of the ceremony, the Navy's famous team of jet plane pilots, the Blue Angels, will stage a thrilling air show demonstrating high speed precision maneuvers with the new F4U planes.

Principals and teachers who desire to take bus loads of students to the Oceana Air Station on June 4 are asked to make all arrangements in advance through the office of their superintendents.

Red Cross Head Listens

Leaders Back from Red

Mrs. David H. Batchelder, Jr., and Mrs. Ernest E. Ball, attendees of the 32nd National Convention of the American Red Cross in Washington, D. C., Mrs. Batchelder and Mrs. Ball were the delegates to the convention from the Princess Anne County Chapter of the American Red Cross. President Dwight Eisenhower, Honorary Chairman of the organization addressed the opening plenary session and other principal speakers were Chairman E. Roland Harriman, President Alfred M. Gruenther and Adm. Arleigh A. Burke. As Red Cross disaster services and the financing of them took the spotlight at the National convention, the organization moved swiftly to aid 1,000 families in the tornado-shattered suburbs of Kansas City. Several delegates from that area left the convention to join the hundreds of volunteers of the Red Cross who worked through the night, nursing and giving first aid to the injured and feeding homeless victims and rescue workers. The principal speakers all called attention to the financial crisis into which the Red Cross has been plunged by disasters which in two years have cost the organization over $50,000,000, completely exhausting its disaster reserve. General Lucius D. Clay was selected 1956 American Red Cross Fund Chairman. In speaking of Clay, President Eisenhower said, "I assure you, if there's 50 million dollars left in the country to find, he will find it."

In addition to attending all general sessions, Mrs. Batchelder sat in on several Blood Program meetings and Mrs. Ball the meetings directed at Disaster and Public Relations.

The Tidewater Regional Red Cross Bloodmobile will visit Princess Anne County on Monday, June 17th at the Community House, 18th and Arctic Avenue, Virginia Beach from noon until 6 o'clock. The Citizen Club and the Junior Citizens of Virginia Beach will sponsor this Blood Drive.

Little Theatre
To Produce
'Light Up the Sky'

"Light Up the Sky" a Moss Hart production which was played by an excellent cast at the Royal Theatre in New York, will be the fourth and final play of the season to be presented by the Virginia Beach Little Theatre on Monday and Tuesday evenings, June 10 and 11 in the auditorium of the Virginia Beach High School. Curtain time is 8:30.

The play, selected by the casting committee as a delightful closing presentation, is a fast-moving comedy with a fine cast, which promises the audience an evening full of laughs and entertainment from the time the curtain rises.

Dolly Walwright, whose last performance with the Virginia Beach Little Theatre, was in "The Second Mrs. Carroll, prominently known among Little Theatre patrons and has a long list of followers both with the local theatre group and the Norfolk Little Theatre where she played many outstanding parts before coming to the beach, will play one of the leading parts in "Light Up the Sky."

Dey Resigns
As Head of School Board

John B. Dey, chairman of the Princess Anne County School Board for the past 17 years, resigned that post Tuesday at a meeting of the school board at Princess Anne. Dey's resignation was prompted by ill health and becomes effective on June 30.

The Board named Charles J. Owens, a Lynnhaven farmer who formerly owned a cleaning business in Norfolk, as Dey's successor on the School Board. Dey had represented the Lynnhaven Magisterial District on the board.

Owens, a graduate of Washington and Lee University, was named to the Board by the Princess Anne School Trustee-Electoral Board, the body that selects school board members from each of the magisterial districts.

Roger Sawyer was re-appointed to a four year term representing the Seaboard Magisterial District by the Board. It will be Sawyer's second full four-year term. He had previously served an unexpired term.

Owens is a member of the Princess Anne Rural Club, Ruth Lodge 89 and the Scottish Rite in Norfolk. He teaches the Men's Bible Class at the London Bridge Baptist Church and is chairman of the church's board of deacons. Owens has three children, a 23-year old son and two daughters, aged 17 and 29. One daughter is a student at the Princess Anne High School.

The School Board meeting Tuesday was held in the office of School Superintendent Frank W. Cox, who expressed "deep regret" at the resignation of Dey.

"We express great appreciation for his faithful and conscientious service in the interests of public schools in the county," Cox said. "We deeply regret the necessity for the termination of his services on the Board," Cox added.

Dey, who was born near Rosemont in the county, has served through a period of unusual growth in the county school system. As a token of appreciation a new school on Great Neck Road near his sprawling Road Bay Manor farm was named for Dey last year.

Since Dey first took office on the School Board he has seen the number of school plants grow from four to 15 with an enrollment of more than 15,000 pupils. The retiring Dey is 83 years old and only recently underwent major surgery which has influenced his decision to retire from the school board post.

Jurors Fail
To Come Up
With Decision

A Circuit Court jury failed to reach a verdict Tuesday on a murder charge against Daniel Elijah Johnson, 29, accused of the pistol slaying of his brother on the night of last March 9.

Princess Anne Circuit Judge Floyd E. Kellam excused the jury from further deliberations in the case after members told him they felt no agreement could be reached. They had been out two hours.

(Simmons Photo)

Mrs. William P. Kellam is shown accepting the keys to the new 1957 Ford automobile she won in the Sun-News "Automobile and Cash Offer" subscription campaign which closed last Saturday from Mr. J. W. Wood, senior vice-president of Colonial Stores, who served as one of the three contest judges. At left is Mrs. Dorothy L. Atwater, who finished third, and next is Mrs. Elsie Gilliam, who was second in the contest. On the extreme right is Miss Bradie Lee, one of the high commission winners.

Mrs. W. P. Kellam Winner
In Subscription Contest

Mrs. William P. Kellam, a Virginia Beach housewife, won the new 1957 Ford Tudor sedan given away by the Sun-News last Saturday afternoon at the close of the highly successful "Automobile and Cash Offer" subscription campaign. The Ford was the first grand award in the contest.

Mrs. Kellam topped off of some 20 hard working contestants in the six week long circulation contest. The contest boosted the Sun-News circulation appreciably until it now is one of the State's largest circulation weekly newspapers.

Although Mrs. Kellam won the top award the two $50 bonus awards given for most new subscriptions during the second and fourth periods went to Mrs. Eddie Sparks. In addition to winning the two bonus prizes, Sparks finished a strong fourth in the contest.

Mrs. Kellam led the field by a fairly wide margin gathering some $800,000 votes more than Mrs. Elsie Gilliam, who came in second place. Mrs. Kellam's final total was 21,832.750. Mrs. Gilliam finished with a total of 13,059.000.

Third place went to Mrs. Gerald Atwater, who registered a total of 12,673.750 votes. Mrs. Sparks, in fourth place, finished with 10,146.250 votes.

Excitement ran high throughout the contest and particularly on this last Saturday afternoon at the Sun-News office when the three judges, J. W. Wood, George T. Mullen, and E. R. Amburn began the task of verifying the vote totals and the campaign figures.

The campaign far exceeded any previous subscription campaign conducted by the Sun-News and a Mr. Alexander, manager of the campaign, stated that it was just about the most enthusiastic group of workers he has ever worked with. The campaign just concluded ran approximately 40 per cent above the one of three years ago.

Officials of the Sun-News were high appreciative of the effort put forth by the workers and, of course, gratified by the big circulation increase as a result of this work.

Surf Club to Offer Theatre
This Season

For nine years Miss Lesley Savage has brought Broadway theatre to Virginia Beach in her Theatre-GO-Round. This summer Miss Savage and Art Andrew are presenting Broadway talent in the musical and supper-club field at her recently acquired Surf Club. The Surf Club will have its gala opening this evening at nine. The star performer of the week is Miss Arlene DeMarco of the nationally known DeMarco Sisters who will lead a program featuring New York and Hollywood personalities. Jimmy Sedar his trumpet and orchestra have been asked to perform for the season after their excellent reception last summer. The Sedar Orchestra is featuring Sherry Kaye as the vocalist. The program for this season is being directed by Lee and Hal Schaefer who have chosen the finest available performers for the Surf Club. Lee Schaefer, RCA Victor recording artist will play piano during intermission, and his lovely and talented wife Lee Schaefer of the popular singing trio The Way-

$1,611,832 Budget
Adopted by Council
On First Reading

A 1957-58 budget of $1,611,832 with a 62 cent tax rate increase was passed on first reading by the Virginia Beach City Council at its meeting Monday afternoon.

The new budget for the year beginning July 1, 1957, is $117,992 more than the budget for the 1956-57 year. Much of the increase is due to a rise in the operation of the city's schools.

The tax rate increase would apply to real estate and would bring the total tax rate up to $3.00 per $100 of assessed valuation. At the present time it is 2.38 per 100 of assessed value. The present real estate valuation is assessed at 40% of true value.

At the close of the meeting City Manager W. Russell Hatchett offered a proposal for consideration that would place a sales tax on soft drinks, candy bars and chewing gum. The City Manager thought it probably should be one cent on these items.

Hatchett also suggested that portions of the license tax structure be revamped because, as he put it, "the little man is now carrying more than his burden."

The proposed budget shows a school operating figure for next year of $301,928, an increase of $22,738 over last year. Of the total figure the city's share of the budget would be $177,208, an increase of $19,411.

Other major budget items are Department of Public Safety, $198,532, up $13,402; Public Welfare, $9,501, up $1,546; Public Works, $206,395, down $12,473, and Department of Health, $23,488, up $4,425.

Total operating expenses were set at $559,697, an increase of $12,100 over last year. With the addition of capital outlays of $3,000, plus the city's share of school operating costs and transfers of $73,000 to the general fund, the general fund budget of the city is set at $661,700—or $116,908 over the 1956-57.

The increase in taxes is expected to bring in almost $5,000 more than last year, or a total of $617,400. Total revenues are estimated at $661,708.75. In addition, the special taxes on amusements, cigarettes, hotel accommodations, restaurants and meat will bring in $20,000; state and local assistance for schools, $184,960, and estimated revenue from the water and sewer department, which is self-sustaining, $326,344.

City Council also approved Mayor Philip A. Smith's selection of a board to select personnel for the new convention center. Members are Gordon Rosenmaker, S. B. Kellam, James Kontogianis, A. R. Mathias, R. J. Cherry, John McCamie and Leo Herry.

Oceana Head
To Be Guest
Legion Speaker

American Legion, Post 113 has had the good fortune to secure Commander Harry M. Pugh to deliver the principal address at the Memorial Day ceremonies at the Post Home on Lankin Road. Commander Pugh is now acting commandant of the Oceana Naval Air Base. Prior to this assignment, he was commanding officer of Anti-Submarine Squadron No. 30, based in Norfolk. He is a native of Bradford, Ohio, and a graduate of Ohio State University. Entered the Navy in 1939, Commander Pugh served with distinction throughout World War II.

The exercises are to begin at 1:30 P.M. with a half hour musical session after which the Memorial Day Prayer will be offered by U. S. Navy Chaplain W. R. Petrie. Commander Pugh's address will follow.

The ceremonies will end with the placement of a wreath by officers of the Ladies Auxiliary of Post 113 and a Salute to the dead fired by members of the 14th Transportation Company stationed at Fort Story.

An unusual feature will be the exhibition of the Army's Nike Guided Missile "Ajax." It will be presented by Battery "C" of the 98th A A Battalion.

This is one of the units providing vital protection in the Tidewater Area.

The public is cordially invited to attend the Services and all Legionnaires are urged to remain for the usual refreshments.

Lt. H. L. Watts, III, Reassigned

Norfolk — First Lt. Harry L. Watts III, assistant operations officer for Tidewater's 3rd Anti-aircraft Artillery Group and football coach for the group's 1956 team, has been reassigned to Europe. He is currently spending a leave with his parents, Col. (ret) and Mrs. Harry L. Watts Jr. of 302 45th Street, Virginia Beach.

An active member of Virginia Beach's rescue squad, Lieutenant Watts was graduated from Alabama Polytechnic Institute in 1951 with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Industrial Management.

A tackle on the API football team, he used his knowledge to coach the 3rd Group Cannoneers through a rugged second season of play against such opponents as Fort Lee, Va., and the Naval Base.

First assigned with the Group in 1953, he was a battery commanding officer and later operations officer for the 38th AAA Missile Battalion before moving to Group Headquarters.

Lieutenant Watts, a native of Minild, Philippine Islands, first enlisted in the service in 1944, serving with the 41st Infantry Division during the last of the Philippine Campaign. Following college he received his Army commission and later served with the 2nd Infantry Division in Korea.

Miss Laing Wins Award

South Hadley, Mass.—A resident of Virginia Beach, Miss Janet Laing, has won honorable mention for sculpture in the annual student art show held at Mount Holyoke College this month.

Miss Laing, a senior majoring in zoology, received the honorable mention for a terra cotta figure, "Polka." She also entered a plasticine figure entitled "Flamenco." A graduate of the Lincoln School in Providence, R. I., she is the daughter of Capt. and Mrs. F. W. Laing of 301 47th St.

Drive-In Church to Open Fifth Season Here

The Drive-In Church, which has been conducted by the pastor of the Scott Memorial Methodist Church in Oceana for the past four seasons, will open its fifth season on Sunday, June 2, at 8:30 a. m. The services are held at this hour each Sunday morning at the Virginia Beach Drive-In Theatre, located on Laskin Road, 31st St. extended, near Hilltop.

This unique service is non-sectarian in character — all people are welcome to worship, regardless of religious affiliation or preference. People of many faiths, and from many areas of our country have attended the services, as well as some from Canada and other areas, while vacationing in the Virginia Beach section.

The services are informal and inspirational, designed to help those who desire to share an experience of Christian worship in the out-of-doors, in the early hours of the Sabbath morning. For many people on vacation in the area of Virginia Beach, this service has provided a "Church Away from Home" in which they can keep up their practice of weekly worship while on vacation. A friendly invitation is extended to all vacationing in the area, as well as to those who may be going away for the day, and welcome the opportunity to begin the day with God in this early morning service.

For the first two years of its existence, the "Drive-In Church" was conducted by the Rev. W. N. Raney. The Rev. F. H. Strieby, present pastor of the Scott Memorial Church will conduct the services this summer for the third successive season.

The first service of the new Conference year in Scott Memorial Methodist Church, Sunday, June 2, at 11 a. m., will include a "Memorial Service" honoring the memory of all of the members of the church who have passed to their heavenly home during the church year. Friends and family of the deceased members are especially invited to this memorial service.

This Sunday will also mark its first Communion Service for the new Conference year, when the "Sacrament of the Lord's Supper" will be administered to all without respect to religious affiliation. The pastor, the Rev. F. H. Strieby, with Mrs. Strieby will attend the session of the Virginia Annual Conference of the Methodist Church to be held in Roanoke June 10-12. This active church has just brought to a close a most successful year, which marked the completion of the payment of the indebtedness on the church property and the dedication of the church last September 16th, and the purchase of additional land adjoining the present property, on which to build a

All of them. There's probably no other industry that employs as many different trades and professions as the American railroads. In the case of the Norfolk and Western, there are over 21,000 employees, and hundreds of them work in jobs not commonly associated with railroading. This wide range of human skills is one example of what it takes to maintain a service which truly is the lifeline of the United States. Time and again it has been proven that there never has been and never will be a substitute for this nation's railroads—indispensable in peace, mandatory for survival in war. Anything that hinders the railroads from competitively building to peak efficiency and maintaining that efficiency slows the nation's progress and endangers a vital arm of defense.

This is an average of $4855 per employee, substantially above the national average individual income in the industrial field.

EDITORIALLY SPEAKING

An Outstanding Career

With the announcement this week of the resignation of Mr. John B. Day as a member of the Princess Anne County School Board and for the past 17 years the Board's chairman, it is difficult to evaluate adequately the fine service this man has rendered to the citizens and children of Princess Anne County.

Mr. Day has served as the School Board Chairman through years of unparalleled growth in school facilities and in school population in Princess Anne County. He has contributed his time and energy in meeting what, at times, must have seemed unsurmountable odds in coping with the many varied and complex problems brought on by a rapidly growing area.

Mr. Day's capable leadership and keen judgment has been a contributing factor in establishing the county school system among the best in the State of Virginia.

Mr. Day and his fellow board members have done a remarkable job through the years and their problems as school board members have no doubt been greater than in many areas since World War Two and governmental activities have made this area one of the fastest growing areas in the Nation.

According to the announcement Mr. Day's resignation becomes effective June 30. We can say without reservation that Mr. Day's service is appreciated beyond words by the people of Princess Anne County and his devoted service to the school system here for the past 17 years will be reflected in the men and women of future years, who will benefit by his work and effort and the work and effort of the other fine citizens who serve our school system.

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING

Jefferson on Government Economy

The versatile Thomas Jefferson was never, according to our limited research, an editorial writer. But the words of the eminent third president have been used by editors through the years in their attempt to chart on paper the course of a free society.

It therefore was with more than normal interest that we reviewed the other day some of Jefferson's thoughts on government economy. Reading them, we could visualize the great Virginian, with pen in hand, attacking the problem of government spending money today.

Jefferson laid down some "essential principles on this government" in his Inaugural Address on March 4, 1801. He listed among these principles "economy in public expense . . . the honest payment of our debts and (the) sacred preservation of the public faith." He considered "economy among the first and most important virtues, and public debt as the greatest of dangers."

After his retirement from public life, he wrote:

"Considering the general tendency . . . to increase expense to the ultimate term of burden which the citizen can bear, it behooves to avail ourselves of every occasion which presents itself for taking off the surcharge; that it may never be seen here that after leaving to labor the smallest portion of its earnings on which it can subsist, the government shall itself consume the residue of what it was instituted to guard."

"If we can prevent the government from wasting the labors of the people under the pretense of caring for them, they will be happy . . . The multiplication of public offices, increase of expense beyond income, growth of the public debt, are indications soliciting the employment of the pruning knife."

We suspect that if Mr. Jefferson were alive today he would be calling for the axe instead of the pruning knife.

men complained that the service roads are too narrow in many cases to allow use by tractor-trailers.

Where left turns are prohibited vehicles wishing to reach the other side of the highway have to turn right into the service road and drive to a cross-over. There they cross at right angles to boulevard traffic.

Mills was told that vehicles waiting on the service road to make such a crossing block the service road to other traffic.

Commenting on the expected increase in traffic, he said the day may come when an entirely new highway will have to be built between Norfolk and Virginia Beach.

It probably would have to be of controlled-access design, he said—traffic could enter and leave the boulevard only at an interchange.

Mrs. Gregory Nominated for Club Presidency

Mrs. J. D. Gregory has been reelected as President of the Kempsville Woman's Club for the coming year. Other candidates presented by the nominating committee include Mrs. J. E. Hodges, 1st. Vice President; Mrs. R. F. Humphries, 2nd. Vice President; Mrs. J. W. Pick, 3rd. Vice President; Mrs. R. L. Thomson, Recording Secretary; Mrs. R. M. Nelson, Corresponding Secretary; Mrs. James R. Land, Treasurer; and Mrs. Lyman S. Clarke, Historian.

At a recent meeting of the Club at the Pine Tree Inn, Mrs. S. A. Meads, Mrs. G. A. Downs, Mrs. Joseph K. Fry, and Mrs. H. A. Barker were welcomed as new members.

Mrs. J. D. Gregory as President, Mrs. J. E. Hodges and Mrs. R. F. Humphries as delegate represented the Club at the recent Goldens Jubilee State Convention in Roanoke, Va. on April 30, May 1st and 2nd.

The convention was concluded with the Pageant "Autumn Leaves" depicting fifty years (50) of Woman's Club work. Mother Alice Kyle of Lynchburg, the first President of the first Federated Women's Club in Virginia of 1907 and Mrs. William Murray President for 1957 were present.

Wahab Addresses Beach Civitans

"In nine cases out of ten, juvenile delinquency can be attributed to home environment and should properly be called parental delinquency," Commonwealth's Attorney of Princess Anne County, Robert S. Wahab told Virginia Beach Civitans Tuesday evening, May 21. This does not mean broken or impoverished homes as such, Wahab explained. It does mean homes of all kinds where conditions of neglect, parental conflict or intolerance lead to insecurity for the juvenile.

Citing F.B.I. crime statistics, the Commonwealth's Attorney told how juvenile crime had increased 17% in 1956 over the previous year. Of persons charged with major crimes, 46% were 18 or younger. In the category of first arrests, the 15 year age group contributed more arrests than any other age group. In response to questions, Wahab indicated that Princess Anne County and Virginia Beach statistics showed that this community was keeping pace with the national averages for juvenile crime.

Pointing out that these startling figures represented only 2% of the total juvenile population being involved, Wahab urged the Civitans to recognize the problem, not to over-emphasize or ignore it. Recognition should be, he said, by parents setting the proper example for their children, by understanding and treating juvenile problems with reason and tolerance, and by maintaining fair standards of discipline.

Stephenson Appointed Insurance Agent

Joseph E. Stephenson, Jr., Lynnhaven, Va., has been appointed part-time resident agent for Nationwide Insurance according to word received today from O. D. Gardner, local district sales manager for the Companies.

Mr. Stephenson is a native of Norfolk, Va., and is presently associated with the Naval Air Station. Working in Lynnhaven and vicinity, Mr. Stephenson will represent the Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company, the Nationwide Mutual Fire Insurance Company, the National Life Insurance Company, selling Auto, Fire, Life, Hospital, General Casualty and Inland Marine Insurance.

F.O.P. Urges Motorists To Be Alert Over Holiday Period

A summer-long safety drive to keep Va. Beach motorists alert and alive was announced today for the local Fraternal Order of Police.

Based on the slogan, "For Safety's Sake, Stop for a Coffee Break," it will begin on Memorial Day and continue through Labor Day. E. A. Culverhouse, president of the local F.O.P. lodge said it will include distributing bumper strips to local drivers for use on their cars, posting the strips as streamers around the city, and a citizen education program on good driving practices. The bumper strips feature a double message, the campaign slogan, and the additional admonition, "Slow Down and Live."

"Our campaign is directed at the motorist who gets in his car and drives for several hours at a time, whether it be on a long vacation trip or a week-end drive or at any time," Culverhouse said. Experience has shown that long periods of driving result in fatigue or "highway hypnosis," which dulls the operator's reactions and increases the possibility of an accident.

"Expert distance drivers, such as truckers and bus operators, stop regularly for rest periods. Through our summer campaign we hope to make our citizens aware of the necessity not only of driving at lawful speeds, but also of making regular safety stops for a cup of coffee and a few minutes rest," he added.

Culverhouse listed several points for motorists to follow to insure reaching their destinations safely: 1. Never exceed the speed limit, and don't feel you have to drive at the top limit; vary your speed to help you keep alert.

2. When behind the wheel, don't do anything but drive. Let someone else look at maps, toll tickets, etc. If alone, stop if you must take your attention away from driving.

3. Stop for coffee every couple of hours, get out of the car, walk around and stretch your legs.

4. Keep alert to everything happening on the road ahead; and use the rear-view mirror so that you know what is going on behind you.

5. Never drive if over-tired; it is better to stop for the night and start out fresh in the morning. Never start a trip after working or playing all day. Show down and live—and enjoy your trip.

6. Advance tickets may be purchased by contacting Mrs. Ashley Haycox, ticket chairman, Virginia Beach 3044. Tickets may also be purchased at the box office on the evenings of the performance.

Mrs. Arthur Masury is directing.

Local Jaycee Group Takes State Honors

The Virginia Beach Junior Chamber of Commerce has completed its most successful year as at the State Convention in Richmond. They won 9 first place awards; more than any other local in the state in their population group. Their Mr. Universe project was selected as the outstanding project of the year.

Local President, Bill Robertson was also proud of having one of his local members selected as the outstanding new Jaycee for the entire state. The Virginia Junior Chamber of Commerce selected C. B. (Neal) Owens as the outstanding new Jaycee for the entire state. The award is given to the man who has not been in the organization for over 12 months and who has done most in his own local chapter. There were 90 eligible chapters in Virginia and competition was keen and exciting. The final selection was made by the committee with personal interviews. The judging was based on civic activity, committee work, committee chairmanship character, and knowledge of the Jaycee local, state and National organization.

This Jaycee civic work consisted of the following chairmanships: chairmanship of the Voice of Democracy contest, which took a first place state award; of the Social Committee which ran 36 separate functions; Jamestown Festival. Tag sales for crippled children; sub-committee chairman of the Beach Project and Mrs. Universal Ball. Committee activity included Joy Fund Committee, Miss Virginia Beach, Mr. Universe, Miss Virginia, Football Weekend, First Citizen, Get Out the Vote Membership Committee, Awards Committee, Teen-age Road-e-o. Leadership Training, Sea Scouts, Blood Drive and Publicity.

Summer School To Open June 17

June 12th has been set as the final day of registration for summer school at Princess Anne High School. Summer school opens on Monday, June 17th and closes on Saturday, August 10th with classes meeting from 8:30 A.M. until 12:30 P.M. five days a week.

All required courses in Social Studies, Language Arts, Mathematics and Science will be taught; and any elective for which there is adequate enrollment. Enrollment is open to any student in the 8 through 12th grades and to any high school graduate.

Additional information may be obtained by calling Lowell 7-7613.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Mr. Editor:

I was very pleased to be awarded second prize in your recent subscription contest, and would like to take this opportunity to thank all my friends who made this possible by taking Sun-News subscriptions from me.

Sincerely,
Elsie M. Gilliam

Dear Mr. Mailhes:

I would like to say that I thoroughly enjoyed my part in the Virginia Beach Sun-News contest. It made me get out and meet people—both old friends and new acquaintances—who were continually anxious to help.

I wish to thank these people—it was their enthusiasm and cooperation that won the third prize for me.

I thank you all—

Little Theatre

In "The Solid Gold Cadillac" and who has done a number of parts with the Virginia Beach Little Theatre and formerly with the Old Dominion Guild Players, will play a strong supporting role.

Wade Williams, well known for his performances, will again appear in an important part in the play.

Billie Atwill, who will be remembered for her unusual interpretation of a finer part in "The Night of January 15" and past performances in both the Old Dominion Guild Players and the Norfolk Little Theatre will also be in the cast of "Light Up The Sky."

Anne and Tom Ellis, newcomers to the Virginia Beach Little Theatre will also appear in the production, having come from Philadelphia where they did Little Theatre work and also were active in the Pasadena Play House. Others with previous experience and who will appear in this production are John McFall, who was last in "See My Lawyer," Ernest Posey who was last in "The Solid Gold Cadillac" and Gloria Johnson who was last in "See My Lawyer."

David Acton, a newcomer from Philadelphia and with a background of theatre activity from that location, completes the cast for the forthcoming production of "Light Up The Sky."

Most of the wine made in the U. S. is produced in California.

backs in final construction, the Pan American Highway will be open from Alaska to Costa Rica in early 1957.

Most people seek security so desperately that it is no wonder that a few succeed by taking long chances.

ACCOMMODATIONS NEEDED FOR VISITING ARTISTS

The Virginia Beach Art Association is soliciting accommodations for out of town artists who will exhibit in the Boardwalk Art Show, July 11-13. Artists from as far away as California are expected. This is an opportunity for housewives to earn an extra dollar, and to participate in what has become an annual community event, by welcoming these artists into their homes.

It is anticipated that these will be groups and families, as well as couples and singles. Your prompt response will enable the Art Association to include your name and reasonable rates with its invitation mailing list.

Public Invited to Visit Air Station

Virginia Beach — On Tuesday morning, June 4, the public will be invited to visit the miles-long Master Jet Base at the United States Naval Air Station Oceana. The occasion will be the dedication of Soucek Field in honor of former Vice Admiral Apollo Soucek, who from 1953 to 1955 was Chief of the Navy's Bureau of Aeronautics.

The dedicatory address will be delivered by Rear Admiral James S. Russell, USN, the present Chief of the Bureau of Aeronautics.

Following the formal dedication ceremonies the nationally famous Blue Angels, the Navy's flight demonstration team of high-speed precision pilots, will stage an air show. For the benefit of the public a representative of the Blue Angels will provide a running commentary describing the intricate maneuvers to be performed during the demonstration.

With planes capable of speeds in excess of 700 miles per hour and with precision formations calling for planes to fly only a few inches apart, guests at the Oceana Air Station are assured of a thrilling visit.

Virginia Beach Art Association To Show Unusual Exhibit

Last week the Virginia Beach Art Association found itself with 720 pounds of art work on its hands (express collect). This was a loan exhibition of contemporary paintings by outstanding Virginia artists, specially selected by a three-man jury of leaders in the art world. Lent and sent by the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts, these were recently shown in a major exhibition in Richmond.

These will be on display to the public, admission free, between the hours of 1 and 5 p. m., Saturday through Tuesday, at Virginia Beach Friends School on Laskin Road.

"We hadn't expected such a magnificent loan," said Mrs. John H. Doyle Jr., president of VBAA for the past two years. "But we had a problem. Where could we find one place to hang all these paintings?"

The Virginia Beach branch of the National Bank of Commerce offered the use of the lobby of their brand-new building. The Cavalier Club could accommodate some; so could the Avamere Hotel. Memorial Day week-end presented complications.

Though all three places, plus the Princess Anne Country Club, were willing to work together and split the exhibit, the association was anxious to show the entire collection all together.

"It is impressive," she said, "to see the immense variety of styles and techniques which our own artists, from all over Virginia, have done and are doing. We ourselves are particularly interested, in view of our own second Boardwalk Art Show scheduled for July."

The use of Friends School, which has its closing exercises for the 1956-1957 school year on Friday morning, was a great piece of luck.

"Friends School is bright, new, fresh, and attractive. It's easily accessible on Laskin Road, just a little south of Linkhorn Park School, on the inside road of the highway going toward Norfolk."

She added that the choice of Friends School "indicates what has become a very strong need in our growing Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County community these last few years — the need for a central building, on its own grounds, to be used for cultural purposes."

Four organizations — VBAA, the Virginia Beach Concert Assn., the Little Theatre, and the Council of Garden Clubs of Virginia Beach and Princess Anne County — have already formed an Allied Arts Anna, with the purpose of raising the necessary funds for carrying through such a project.

"Meanwhile," she said, "we have the loan of Friends School, and the loan of this wonderful exhibit. For the time being, until we get a building of our own, we're more than happy."

Cavalier Garden Club Holds Final Meet of Season

The Cavalier Garden Club held the final meeting of the season at the Princess Anne Country Club Wednesday, May 15th.

Mrs. E. A. Hoffmeister, retiring president, received a gift from the club for her untiring effort of leadership for the past year.

Mrs. J. L. Weiler of Norfolk installed the following new officers: Mrs. C. G. Baughman, president; Mrs. C. M. Rau, first vice president; Mrs. R. F. Maul, second vice president; Mrs. E. H. Whitehurst, recording secretary; Mrs. H. Webb Brown, corresponding secretary; Mrs. M. T. Tarrell, treasurer; Mrs. K. S. Land, parliamentarian and Mrs. P. H. Allen, historian.

During the year Mrs. W. G. Saunders received the most points for her floral arrangements, with Mrs. E. A. Hoffmeister and Mrs. M. W. Johnston Sr. tied for second place.

Mrs. M. W. Johnston Sr. was awarded the Louise Saunders perpetual silver trophy.

Ribbons were awarded as follows: Arrangements: Mrs. W. G. Saunders two blue; Mrs. Ida M. Edmond one yellow; Mrs. M. W. Johnston Sr. one red.

Specimens: Mrs. J. A. Perkinson one blue, one red; Mrs. C. G. Baughman one blue; Miss Ida M. Edmond one yellow, one red; Mrs. W. H. Darden one red.

Entertainment Set For Chamber of Commerce Fete

This gifted twosome have an impressive background in the entertainment world. Hal Schaefer is noted for his Victor album musical arrangements — for 12 movies, star billing at The Embers and The Composer Room in New York, and appearances on a number of TV network shows including the Steve Allen show.

Lee Schaefer is equally endowed with professional recognition in her own name as she sings with the Wayfarers, Victor recording stars, and last winter she spent a successful engagement at the Blue Angel in New York. The Schaefers are host at the Surf Club this season.

Aside from the guest entertainers, the program at the Chamber dinner meeting features as the main speaker for the evening Capt. Russell B. Smith, USN, currently commanding officer of the Naval Amphibious Test and Evaluating Unit, U. S. Naval Amphibious Base at Little Creek. Harold Kellam will introduce Captain Smith.

The public is invited to this semi-annual dinner meeting which will be a buffet. Reservations may be made by calling the Chamber of Commerce, Virginia Beach 302.

Optometry Council Elects New Officers

At a meeting held in Norfolk this week the Tidewater Council of Optometry elected their officers for the coming year.

Dr. Samuel Henden of Hampton was elected president. Dr. Howard D. Kahn of Virginia Beach was elected vice president. Dr. R. B. Gale of Newport News secretary, and Dr. Edward Millan of Norfolk treasurer. Dr. G. S. Buchanan of Norfolk, Dr. S. E. Clark of Warwick and Dr. R. A. White of Norfolk were elected to the executive committee.

A dinner meeting will be held in Hampton next month.

Canada spent $700,000,000 in highway construction and improvement in 1956.

Renews Radio Show

Pictured Above is Miss Pat Fisher, who will start her second season with the "Lean Back and Listen" Show on WBOF beginning this Saturday, June 1st. The Show will be on the air from Saturday evenings from 7 till 7:30 and will run throughout the summer months. As listeners will remember from last years show Pat's smooth style and tempting voice is indeed a pleasure to listen to at the close of day. Her show will be produced by Mr. Bob Cheza, program director of station

Summer Hours Are In Effect For 'Founders'

Williamsburg — Summer hours for "The Founders," Paul Green's new drama in Williamsburg, went into effect Tuesday, May 28, and will be in force through September 1. The new time for the drama, which is held each afternoon, except Mondays, at the Cove Amphitheatre, will be 4 p. m. (E.S.T.).

"The time change from 3:30 p. m. is to take full advantage of the shade from surrounding trees and to insure added comfort during the summer months," according to Allen R. Matthews, executive vice president of the Jamestown Corporation, producers of the new drama.

"The Founders," which successfully opened its premiere season two weeks ago, relates the trying times of the first permanent colonists from their landing in 1607 until the terrorizing Indian massacre of 1622. It is produced as a part of the Jamestown Festival.

Upon entering Great Britain, all dogs must be put in a six-month quarantine

Golf Tourney at Cavalier Club Gets Under Way

Sidney Banks of the Cavalier Hotel at Virginia Beach has announced that a new low price in admissions will be offered for the Triangle Round Robin Golf Tournament to take place at the Cavalier Golf Course beginning May 29, 1957, and continuing through June 2, 1957.

Tickets for the Ladies Professional Golf Association sanctioned event will be $1 per day, and $3 for the entire five days. Booster tickets are being sold through the Virginia Beach Sports Club at $10.

This year's fifth annual playing of the tourney has turned out an exceptional field of women professionals. Some of those who have accepted invitations to compete in the $12,000 prize event are Betsy Rawls of Spartanburg, S. C.; Beverly Hanson of Indio, Calif.; Patty Berg of Chicago, Ill.; Joyce Ziske of Milwaukee, Wis.; Ruth Jessen of Seattle, Wash.; Marilyn Smith of Wichita, Kan.; Betty Jamison of San Antonio, Texas; Marlene Bauer Hays of Delray Beach, Fla.; Fay Crocker of Montevideo, Uruguay; Kathy Cornelius of Lake Worth, Fla.; and Mary Lena Faulk of Thomasville, Ga.

Les Larsen, Cavalier Club pro, has stated that pairings will be released for the opening day early. The tourney is to get underway at 1:30 p. m. each day. Larsen said the Cavalier course will be closed to those not competing at noon each day.

Lutheran Service Center To Begin Operation

A Lutheran Service Center, open to all service personnel, will begin operation on June 1 at the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd, 18th and Atlantic Aves., Virginia Beach.

The Center will provide shower facilities, games, lounge, TV, and other activities. Hours are from 2 p. m. to 9 p. m. on Saturdays and Sundays, and 4:30 p. m. to 9 p. m. Tuesday through Friday. The Center, which will remain open from June through August, is being jointly sponsored by the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd and the Lutheran Service Commission.

The MIXING BOWL... IT'S Fun TO COOK

By LUCILE CLARK
SUN-NEWS FOOD EDITOR

For the very latest in food fads and foibles... for practical, down-to-earth recipes that please both palate and pocketbook, read the "Mixing Bowl" by Lucile Clark each Thursday in the Sun-News.

Well, I hope you're having a grand May 30th and if you aren't picnicking, I'm sure you soon will be. I've hunted around to find some easy by delightful picnic treats - so when you start planning - you'll have some suggestions - right at hand.

Outdoor Cooking - Barbecuing and Picnics are all favorites.
The very history of barbecuing establishes it as primarily a man's occupation. No matter whether it originated in France, Spain or Mexico - for all claim it. Most Americans now add - think of it as a peppery, vinegar, tomato sauce over some kind of meat.

A century ago, however, when barbecuing became a really important phase of American Cookery, the emphasis was not on the Sauce. To most of our forefathers, north south, east or west, barbecue suggested a large outdoor gathering. Political speeches & a band were as essential as the feast of roasted barbecued meats itself.

Harper's Weekly, for October 1886, describes the barbecue in vogue at that time. It tells us that "asked to define the whole duty of a man in a political year, nine out of ten persons in the South or Middle West would say, to holler right vete straight, and eat as much barbecue as any other man in the Country". No doubt this form of entertainment smoothed & softened campaign aspirations. The barbecues of that day seem generally to have been non-partisan affairs. The members of both parties came. Folk gathered from far & near, rising at dawn to reach the appointed place in time for speeches and the band concert. There were no hors d'oeuvres or advance refreshments no appetizers or cocktails. Everyone arrived half - starved, eager for the main courses. Harper's Weekly related, the meat was roasted whole or in quarters.
Branches of sassafras wood were cut & whittled to sharp points.
These were used as spits, their ends extending over the edges of the pits in which the fires were built. While roasting, the meat was basted only with hot salted water. At the end, when the meat was on the carving table, it was dressed with "dixie" sweet lard
& the strongest vinegar, seasoned with red & black pepper. It was so peppery hot, that it brought tears to the eyes of the novices.
The only accompaniment to the roast meat was thick slices of the best bread that could be had also cucumbers, fresh & pickled.

I could write on and on about this interesting subject, but I believe I'd better get back to some home-style of 1957 - barbecuing.
We'll let the politicians still do the worrying about barbecuing on such a large scale.
Here are just a few tips, you might like to have: Buy a sauce or kitchen bouquet brushed on meats gives a beautiful crisp brown glaze and a delicious salty flavor. Particularly good for steaks, chicken, lamb, veal & fish. Use a glass or enamel pan for this brushing.
Honey creates a good rich glaze on barbecued foods and is marvelous on chicken.
To reduce heat under a skillet or pan, use an asbestos pad.

Quick-frozen vegetables are excellent for outdoor food preparation, as they are compact, easy & quick to cook.
Be sure to have a large tray with all the things you'll need. This will save many a trip indoors and save lots of time, too.

Charcoal - Broiled Steak
1 4-pound sirloin steak (2 1/2 inches thick)
Salt - pepper - butter
Before cooking, trim away most excess fat so that drippings won't burn too much - Catch the fat edges of steak to prevent curling.
Build your charcoal fire & let it burn for about 45 minutes. At this point you should have a lively bed of coals covered with a gray film but no active fire.
Rub the grill or broiling rack well with fat trimmings. This prevents meat from sticking & wafts a delicious appetite - whetting aroma into the air. Place steak 6 or 7 inches from the hot coals. Grill first side to a dark crusty, brown, for medium rare-ness about 12 minutes. Flip with fork & turner. Do not poke fork into lean meat, or you'll be dripping the precious juices into the fire bed. If drippings flare up - water the flames down a little - now salt & pepper browned side.
Brown other side about 12 minutes - when removing to platter - season that side & add a generous hunk of butter or margarine - Serve at once. Steaks on for 4 - a baked potato, nice crisp

A Perfect Picnic Treat

Tired of making mountains of sandwiches for picnic totting?
Foil-wrap a chilled whole leg of lamb, roasted yesterday, slip it into your portable refrigerator or insulated carrier-bag. Add sweet Spanish onions, firm sun-ripe tomatoes, a loaf of your favorite rye bread, and let each one design his own sandwich treat—right on the spot.

This slices of tender, juicy, delicately-flavored lamb sandwiched between buttered slices of rye bread, along with whisper-thin onion and tomato slices—ah, here is Eating!

You've never known the delight of cold roast lamb if you link it with the leftover slices from yesterday's dinner roast. Cooked the day before in the usual fashion—moderately slow oven (325°F) about 30 minutes to the pound or, more accurately, until an oven meat thermometer registers around 120°F, and allowed to cool a bit before stowing it away in the refrigerator, all the juices are retained in the uncut roast to add their fine flavor to that of the lamb. Leg of lamb or boned and stuffed lamb shoulder may be used, by the way.

When thoroughly chilled—several hours or overnight, slice the cold roast lamb ever-so-thin, and enjoy! For picnic, patio, porch—here is the perfect meat for sandwiching in Good Eating!

tossed salad & fruit for dessert—
that's it - what a dinner!

Some variations — for Charcoal
Broiled Steak are: Marinate Steak in oil over nite adding juice of a lemon or 1/4 cup of good wine vinegar, or place steak in shallow pan & pour over salad oil that has been flavored with garlic sack, let stand 5 - 8 minutes & turn & soak 5 - 8 minutes longer.

Barbecued Beef Short Ribs
3 pounds lean short ribs
1 cup tomato juice
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
2 mashed cloves of garlic
1/4 teaspoon powdered cloves
1 teaspoon brown sugar
1 teaspoon dry mustard
1/2 cup red wine vinegar
1/4 teaspoon thyme
Make Marinade of all of the

Miss Hendricks Chooses Attendants for Wedding

Miss Albee Marie Hendricks, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs.
Charles T. Hendricks, of Glen-rock, who is to be married to Vernon Sawyer Tappin, June 16th, has chosen as her matron of honor
Mrs. Betty T. Middleton.

The bridesmaids will be Miss Shirley Hendricks, of Norfolk, cousin of the bride-elect, and Rachel McLawhorn of Norfolk.
Little Miss Gail Loreta Parron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Parron will be flower girl.

Larry Edward Hendricks, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Hendricks, cousin of the bride-elect, will be ring bearer.

Robert Savage, of Norfolk, will be best man. Groomsmen will be Thomas Lee Hendricks, brother of the bride-elect and Robert Valentine.

Beat well until well, mixed. Place meat in glass bowl, pour over the marinade & allow to stand 10 hours in the refrigerator - Remove 2 hours before using.

Grill meats over hot coals for about 25 minutes. Turn and baste — frequently — Serves 6.

Western - Style Pot Roast
6 pounds rolled bottom round
3 tablespoons fat
2 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 cup sour cream
1 cup sherry wine
8 small carrots
8 small onions
4 stalks celery cut in 1/2 inch lengths

Dredge the roast with a mixture of flour, salt & pepper. Heat fat in Dutch Oven - over grill (can use in oven if you're not an outdoor fan) until drop of water bubbles in it. Sear meat all over.
Add sherry wine & sour cream.
Cover & simmer for 1 1/2 hours.
Turn the roast & toss vegetables on top of meat. Cook for another hour - Serve with gravy in dutch oven - Serves about 8 -

So whether you like picnicking with sandwiches, deviled eggs - cup cakes & the like or a Barbecue in your own back yard - I think you'll soon be planning one or the other - at least if the youngsters have anything to do with it.

Mrs. Fulford Chesapeake Beach First Citizen

Mrs. H. W. Fulford was named "first citizen" of the year by the Chesapeake Beach Woman's Club at the final meeting of the year, May 14, at the community center. Mrs. Fulford is chairman of the club's garden department and has been for years a leader in community activities. Among her achievements was the founding of a group known as the "Golden Circle" and now known in her honor as the "Maude Fulford Golden Circle." Originally organized to aid and bring cheer to shut-ins, the circle has grown to include many who are less seriously handicapped and others who are merely interested in the welfare of their community. An opportunity is given to many persons to take an active part in community betterment who would otherwise be unable to contribute their services.

A silver bowl was presented to Mrs. Fulford by the club. Mrs. G. T. Veitling, club mother, received flowers in honor of Mother's Day and Mrs. W. H. Gayford, club chaplain, read a poem, "Old Fashioned Mother." Mrs. Luther Diggs sang several attractive selections. She was introduced by Mrs. F. Harrington.

Mrs. O. T. Edmondson, president, announced that Mrs. R. W. Spruill had won two red ribbons for her art work at the state convention of the Virginia Federation of Women's Clubs.

A typhoid clinic will be held at the community center June 14 from 2 to 3:30 p. m. It was announced by Mrs. R. J. Webson, welfare chairman, with two others to follow on successive Fridays. Mrs. Webson also reported on the second folk racing clinic, sponsored by the club and the Bayville Jaycees and on a Bloodmobile visit, sponsored by the same organizations.

A film on community betterment, produced by the Sears $10,000 Community Achievement Award organization, was shown by Ivan Mapp. The work of federated clubs was stressed.

Mrs. A. L. Zwillenki, youth chairman, presented a silver ladle to the club, on behalf of the youth groups. She reported a highly successful dance was held by the teen and pre-teen age club.

Mrs. F. Rieder, club treasurer, will serve as general chairman of the annual festival, August 10. It was announced. Mrs. J. W. Grandy, 2nd, membership chairman, announced a reception for new members May 23 at the center. Also honored will be Mrs. C. J. Parker and Mrs. J. H. Harrell, past presidents, who have received important promotions in the county school system.

Mrs. Grandy and Mrs. E. B. Moore were named club representatives to a special meeting to discuss plans inaugurated by the Princess Anne Junior Woman's Club for a county bookmobile.

Mrs. Rieder announced that about $250 had been raised at the recent joint supper given by the Woman's Club, Chesapeake Beach Men's Club and the Volunteer Fire Department. This will go to the building fund.

The club will hold its annual birthday meeting on the evening of the second Tuesday in October, the meeting to take the form of a "Bushman's Night." Mrs. Grandy, Mrs. Gayford and Mrs. J. A. Riddle were named to the committee on arrangements.

The club voted approval of the campaign under way by the Cape Henry Woman's Club for a single house officer for the county.

A rising vote of thanks was given to Mrs. E. R. Holt, chairman of hostesses for the meeting, for the delicious luncheon served.

The next meeting will be held on the second Tuesday in September.

Princess Anne 4-H Club Winners Given Awards

PRINCESS ANNE—Announcing the match was "a fight even until tonight," Princess Anne County agent E. Richard Cockrell Jr. awarded the top 4-H Club honor for the past 12 months to the Kempsville Community Club at the end of the Achievement Program at the Courthouse School last Wednesday night.

The top honor for junior club went to the host Courthouse Club, which received the announcement with the same gleeful applause it has exhibited on previous winning occasions.

Cockrell cited the Pungo Ridge and High School clubs for honorable mention in the senior group, while the Kempsville sixth and seventh grade club received the mention for junior clubs.

Winning for four top places in individual honors for 12 W. Olin trophies were Jimmy Bright, most outstanding senior boy; Carolyn Charles, senior girl; Ginger Oliver, junior girl, and Richard Grimstead, junior boy.

ducted by Cockrell, each winner of last year handed the trophy to this year's winner, except that Miss Charles was not present. Doris Humphries was last year's senior girl winner and Gene Bright was the senior boys' winner. The junior winners last year were Betty Ann Lee and Billy Grimstead.

Jack Thomas, assistant Norfolk County agent, announced the winners in last night's exhibit, which were judged according to the Danish system—not in numerical order. Rating blue ribbons were the Kempsville sixth and seventh grade club, the Kempsville Community club and the Pungo Ridge club. Placing red were the John B. Day club, the Kempsville fourth and fifth grade club and the High School club. The Thalia sixth and seventh grade club's exhibit, prepared by Ginger Oliver, also was cited for the red ribbon.

Winners in the recent Share the Fun or 4-H talent contests had parts in the presentation program: Paul Craig, junior boy winner, accordion; Boyd Wheeler, junior boys' speaking; Marlene Blackwell, junior girls' public speaking, and Betty Ann Melvin, soloist, senior girls' winner.

Also taking part in the presentations were Mrs. Elizabeth D. Deal, Home Demonstration agent, and L. Barnes Allen, assistant county agent.

Other Winners

Other winners, named in first, second, third order and their contests were:

Garden—Charlie Gentry, Betty Ann Lee, Richard Grimstead, Dan Humphries.

Dairy—Rose Smith, Gene Smith, Eleanor Sue Smith.

Carolyn Charles was the senior girls' winner in public speaking, besides the two winners already named. Other talent contest winners were Paulette Johnson, second junior winner, followed by Marlene Blackwell and Willard Thompson. Eddie Cooper and Harry Grimstead tied for second senior position.

Henry Crommelin Jr., to Graduate from Dartmouth. Henry Crommelin, Jr., 217 53rd St., Virginia Beach, was listed among the June, 1957, graduates of Dartmouth College.

Fort Story Buildings To Get New Paint Job

Fort Story will take on a fresh look as more than 100 buildings here get a new coat of paint.

The office of the Post Engineer has announced the low bidder on the contract, which will cost an estimated $25,000, was the Veterans Service Company of Richmond, Virginia.

New construction on post, according to the Engineers, is proceeding on schedule. 150 Capehart Housing Units located east of the parade ground should be ready for occupancy March, 1958, and a huge hangar type building which will house Fort Story's new B-47's is nearly half complete.

Colonel Ward To Be Feted At Retreat Review June 5

FORT STORY — Lt. Col. Frederick G. Ward, who for three years has been the Deputy Commander of Fort Story and the 5th Transportation Terminal Command "B," will review the officers and men of the 5th TTC "B" at a ceremonial retreat review here next Wednesday (June 5). Colonel Ward will leave Fort Story in June, and will take over new duties with the Yokohama Port, Japan, in August.

Maj. Gen. Rush B. Lincoln, Jr., commanding general of Fort Eustis and the Transportation Training Command, and Mayor Frank A. Dusch of Virginia Beach will be honored guests at the review and a reception following at the Officers' Open Mess.

On April 23 Colonel Ward, who as Deputy Commander has frequently been called upon to take over the helm during the absence of the Post Commander, assumed the duties of commanding officer of Fort Story and the 5th TTC "B." Col. George E. Woods Jr., who has been convalescing after undergoing surgery, will return to his duties as Post Commander on the 10th of June. Lt. Col. E. A. P. McCarthy is now Acting Post Commander.

Colonel Ward will leave Fort Story on the 12th of June. Before departing for the Far East he will vacation in Maine with Mrs. Ward and their two daughters, Mary Ann, 21, and 16-year-old Betty.

Colonel Ward was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the United States Army Reserve upon his graduation from Norwich University, Northfield, Vt., in 1933. Before his entry upon active duty in 1942 he was Superintendent of Schools in Sharon, Mass. A specialist in educational administration, Colonel Ward received the degree of Master in Education from Tufts College, Medford, Mass., in 1940, and studied at Harvard University. He has lectured on instructional methods and supervision at Tufts.

Called to active duty in the Spring of 1942, Colonel Ward was promoted to Captain in May of that year. He served with distinction throughout the war years in various capacities, including a tour of Commanding officer of a mine planter, while serving with the 10th Coast Artillery Mine Flanking Battalion in 1943 and 1944.

In September, 1944, he turned his talents to the field of military education, first as a student at the Information and Education School, and then with service with the Information and Education Division, Washington, D. C.

After a post-war tour of duty with the Boston Harbor Defense Command, Colonel Ward attended the Command and General Staff College, Fort Leavenworth, Kan. In 1947 he transferred to the Transportation Corps, and attended the Transportation School, Fort Eustis, Va. He was graduated in June, 1948, from the Advanced Officers Course.

Colonel Ward's first TC duty was as Director of Operations, Transportation Section, Headquarters, First Army. In 1950 he embarked on a three-year overseas tour in Europe where he served in various Transportation Staff positions with EUCOM and SHAPE.

In the summer of 1953 Colonel Ward returned to the United States, where in August he assumed the duties as Assistant Professor of Military Science and Tactics at the University of Oregon. In September, 1954, he was assigned to the Transportation Training Command, with duties as Deputy Post Commander at Fort Story.

Colonel Ward was integrated into the Regular Army in June, 1944. He was promoted to Major, AUS, in May, 1945, and to Major, RA, in July, 1946. He was awarded the silver oak leaves of a Lieutenant Colonel, AUS, in September, 1950, and became a Lieutenant Colonel, RA, in May, 1951.

His decorations include the European - African - Middle East Campaign Medal, the Asiatic-Pacific Campaign Medal, five overseas bars, two Commendation Ribbons with medal pendant, and the World War II Victory Medal.

New Slenderizing Salon Opens in Mayflower

Lilli Olsen, who has had a massage salon for 10 years at Virginia Beach, has installed a revolutionary new reducing process at her Swedish Massage Studio located in the Mayflower. One room in the studio has been exclusively equipped with the slenderizing process, which she calls the Figurama Room. The room is named after the tables which in her opinion are the most mechanically scientific on the market inasmuch as they may be adjusted from light to vigorous massage and are so designed to work on the desired area.

Weight and measurements are recorded to prove the effectiveness of the Figurama tables. Another feature of the new arrangement is the idea of offering comfort to the patron. In opening her larger studio last week which approaches being a real health salon similar to those in New York and Florida, Lilli explained she bought Figurama tables and expanded her facilities and services because this new reducing method should be a natural at a resort where swim suits and shorts are the order of the day.

COMRADES

Childhood is a brief span in the bridge of life. Yet it is during the early years that we lay the foundation for all that is to come.

Church School is over, and Eileen and Johnny linger on the church steps, talking about the lessons they've learned this morning. They both are excited because, under their teacher's guidance, the stories of the Bible are beginning to come alive for them.

We're not going to predict a "happy ever after" ending. We're not going to say that having met in Church School, Eileen and Johnny will go on seeing each other in church each week and that ultimately they'll grow up, fall in love, and get married. (Though, who knows? Maybe they will at that!)

But we are saying—and deeply believing—that through Church School these children and thousands upon thousands of other children are receiving religious education, an ever-expanding lesson in good fellowship, wisdom, kindness, and tolerance.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

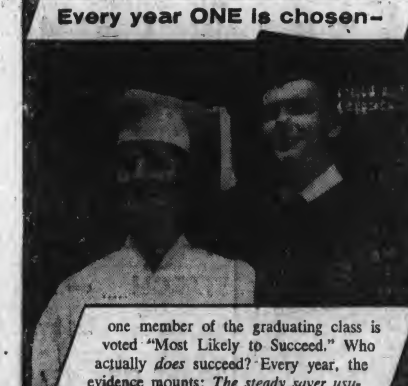

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. These are four sound reasons why every person should support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and spend your Bible study.
